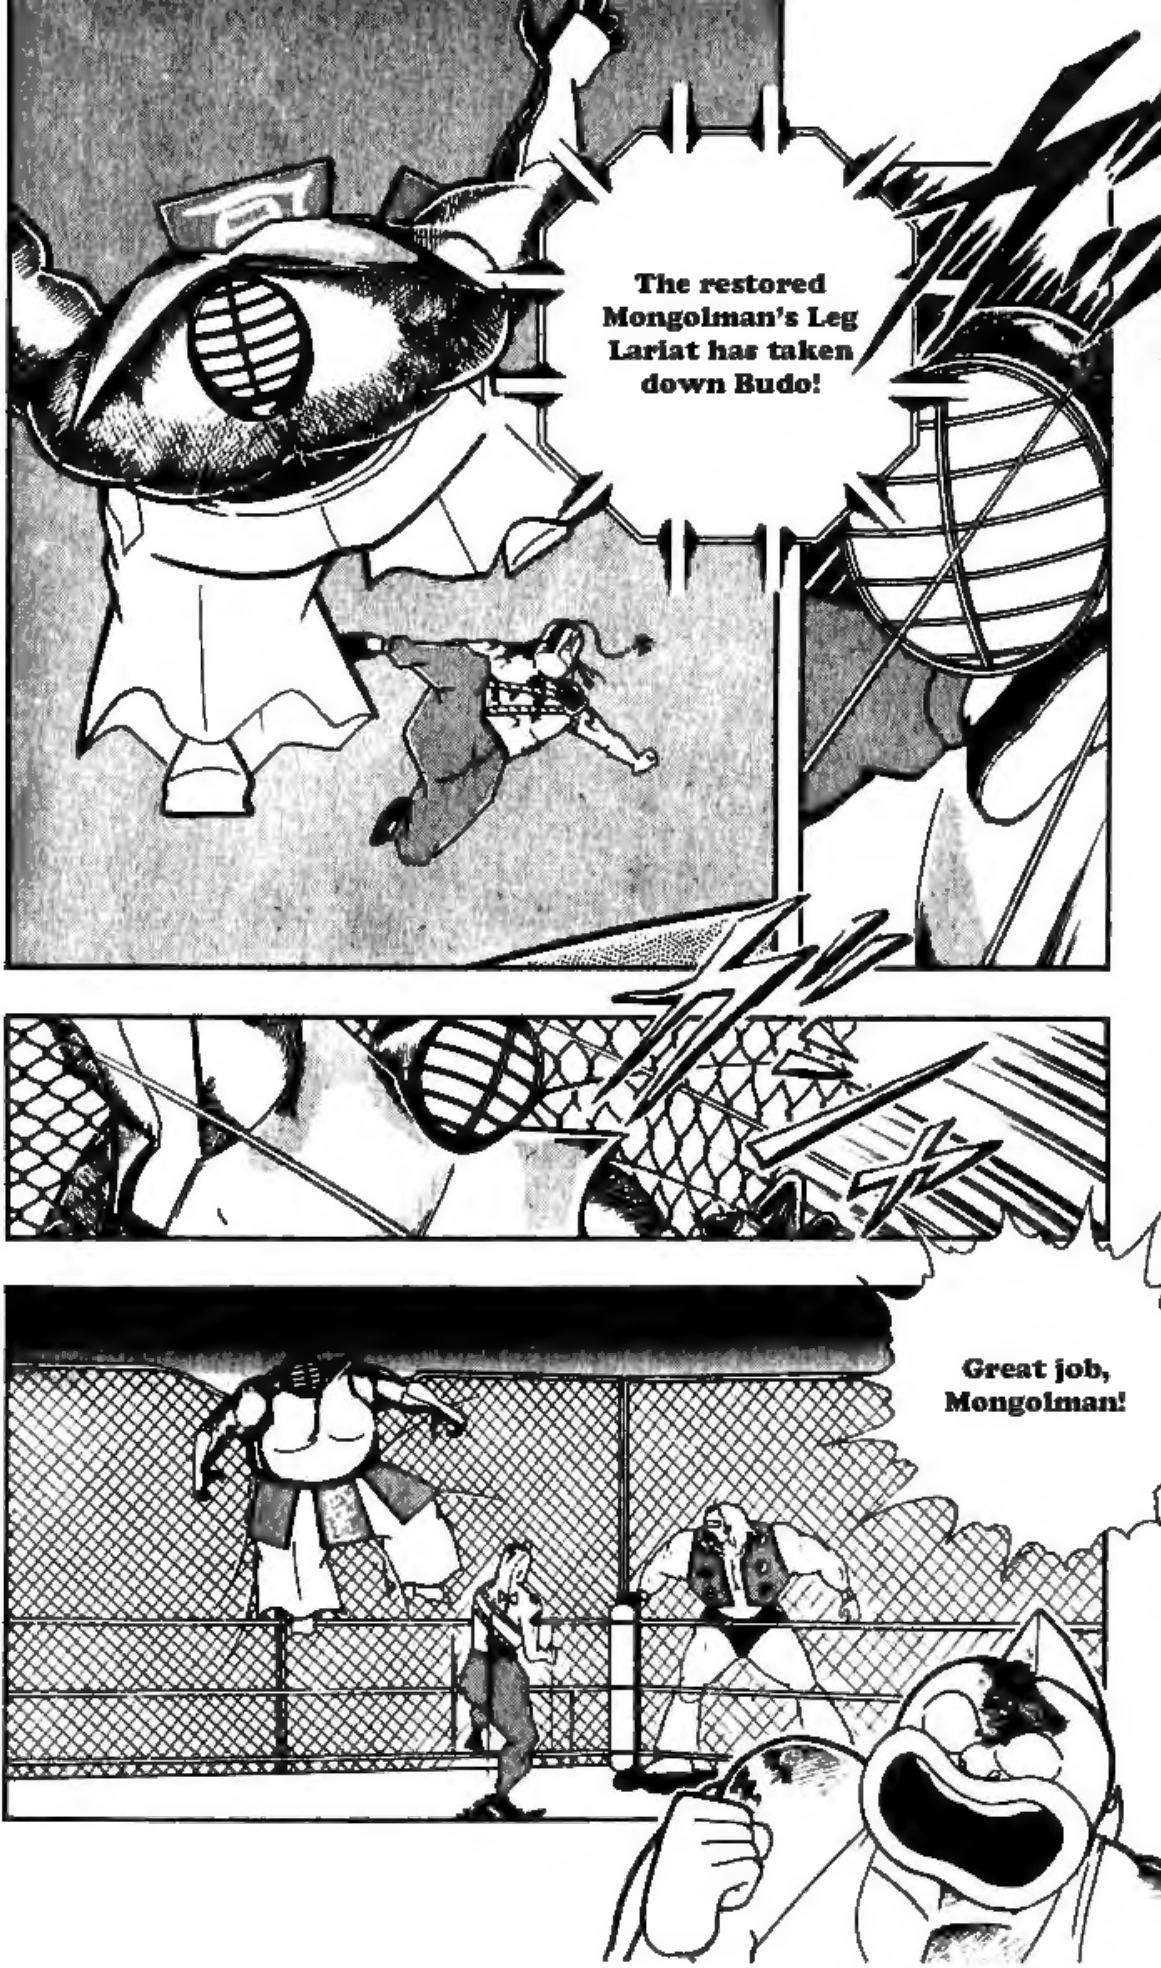
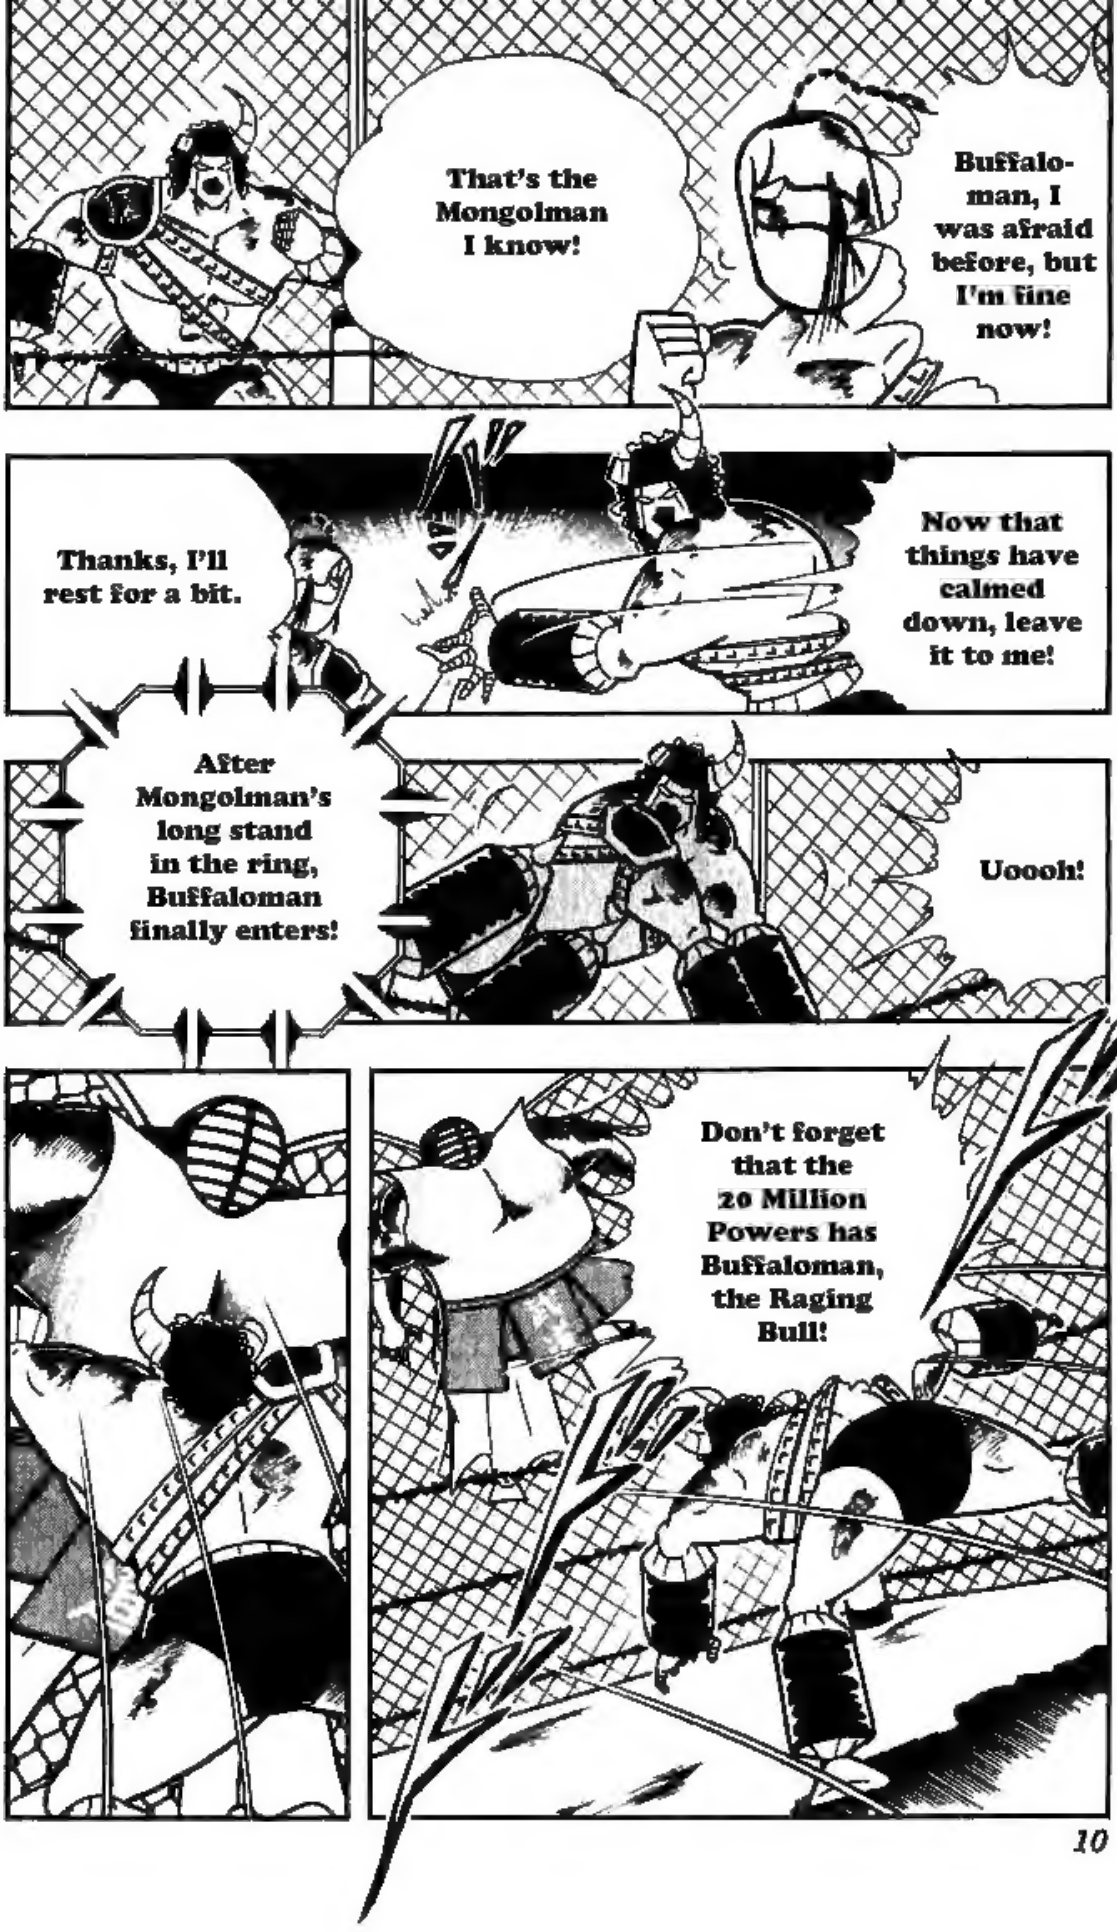
We apologize for this inconvenience.

- Team Kinniku

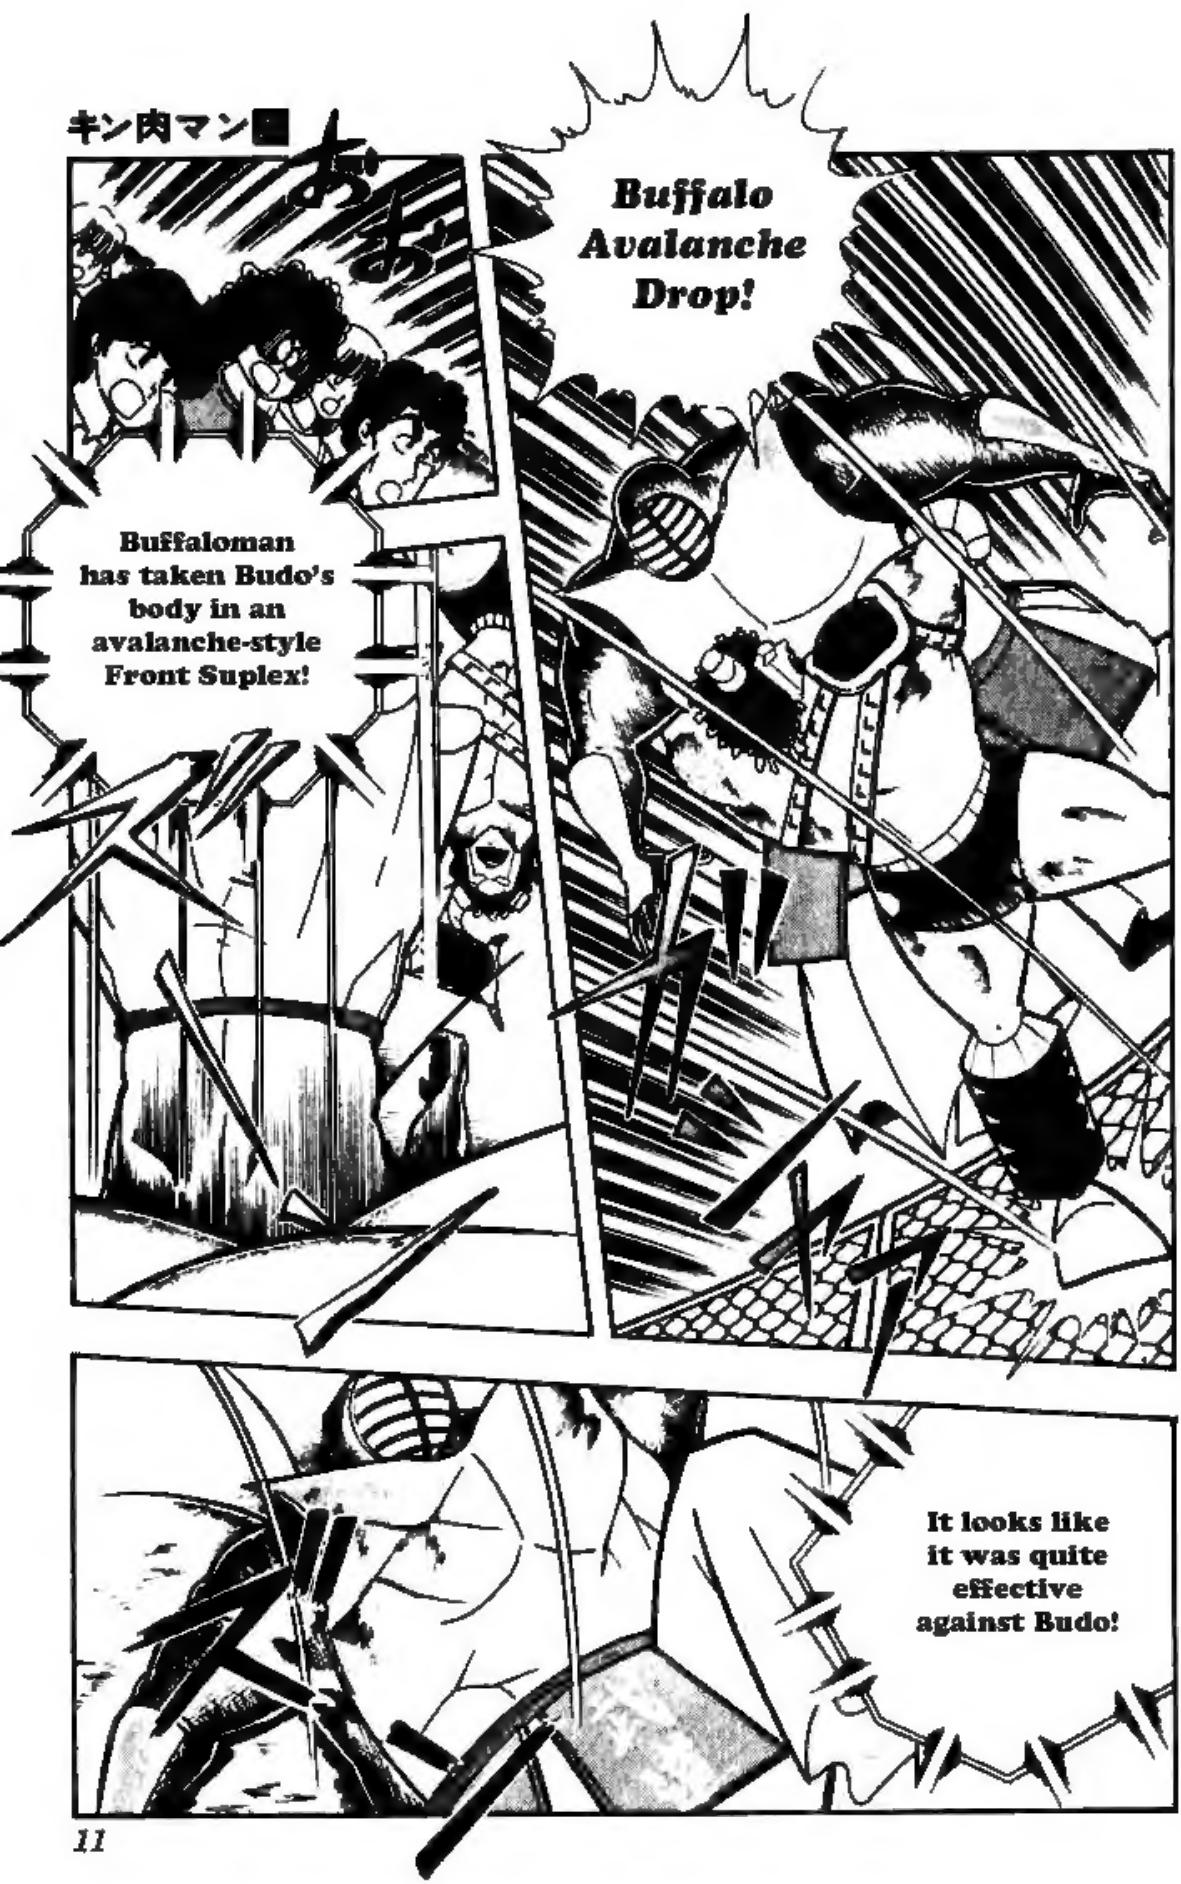


The restored Mongolman's Leg Lariat has taken down Budo!
Great job, Mongolman!

A Bear Claw was just thrown by Warsman's mask, who should be dead from our Cross Bomber!
It can't be...
Daha-haha!
Hahaha! He did it! He did it!
MAYU
Even if a Justice Chojin's body is destroyed, their friendship will live on!
Thank you Warsman. Thanks to you, I've finally come to my senses...



That's the Mongolman I know!
Buffalo-man, I was afraid before, but I'm fine now!
Thanks, I'll rest for a bit.
Now that things have calmed down, leave it to me!
After Mongolman's long stand in the ring, Buffaloman finally enters!
Uoooh!
Don't forget that the 20 Million Powers has Buffaloman, the Raging Bull!



Buffalo Avalanche Drop!
Buffaloman has taken Budo's body in an avalanche-style Front Suplex!
It looks like it was quite effective against Budo!

I'm sorry, Lord Neptuneman!
Budo, switch with me!
No! His power's been cut!
I made a big mistake earlier...
The 20 Million Power continue as the Hell Missionaries switch from Budo to Neptuneman!
What kind of mistake?
When we fought earlier, I didn't finish you when I had the chance.

It's a Special Long Horn!
The thing that you just called an ordinary Long Horn was specially created for my new hold...
Hmph, how will that help you? It's just an ordinary Long Horn...
おお

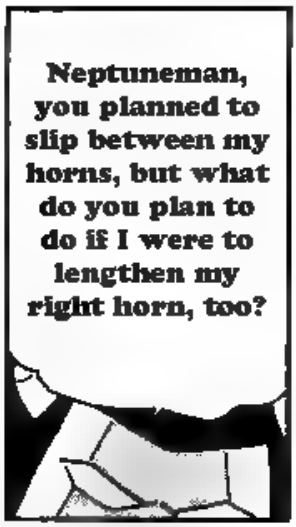
Heh heh heh, it's just like Kinnikuman said: when I first saw it, I was speechless. Then, a moment later...
I don't know how he plans to use that, but I'm still speechless!
I realized that it's just a bluff!
Die!
Neptuneman is being reckless! He's charging straight into Buffaloman's Long Horn!

The vast difference between the length of your horns will only make it harder to impale me!
Neptuneman has wedged himself between Buffaloman's horns!
.....
Geh!
When there's a difference in the length of your horns, the gap between them becomes bigger, too! As long as I'm between then, they can never pierce my body!
Space is small
Space is big
I know that you want to ram them through my body, no matter how long they are, but...

Even though he just got over his fear of the wire-screen deathmatch, Mongolman's morale is about to take another hit from seeing his partner's special attack defeated.
But Neptuneman... He quickly came up with a perfect counterattack without even a moment's hesitation!
When a Chojin seems those horns, they panic and it takes them a while to calm back down...
Huh?
Mongolman isn't the least bit upset!
I think he's laughing at Buffaloman's crisis!
It's like he knows he's going to win!
It's not just Mongolman! Buffaloman is laughing too, even though his new hold was defeated!

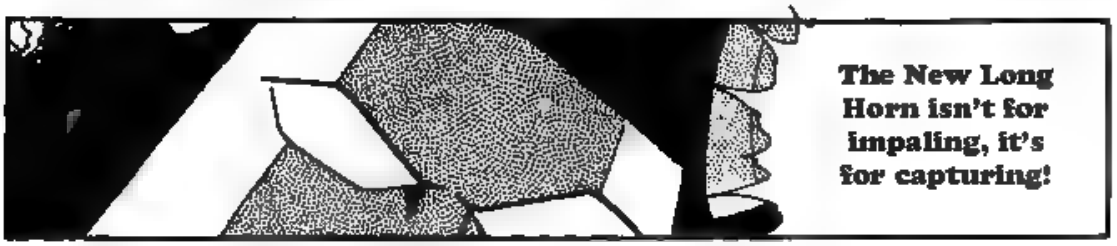
What exactly is going on!?

What!?



Neptuneman, you planned to slip between my horns, but what do you plan to do if I were to lengthen my right horn, too?

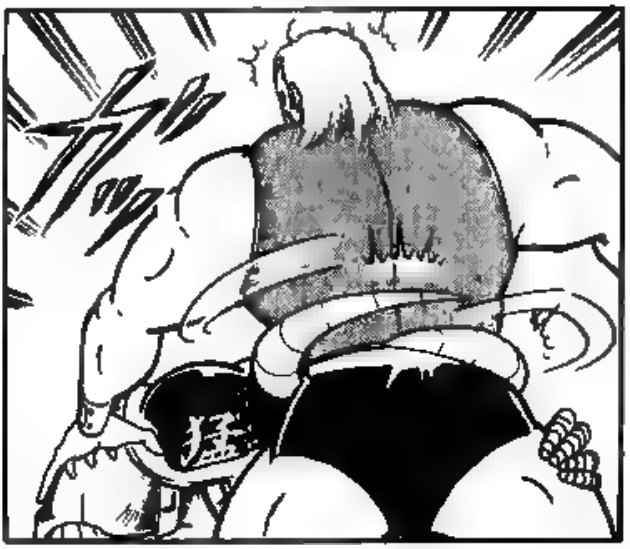
Guwahaha! Have you accepted defeat, Buffaloman!?



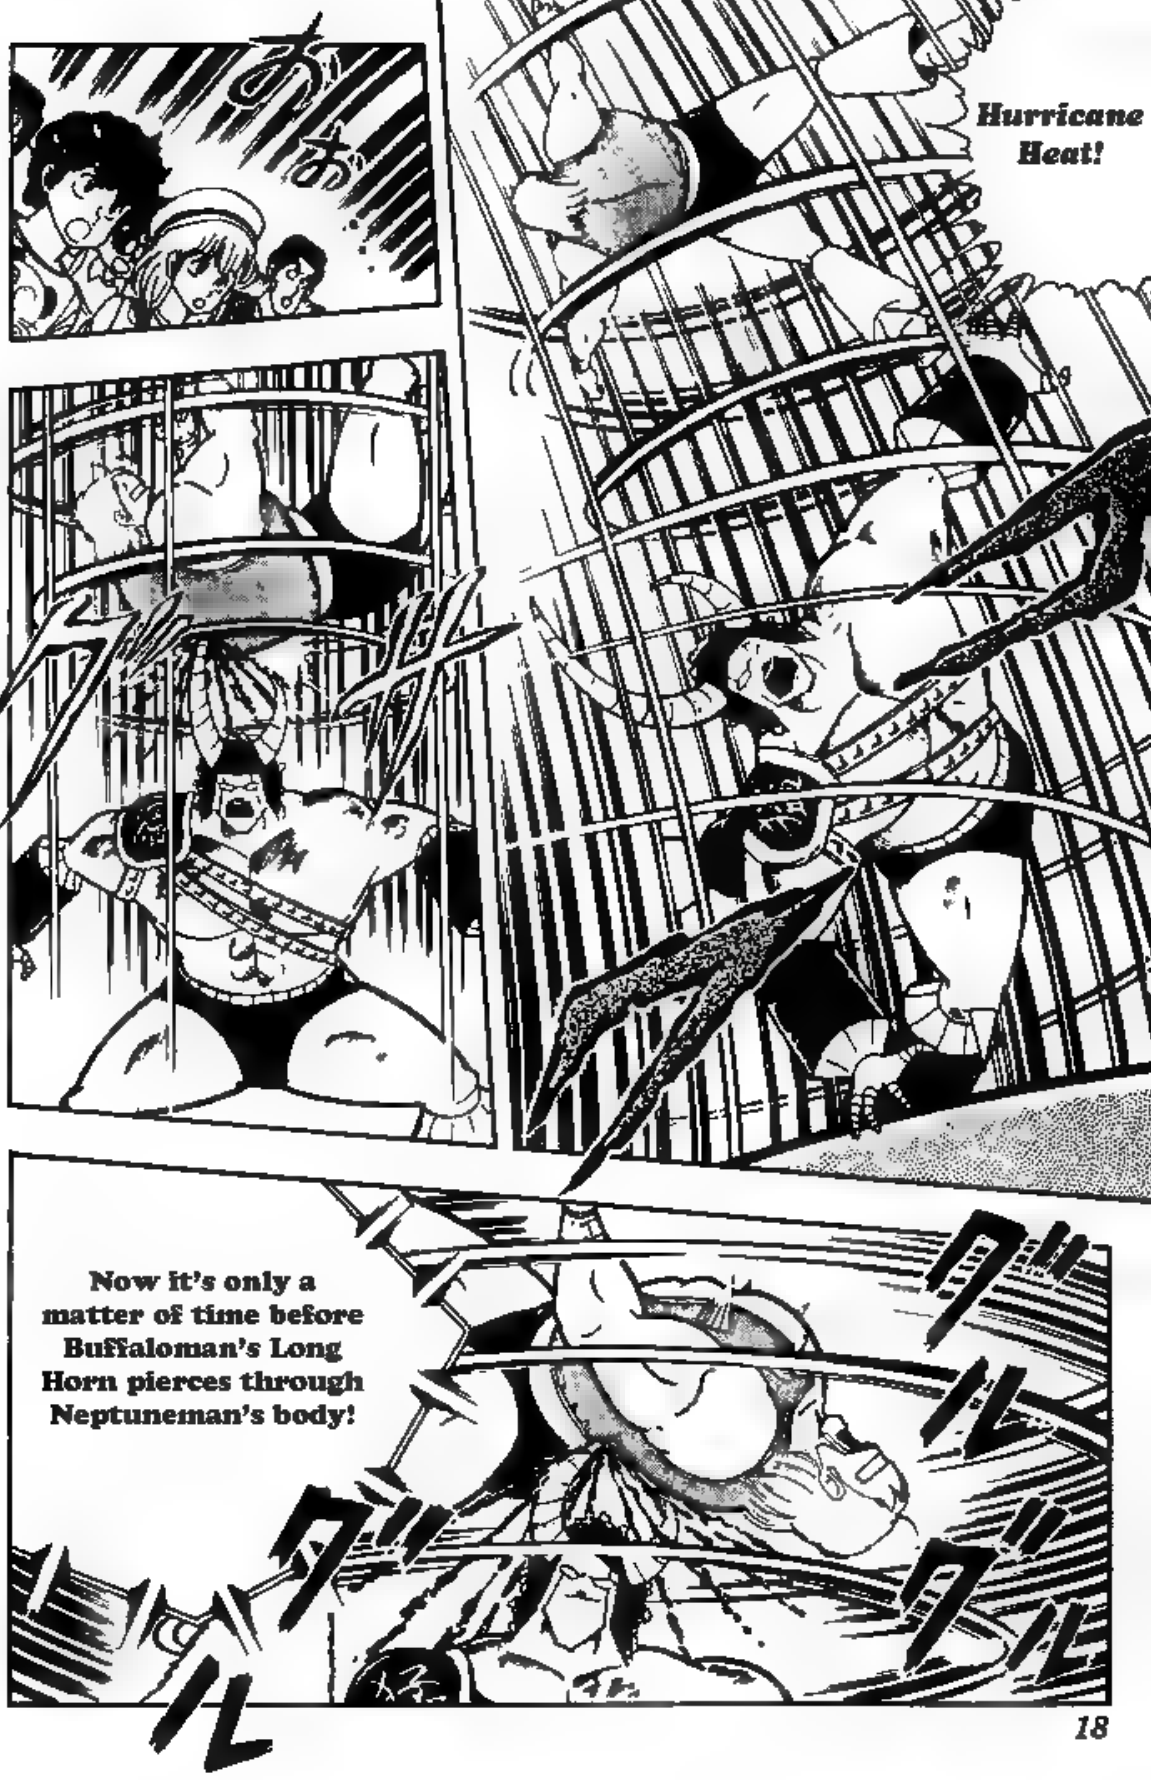
The New Long Horn isn't for impaling, it's for capturing!

Take this!

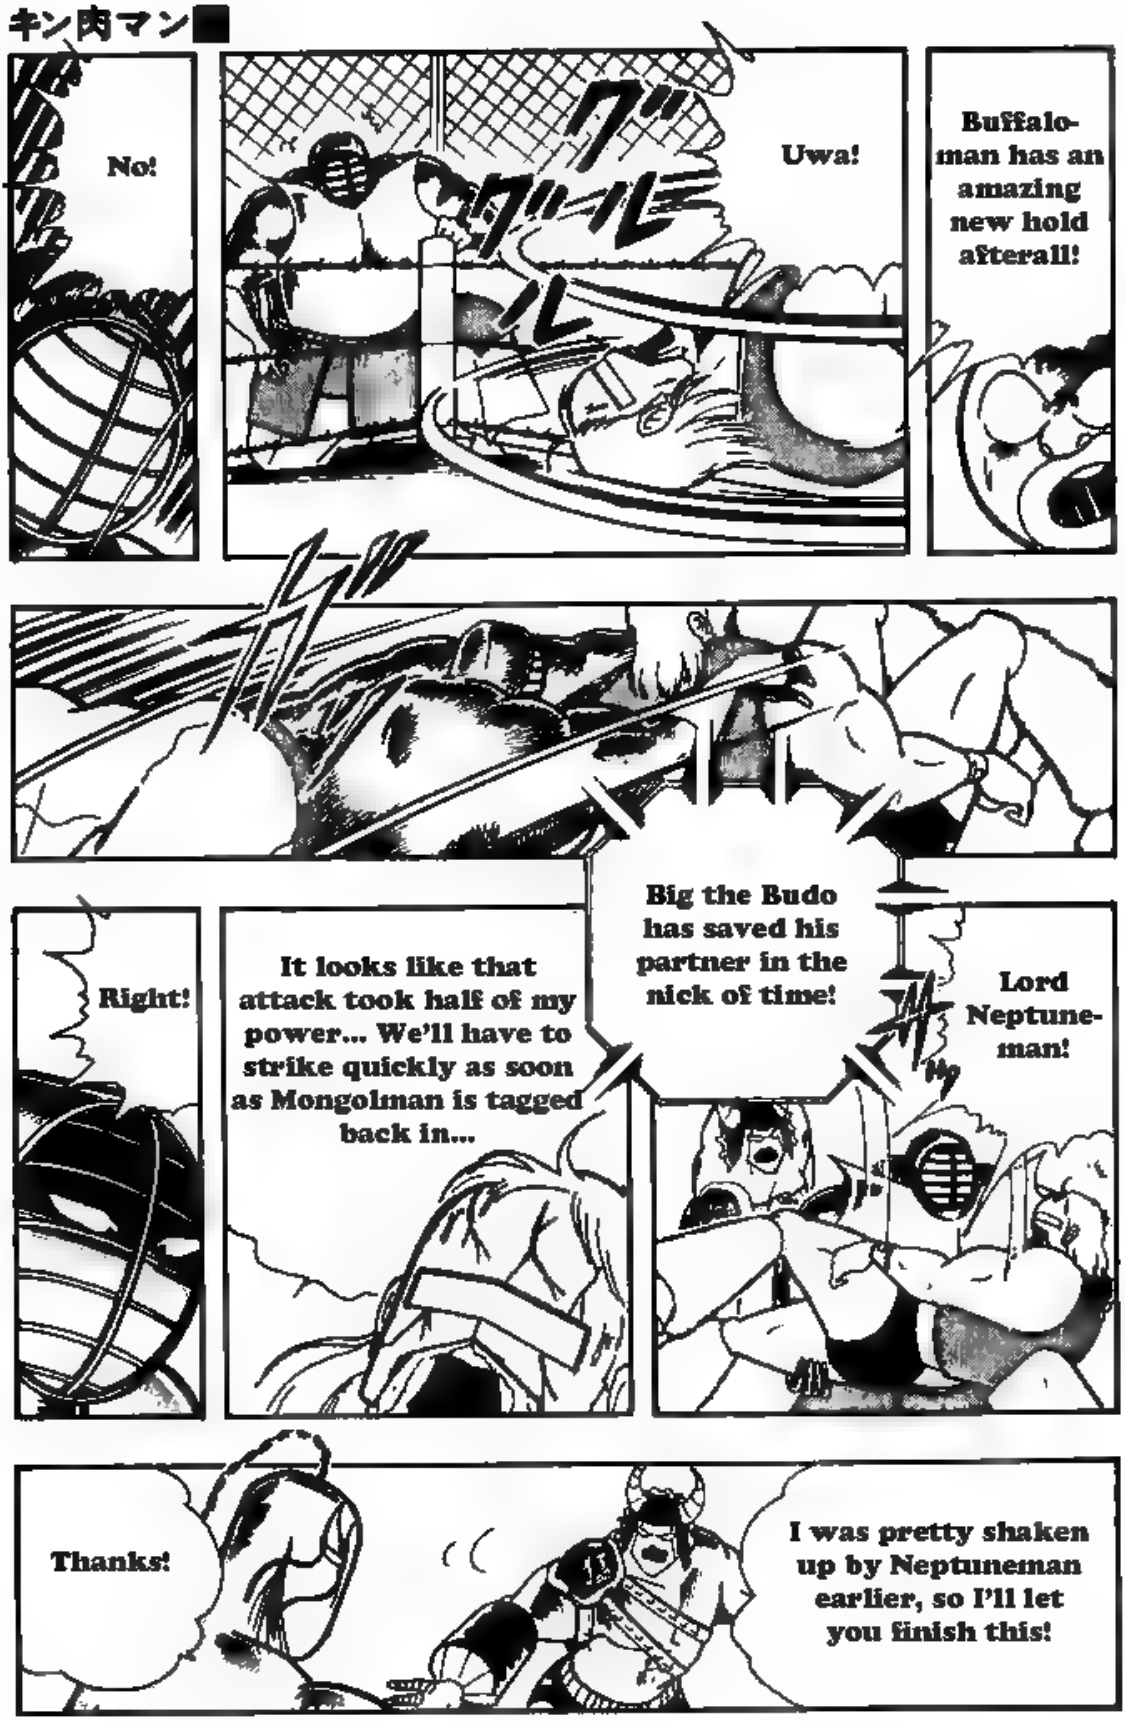
Uooh! I can't move!



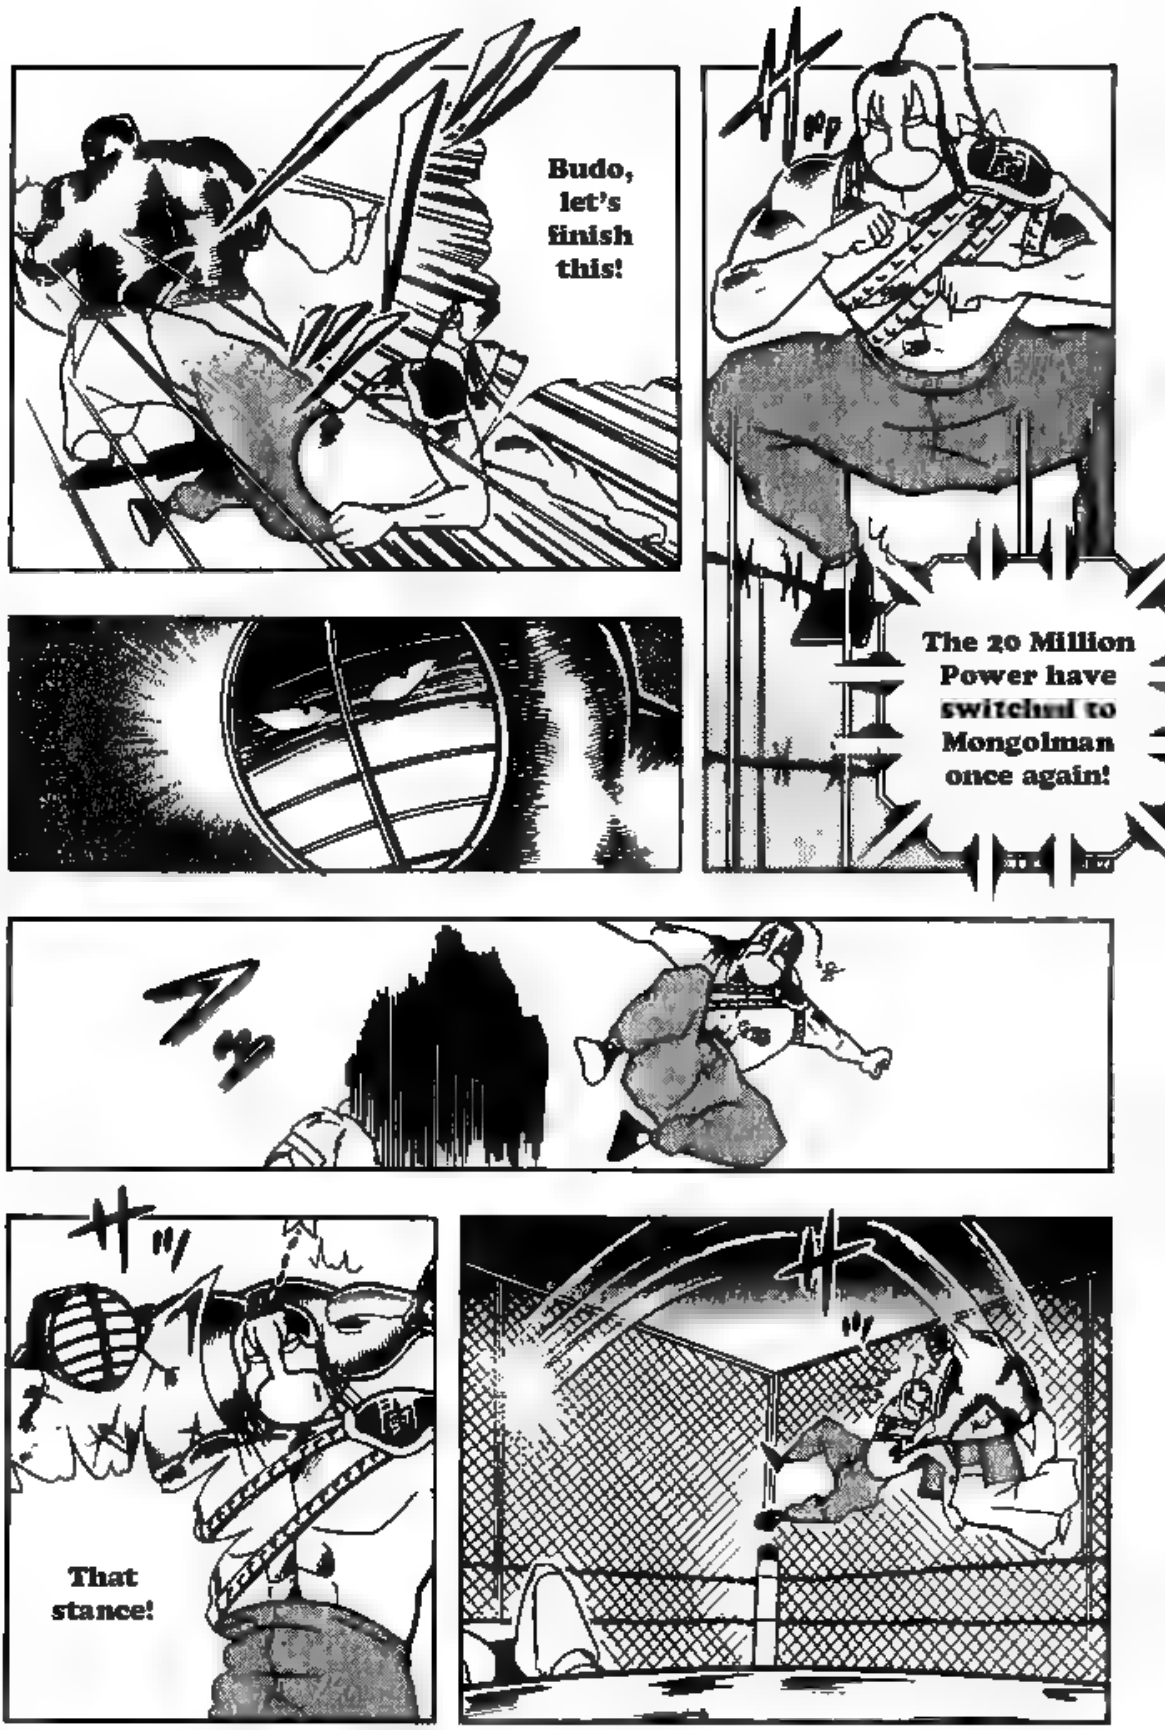
猛



Hurricane Heat!
Now it's only a matter of time before Buffaloman's Long Horn pierces through Neptuneman's body!

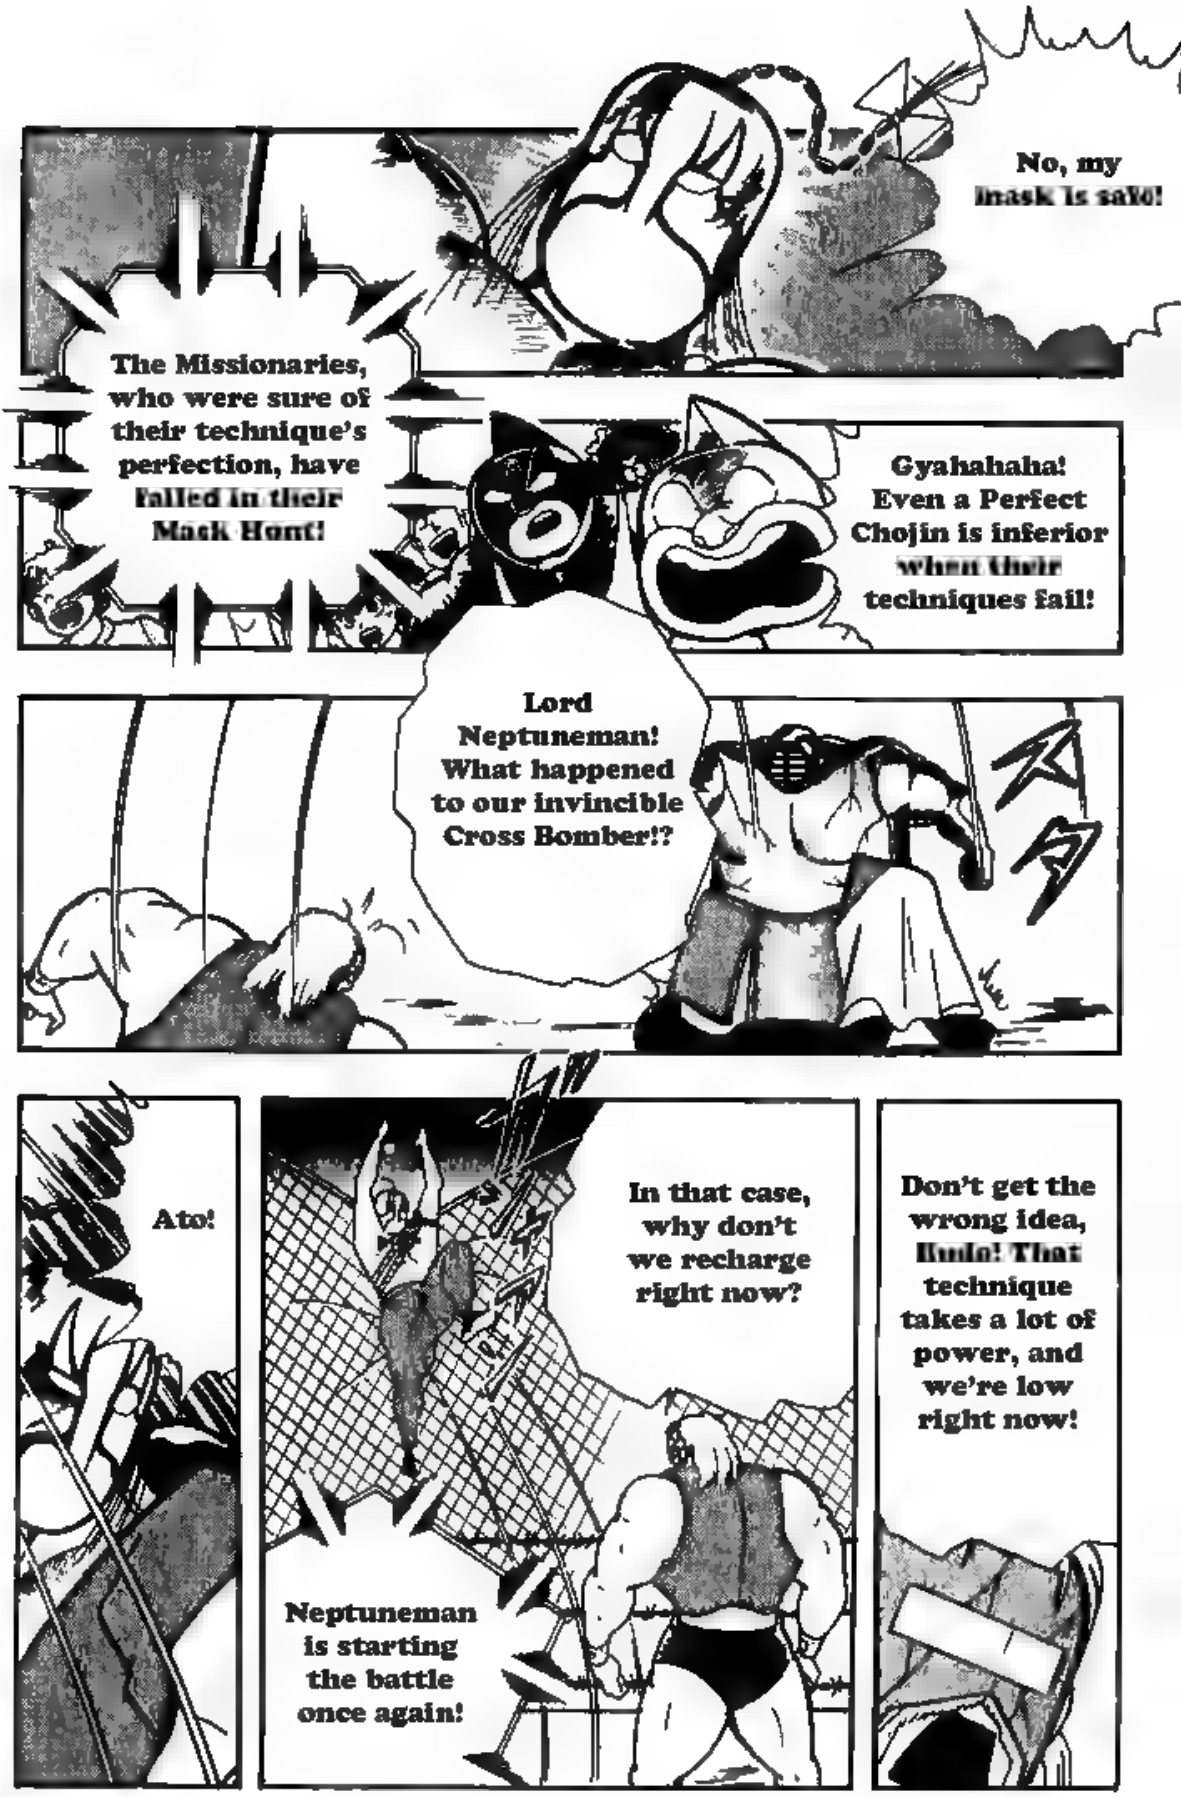


No!
Uwa!
Buffalo-man has an amazing new hold afterall!
Big the Budo has saved his partner in the nick of time!
Lord Neptune-man!
Right!
It looks like that attack took half of my power... We'll have to strike quickly as soon as Mongolman is tagged back in...
Thanks!
I was pretty shaken up by Neptuneman earlier, so I'll let you finish this!



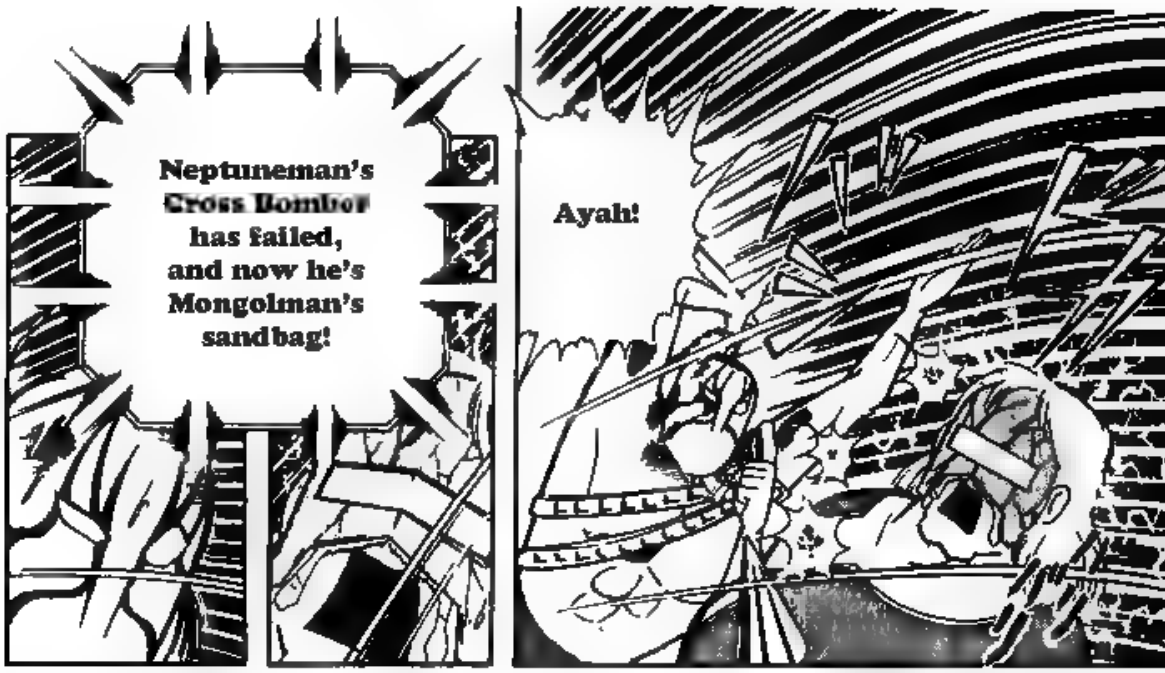
Budo, let's finish this!
The 20 Million Power have switched to Mongolman once again!
That stance!

Hardness 10!
The Cross Bomber!
Cross Bomber!
Has the time finally come to reveal Mongolman's true identity!?



No, my mask is safe!
The Missionaries, who were sure of their technique's perfection, have failed in their Mask Hunt!
Gyahahaha! Even a Perfect Chojin is inferior when their techniques fail!
Lord Neptuneman! What happened to our invincible Cross Bomber!?
Ato!
In that case, why don't we recharge right now?
Don't get the wrong idea, Ikuto! That technique takes a lot of power, and we're low right now!
Neptuneman is starting the battle once again!

Neptuneman takes the attack without dodging!
Ato!
Heh heh heh, keep going. Just make sure you don't hit my mask.
He didn't avoid that one, either!
Hahahahaha! That weak attack won't defeat me!
Ato!



Neptuneman's Cross Bomber has failed, and now he's Mongolman's sandbag!
Ayah!

I'm worrying about that, too... On top of that, Neptuneman's mask was full of cracks earlier, but it's like it's repairing itself each time he's hit!
It may just be my imagination, but does he seem to be getting tired to you?

What's going on!? Neptuneman, who's been hit with a barrage of attacks is fine, while Mongolman, the attacker, is defeated!
It can't be! His muscle mass has opponent's power!

Magnet Power!
Fufufufu! It seems my power is fully recharged!
The iron objects around the ring are being pulled to Neptuneman's body!

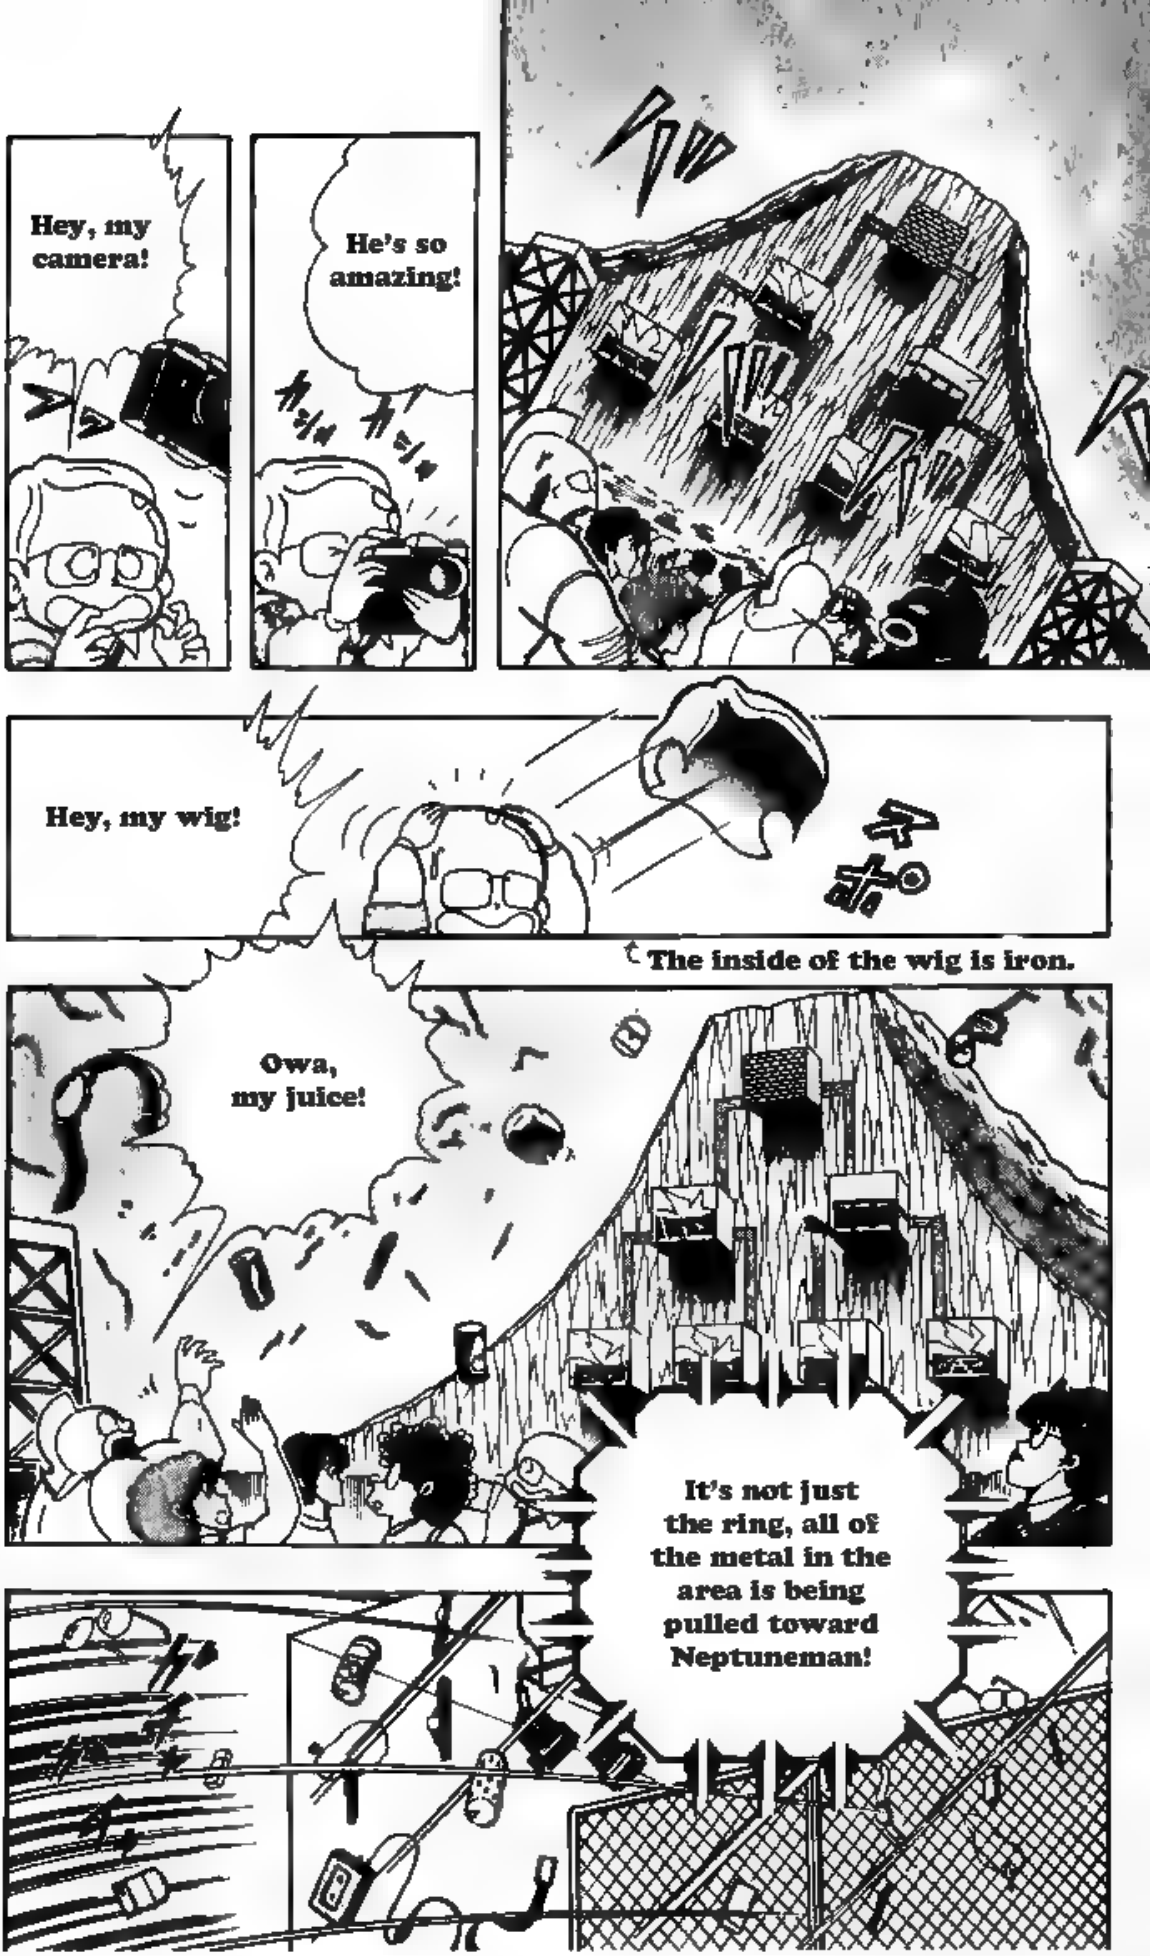
Dream Chojin Tag Team Arc 39

Magnet Power!!

What's happening to Neptuneman's body...?
Right! For some reason, he was only taking my attacks that hit his mask! But why...?
Ever since he took my attacks, he's been attracting metal objects like a magnet...
Then it converts it into magetism and absorbs it into his body!
Magnetism! Neptuneman's mask has the ability to aborb the Chojin Power from attacks!
CHOJIN POWER
That means he was taking your attacks to his mask on purpose!

Lord Neptuneman, please share your Magnet Power
Then Neptuneman's body is a huge mass of magetism!
You got it!
They're healing fast!
My wounds...
Guoooh! This feels good!



Hey, my camera!
He's so amazing!
Hey, my wig!
The inside of the wig is iron.
Owa, my juice!
It's not just the ring, all of the metal in the area is being pulled toward Neptuneman!

I don't care if it's Magnet Power or whatever it is, how is that supposed to help you!? Do you think the power to draw in metal will defeat the 20 Million Powers!?
Hahaha-haha-haha!
What!!?
My imagination is too active!
At first I was a bit shocked, but now that I think about it, how are they going to win with just magnetism?
It's just like he said...
Mongolman is back up!

If you keep attacking my mask, the Magnet Power will keep building up...
Face-Splitter!
Now, Budo!
Ha!
Magnet Power!
They're trying the Cross Bomber again after it failed earlier!

Magnet Power + (Plus)!
- (Minus)!
Releasing the magnetic polarity of + and - , a violent magnetism is errupting from their left arms!

キン肉マン■

The reason it [illegible] was because they didn't have enough Magnet Power! That's the backbone of the technique!

The secret is that they use the power of violent magnetism in their arms to attract to each other!

How cunning!

So they used Mongolman to recharge it!

Heh heh heh! Pull! Pull!

Right! The dreadful power of the Cross Bomber...

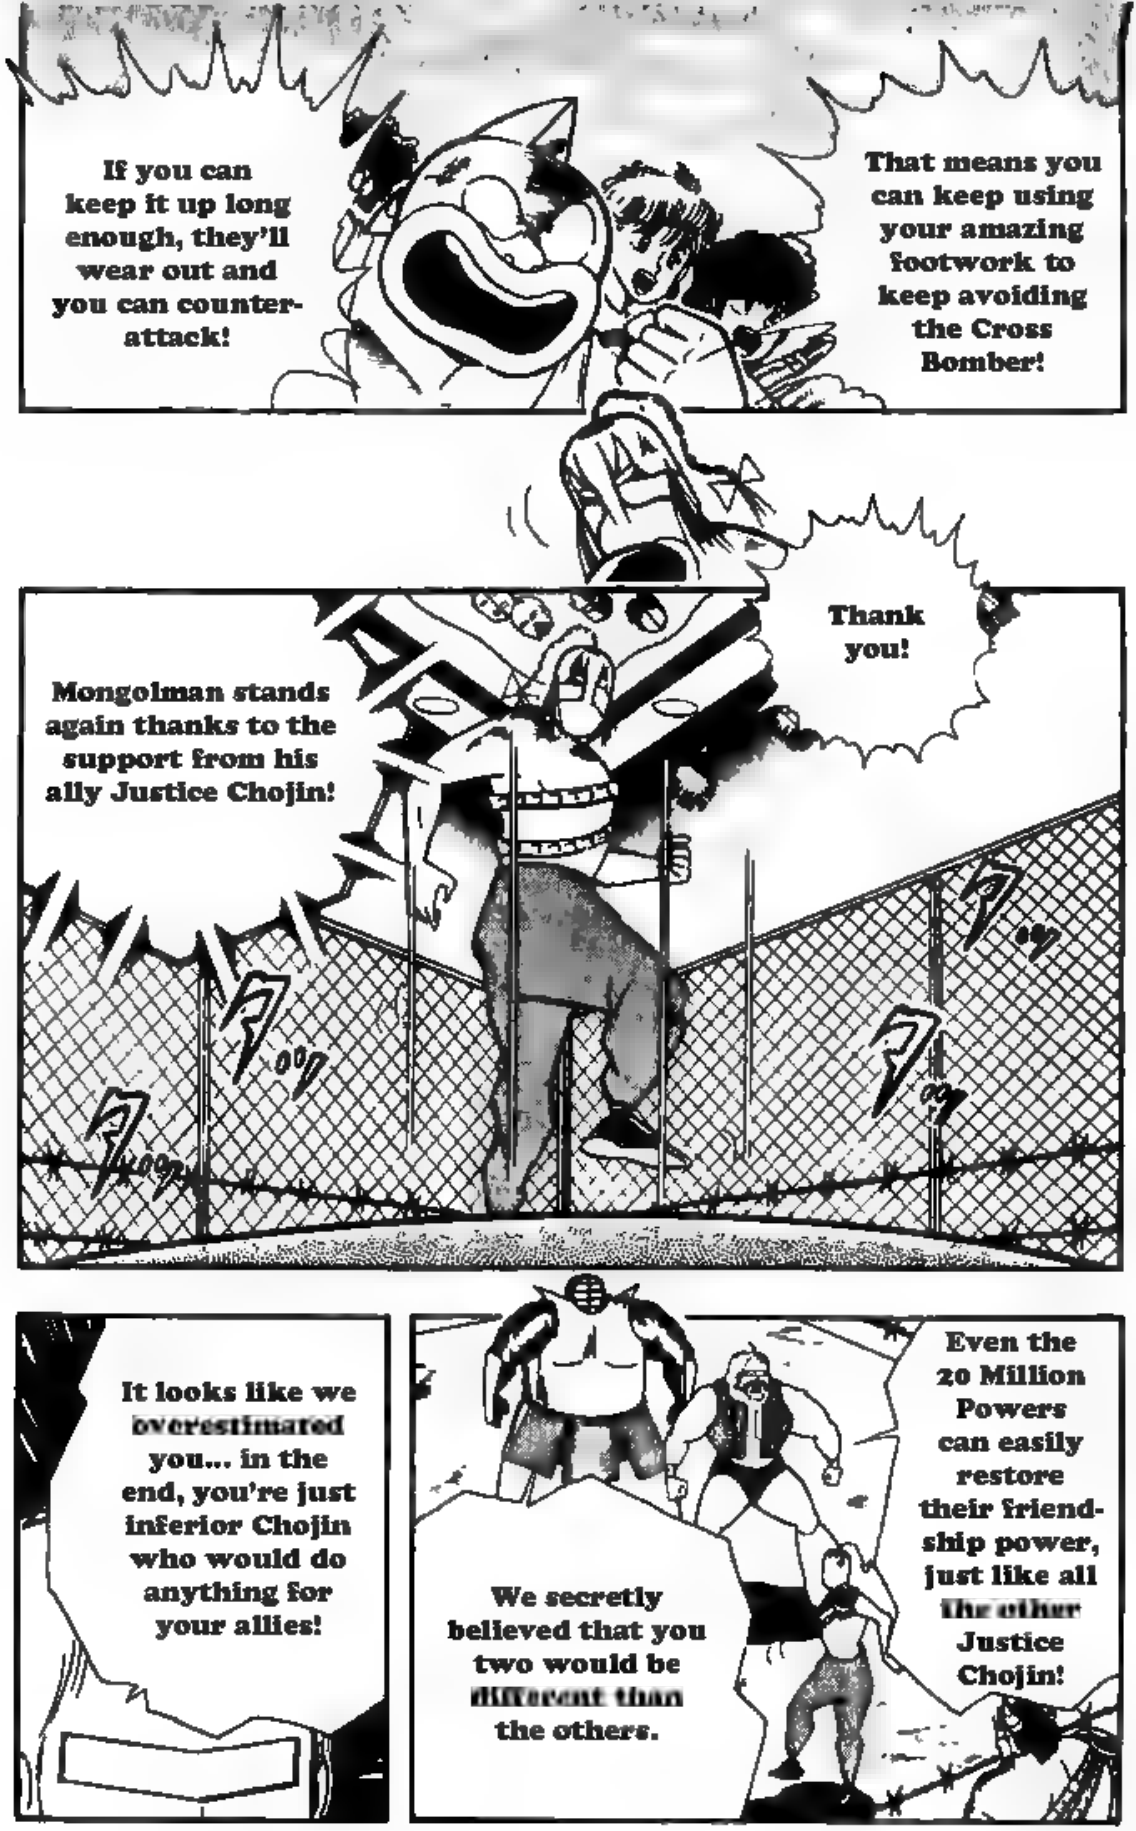
Neptuneman is flying like he's being pulled by the magnetism in Buffo's arms!

Take this

Cross Bomber!

Mongolman is merely standing still against the incredible force!
Are you still alive, Mongol-man!?
...won't die, even if it costs me my own life!
Mongol-man...

Mongolman has escaped from the Cross Bomber thanks to Buffaloman's quick thinking!
You just keep getting in my way!
It's hiding an unimaginable amount of destructive power!
The Magnet Power... It did this to just a corner post...
Don't be afraid, Mongolman! So far, It looks like the Cross Bomber is their only attack that uses the Magnet Power!
You guys...
You can do it, Mongolman!
Ugh...

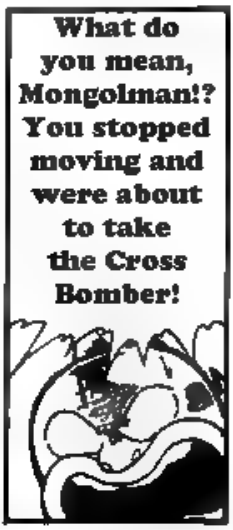


If you can keep it up long enough, they'll wear out and you can counter-attack!
That means you can keep using your amazing footwork to keep avoiding the Cross Bomber!
Thank you!
Mongolman stands again thanks to the support from his ally Justice Chojin!
It looks like we overestimated you... in the end, you're just inferior Chojin who would do anything for your allies!
We secretly believed that you two would be different than the others.
Even the 20 Million Powers can easily restore their friendship power, just like all the other Justice Chojin!

No! We don't rely on Kinnikuman's group!

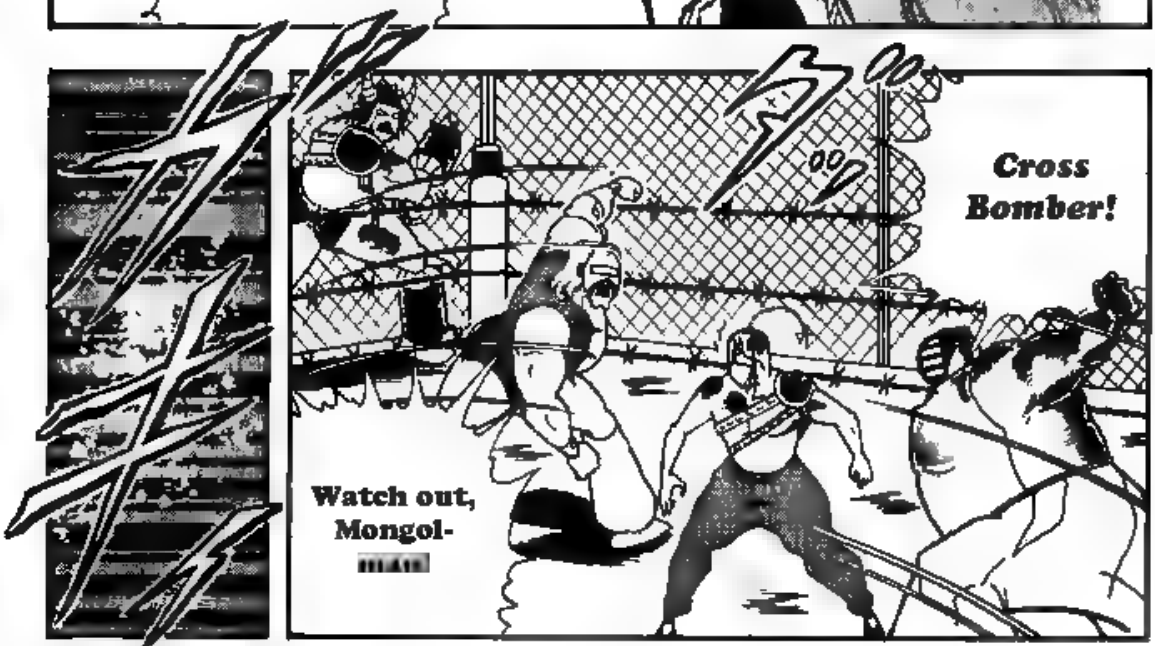
Should we really accept help from you? We're both enemies, and you'll take the golden Tag Trophy away from us!

Shut up and leave me alone!



What do you mean, Mongolman!? You stopped moving and were about to take the Cross Bomber!

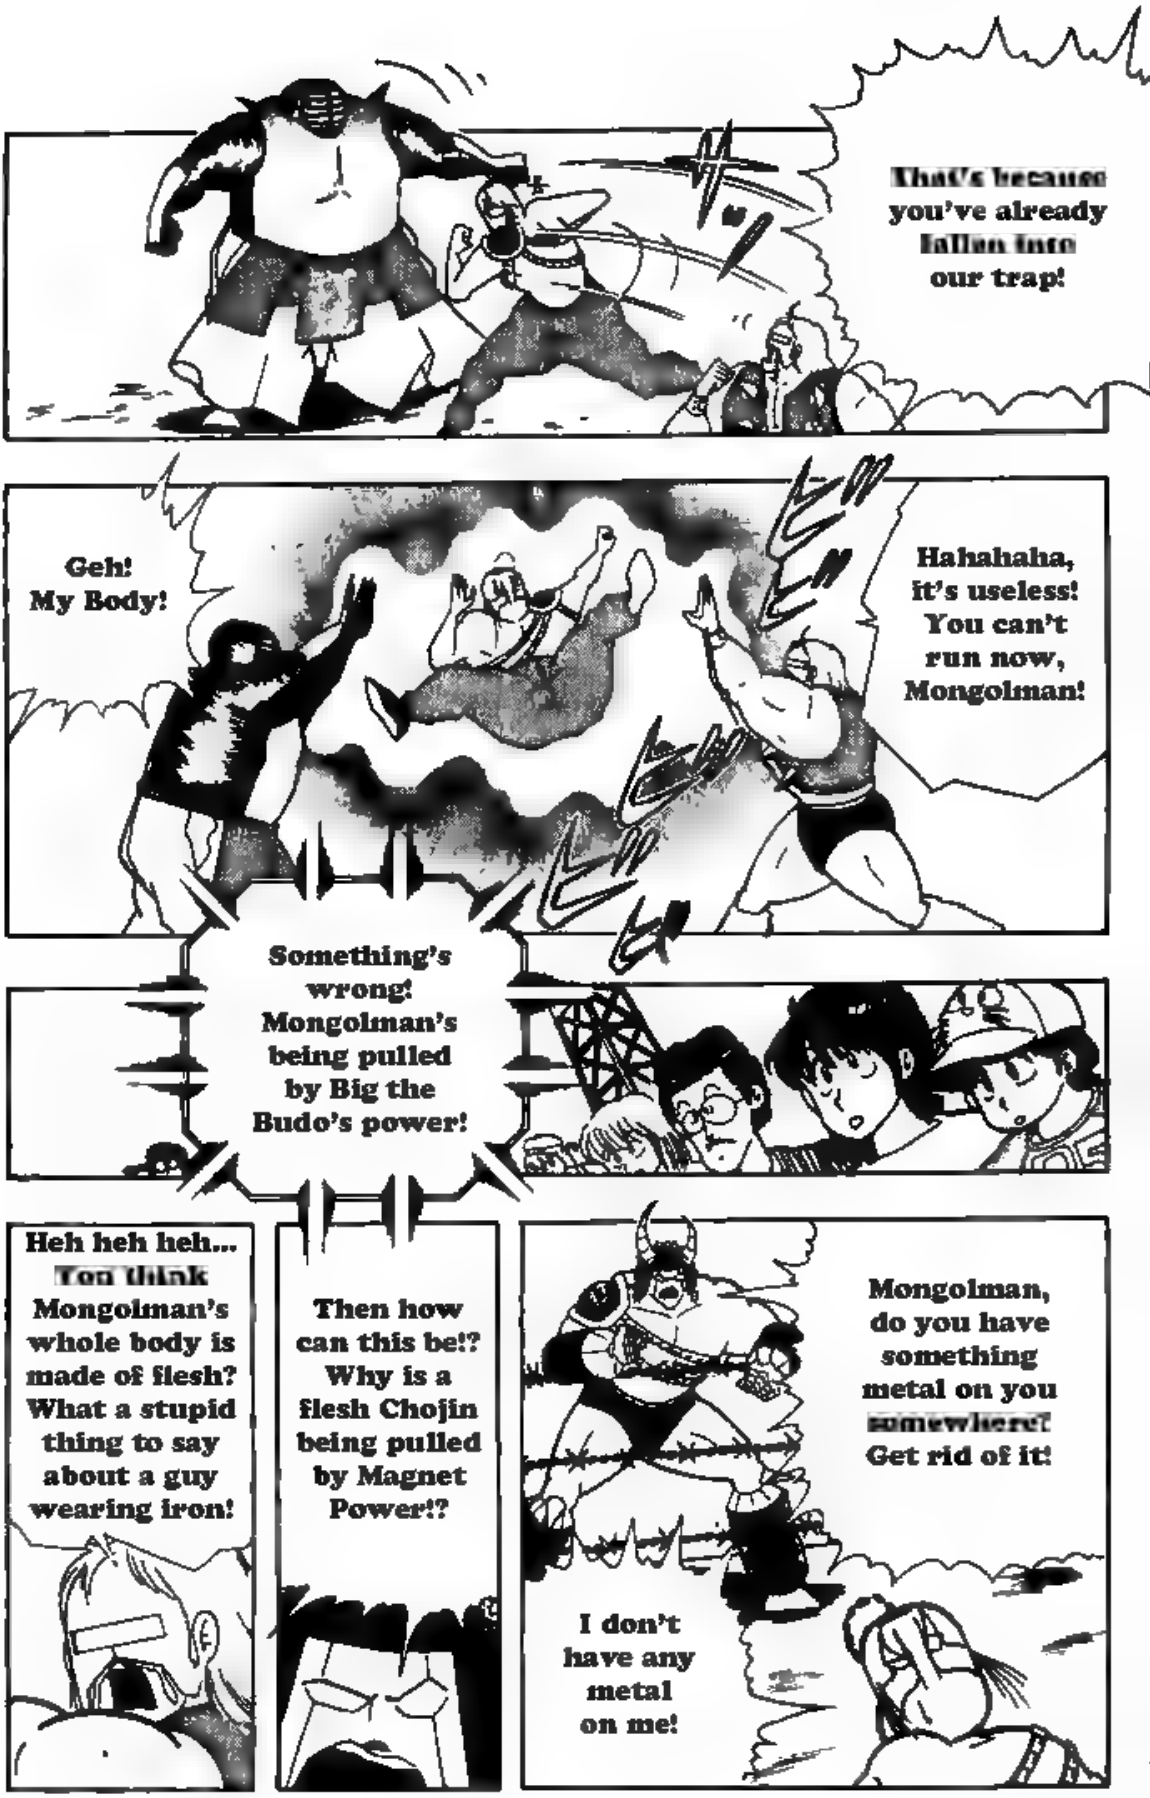
Now's our chance, Budo!



Cross Bomber!
Watch out, Mongol-

Phew
Mongolman has narrowly avoided the surprise Cross Bomber!
Please, don't drag us down any further!
I was being nice to you, but if that's what you want, then fine! I won't say anything else! I'll just let the Missionaries kill you!
Cross Bomber!
Here they come again!

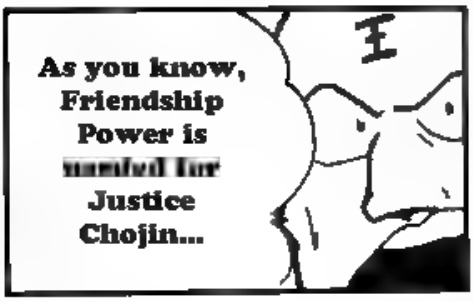
Gyahahaha! All you know how to do is run!
Look Budo, this is what we've been waiting for! It's the Iron Sweat!
I told you not to talk!
Ah, it really is the Iron Sweat!
!?
Mongolman, you won't need to run from us anymore!



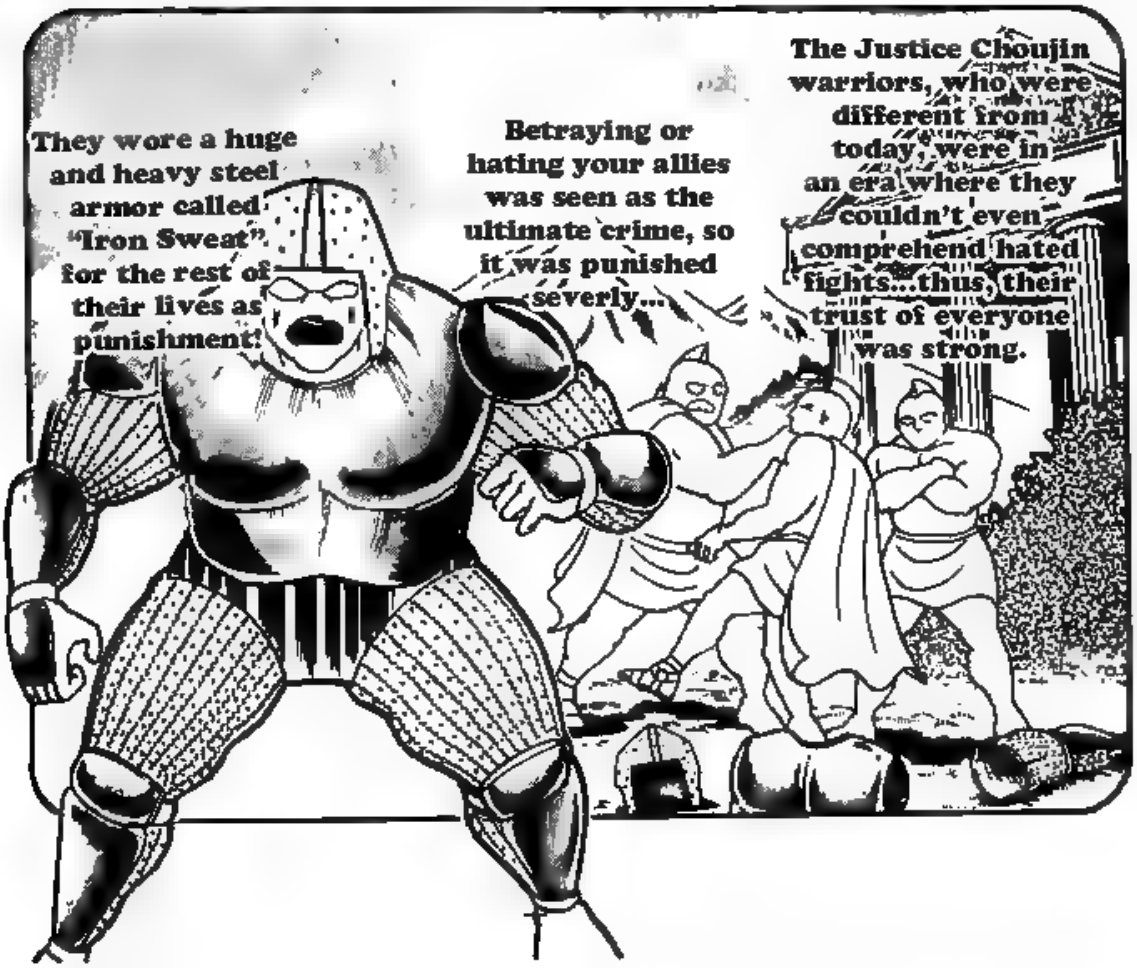
That's because you've already fallen into our trap!
Geh! My Body!
Hahahaha, it's useless! You can't run now, Mongolman!
Something's wrong! Mongolman's being pulled by Big the Budo's power!
Heh heh heh... You think Mongolman's whole body is made of flesh? What a stupid thing to say about a guy wearing iron!
Then how can this be!? Why is a flesh Chojin being pulled by Magnet Power!?
Mongolman, do you have something metal on you somewhere? Get rid of it!
I don't have any metal on me!

Our ancestors had no tolerance for people who thought of opposing the great friendship power!

Huh? What's that?
Now I remember! It's Iron Sweat!



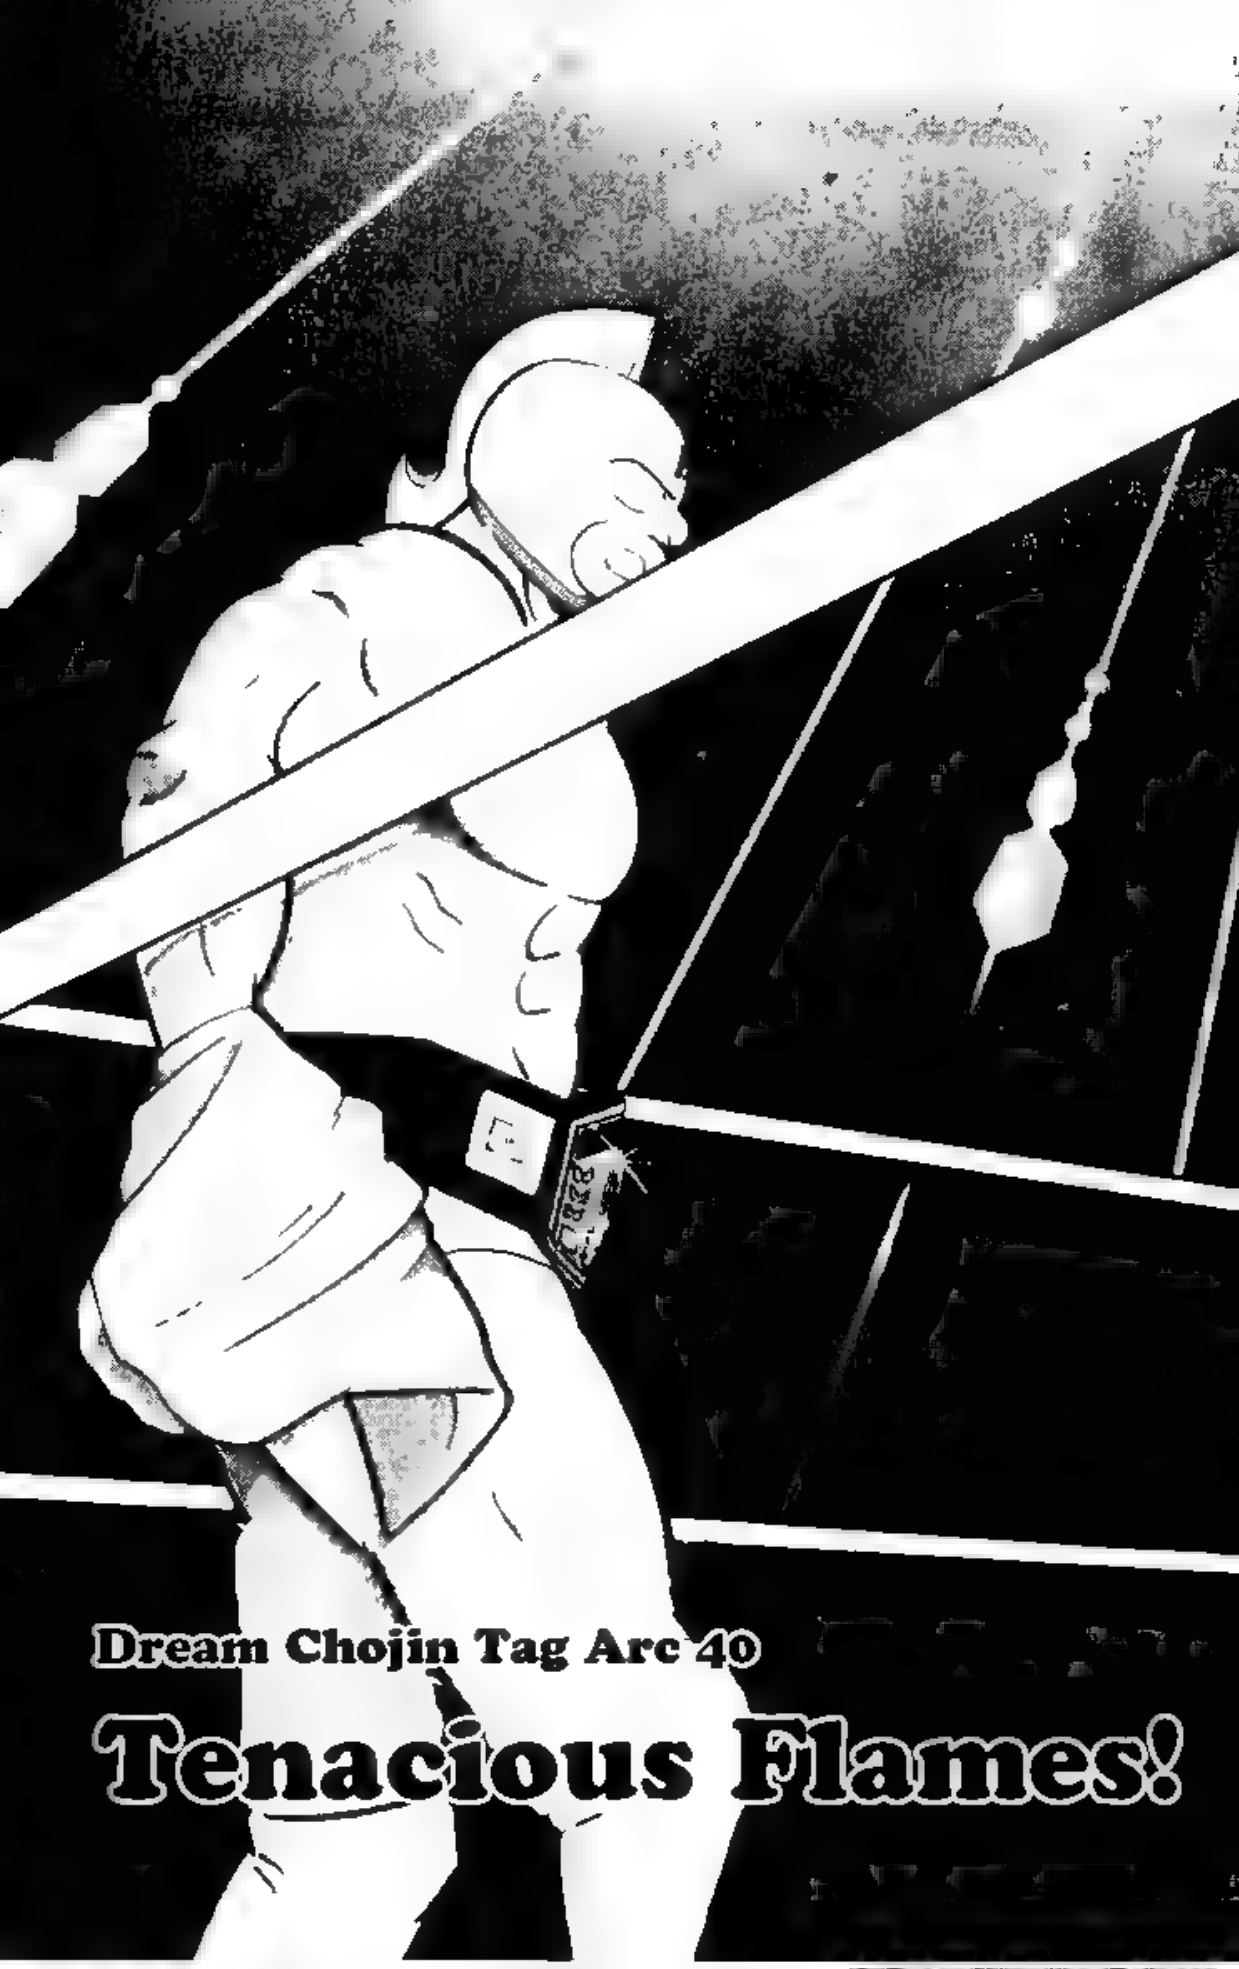
As you know, Friendship Power is [illegible] Justice Chojin...



They wore a huge and heavy steel armor called "Iron Sweat" for the rest of their lives as punishment!
Betraying or hating your allies was seen as the ultimate crime, so it was punished severly...
The Justice Choujin warriors, who were different from today, were in an era where they couldn't even comprehend hated fights...thus, their trust of everyone was strong.

So Mongolman's being covered in iron due to the Iron Sweat, making him a prime target for the Magnet Power!
Even today, whenever a Chojin hates or hurts thier allies will have their body's balance destroyed by the relic of the past by releasing a sweat made out of iron!
What is this Iron Sweat!? How could this have happened!?
No, now Buffaloman's body is covered in the Iron Sweat, too!
Uwa!
Buffaloman rushed to help Mongolman, but now his body is flying in the air, too!

We'll send both of you to hell!
Heh heh heh heh, now even Buffaloman has fallen for it!
ガシッ
Magnetic Storm Driver!
あぁ…
It's a Double Tombstone! Is this the end of the 20 Million Powers!?

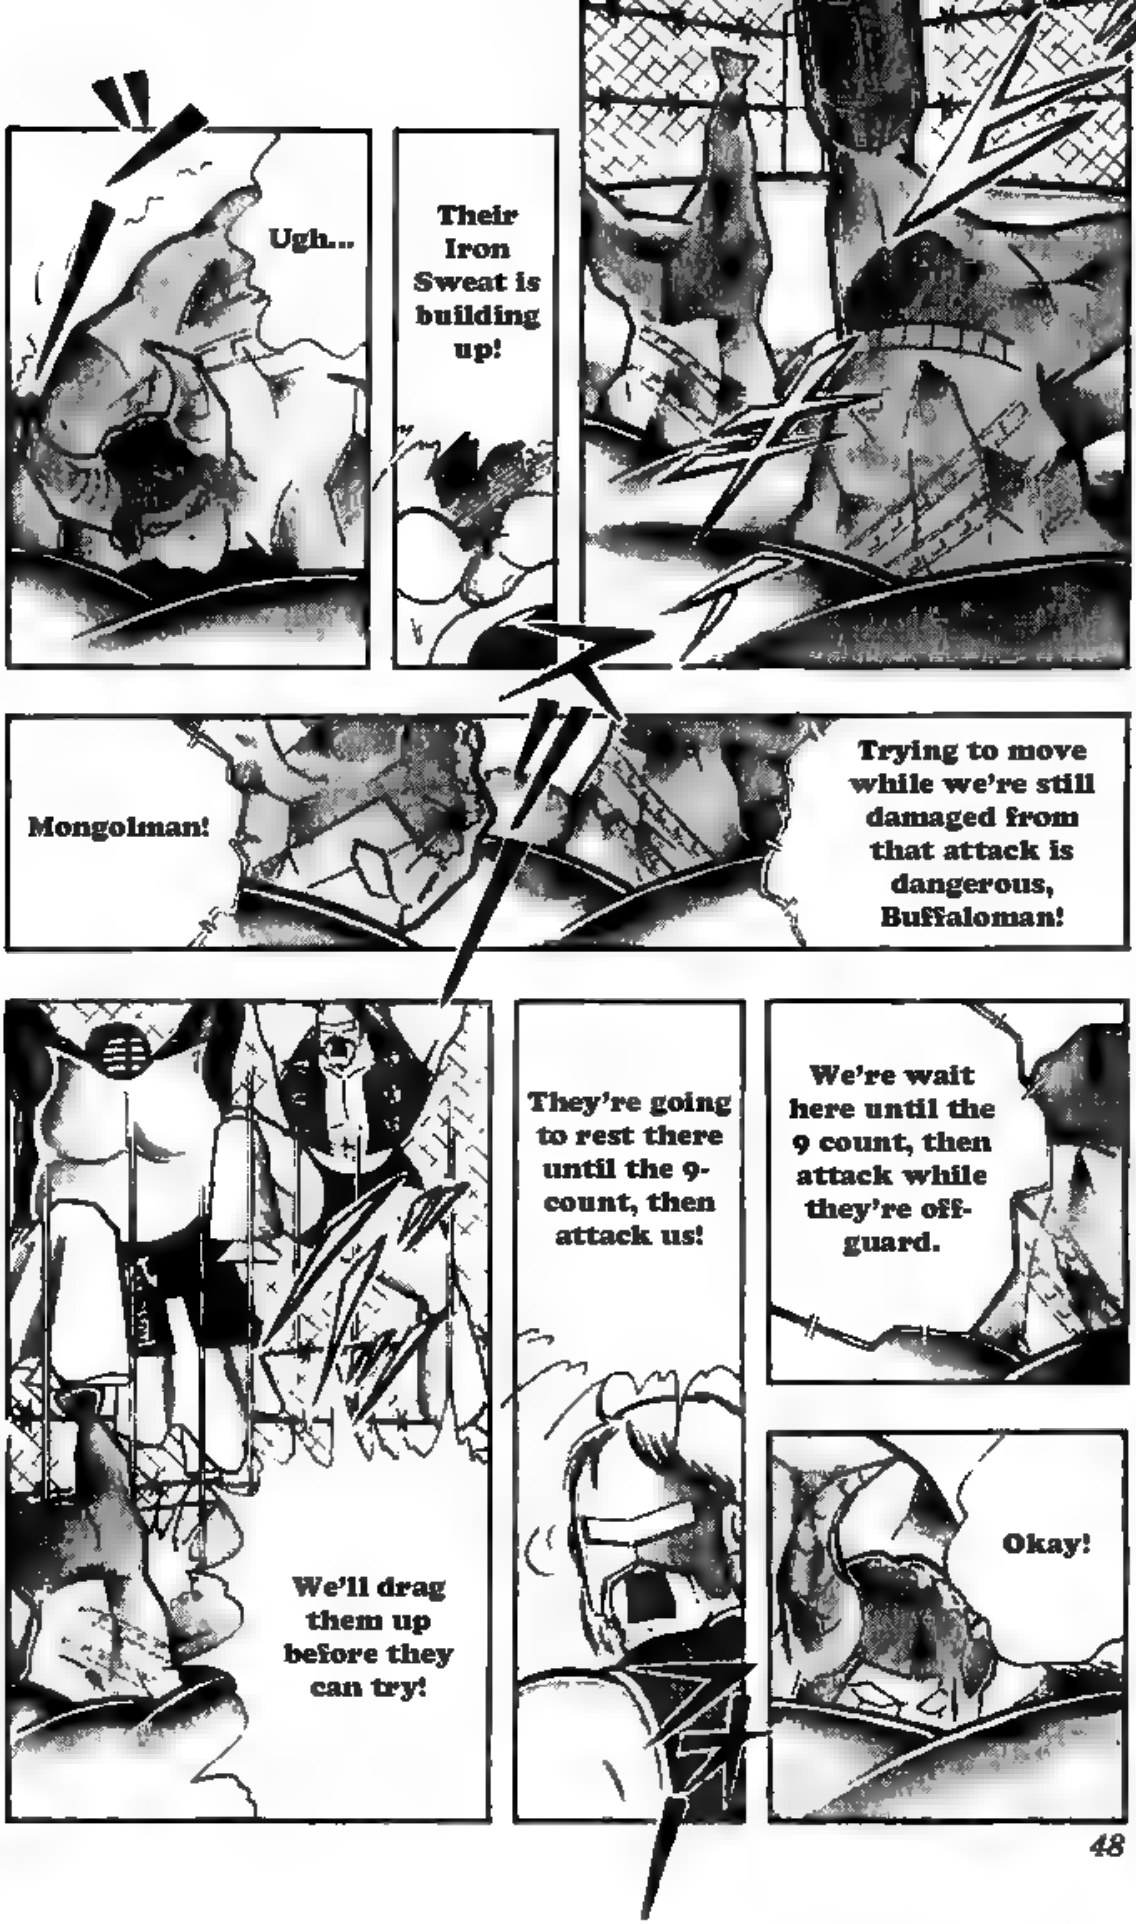


Dream Chojin Tag Arc 40

Tenacious Flames!

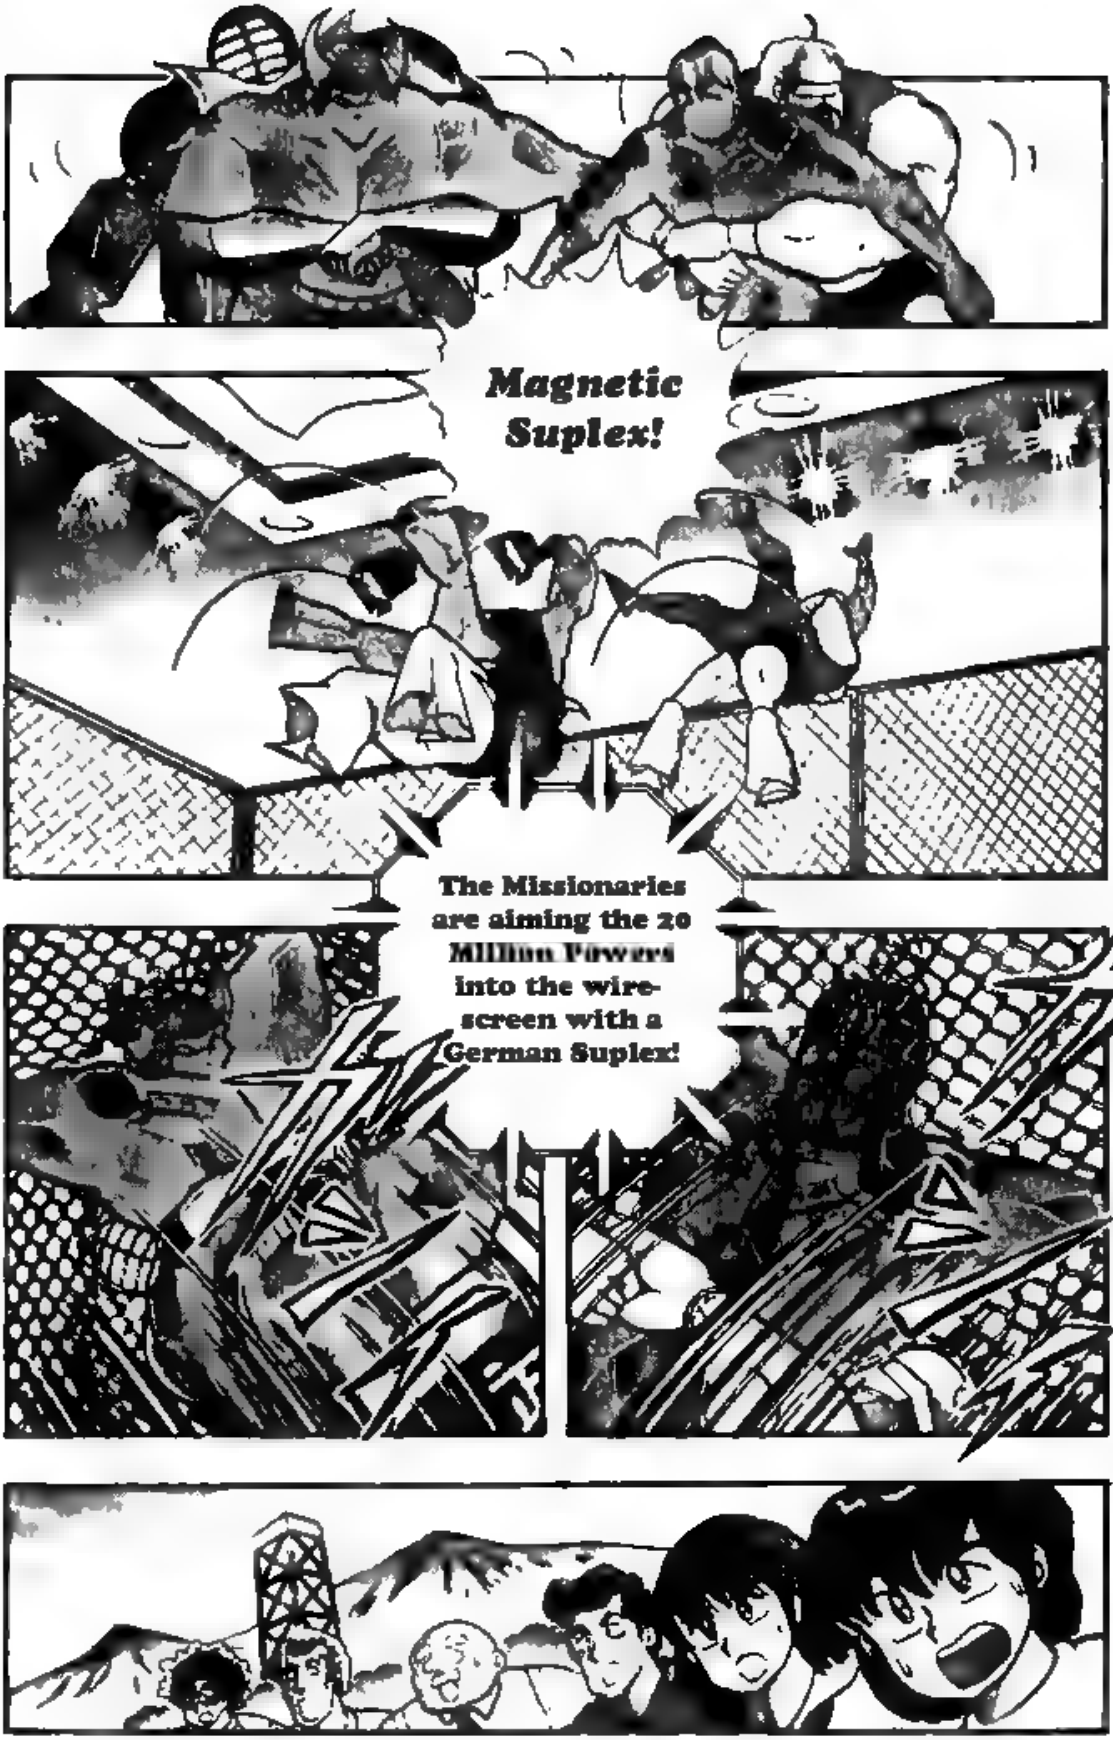
A Team Kiiniku Release

The Missionaries' Tombstone Driver has skewered Mongolman and Buffaloman into the canvas!
Mongolman! Buffaloman!
Now we're starting the countdown in the ring! If the 20 Million Powers can't stand before a 10 count, then the Hell Missionaries will be going to the finals!
Do you see, now? Justice Chojin who have lost their friendship like these two must live as lumps of iron!



Ugh...
Their Iron Sweat is building up!
Mongolman!
Trying to move while we're still damaged from that attack is dangerous, Buffaloman!
We'll drag them up before they can try!
They're going to rest there until the 9-count, then attack us!
We're wait here until the 9 count, then attack while they're off-guard.
Okay!

Magnet Power!
What force from the Magnet Power! They're easily pulling up Mongolman and Buffaloman, who were buried deep in the ring!



Magnetic Suplex!
The Missionaries are aiming the 20 Million Powers into the wire-screen with a German Suplex!

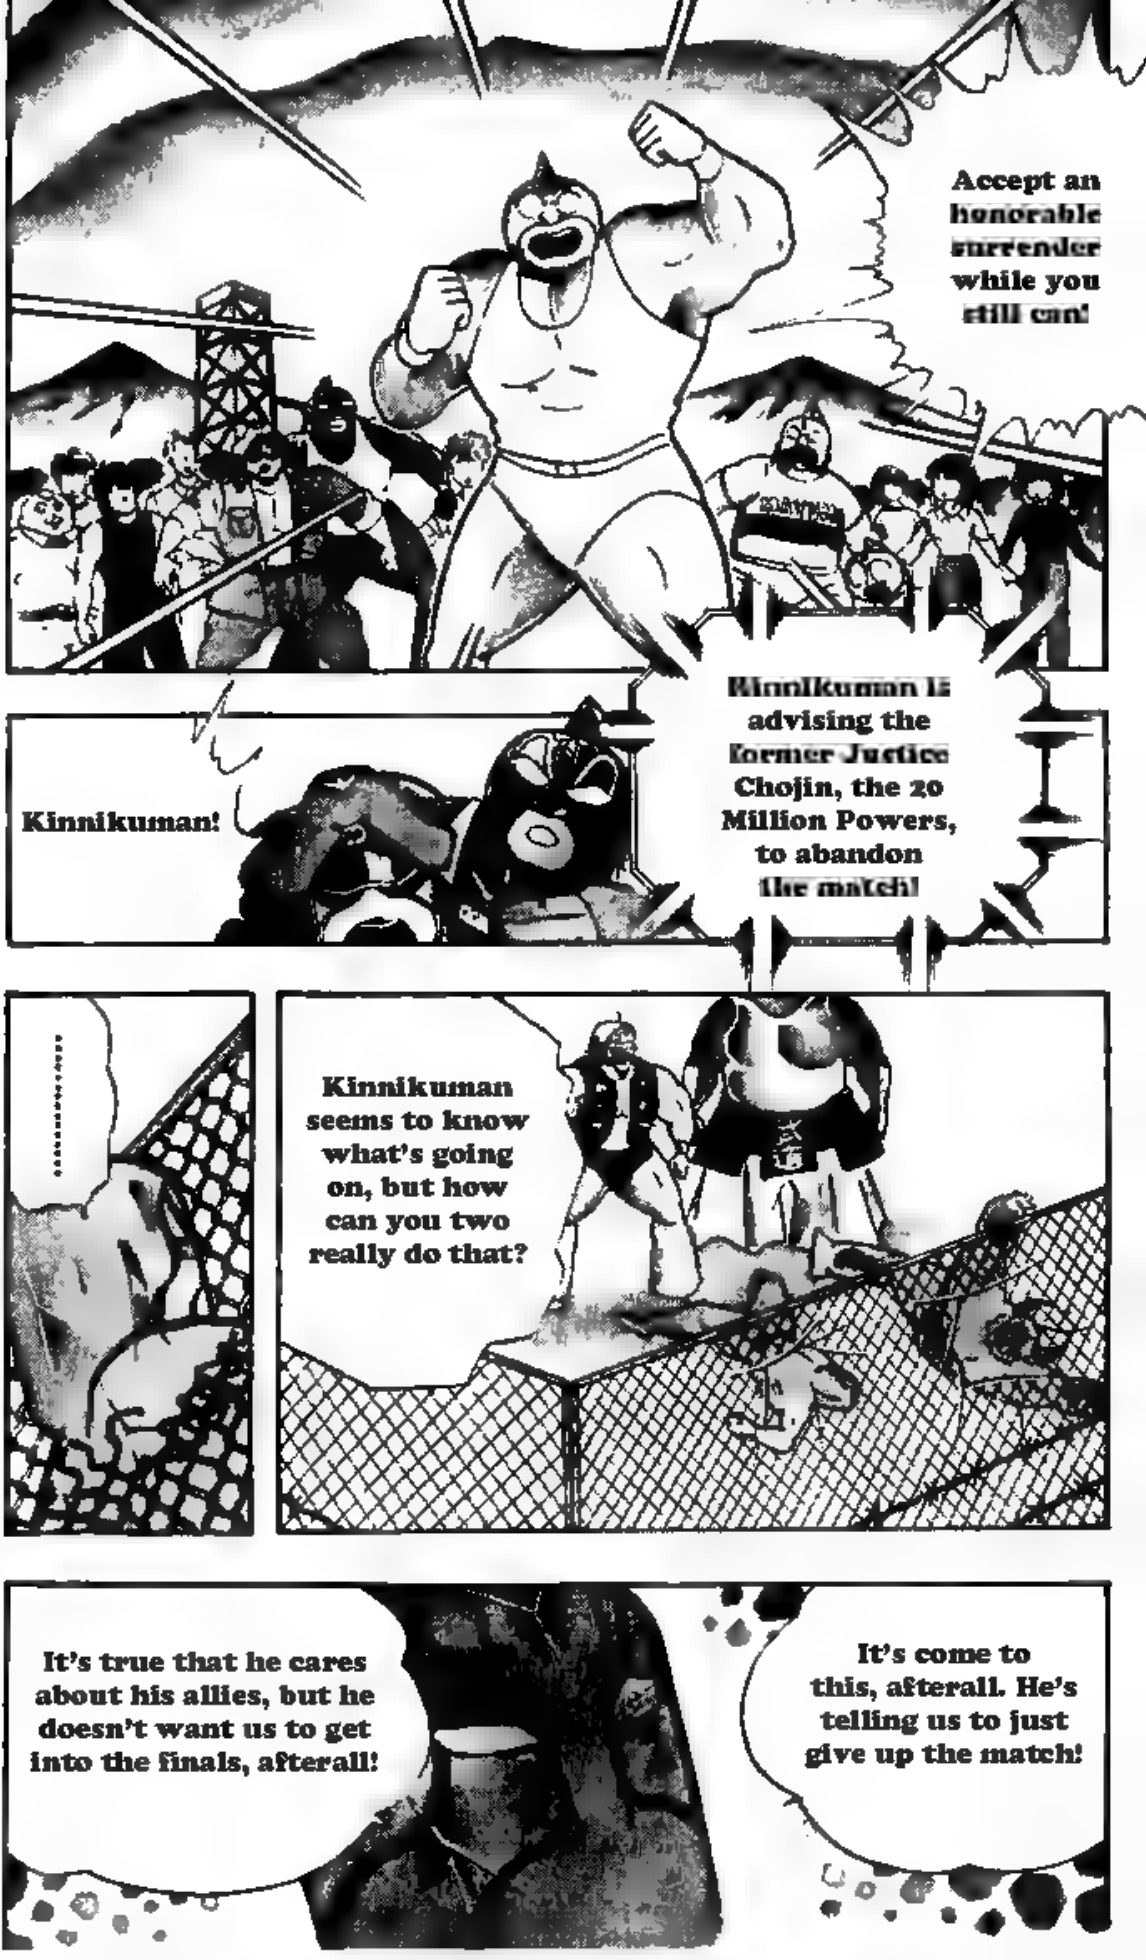
No! Even with the heavy Iron Sweat, if they keep taking the Hell Missionaries' attacks, they'll both be killed just for fun!

The Missionaries are inhuman! They seem to be pulling the 20 Million Powers out of the wire-screen, even though they seem to have completely fainted!

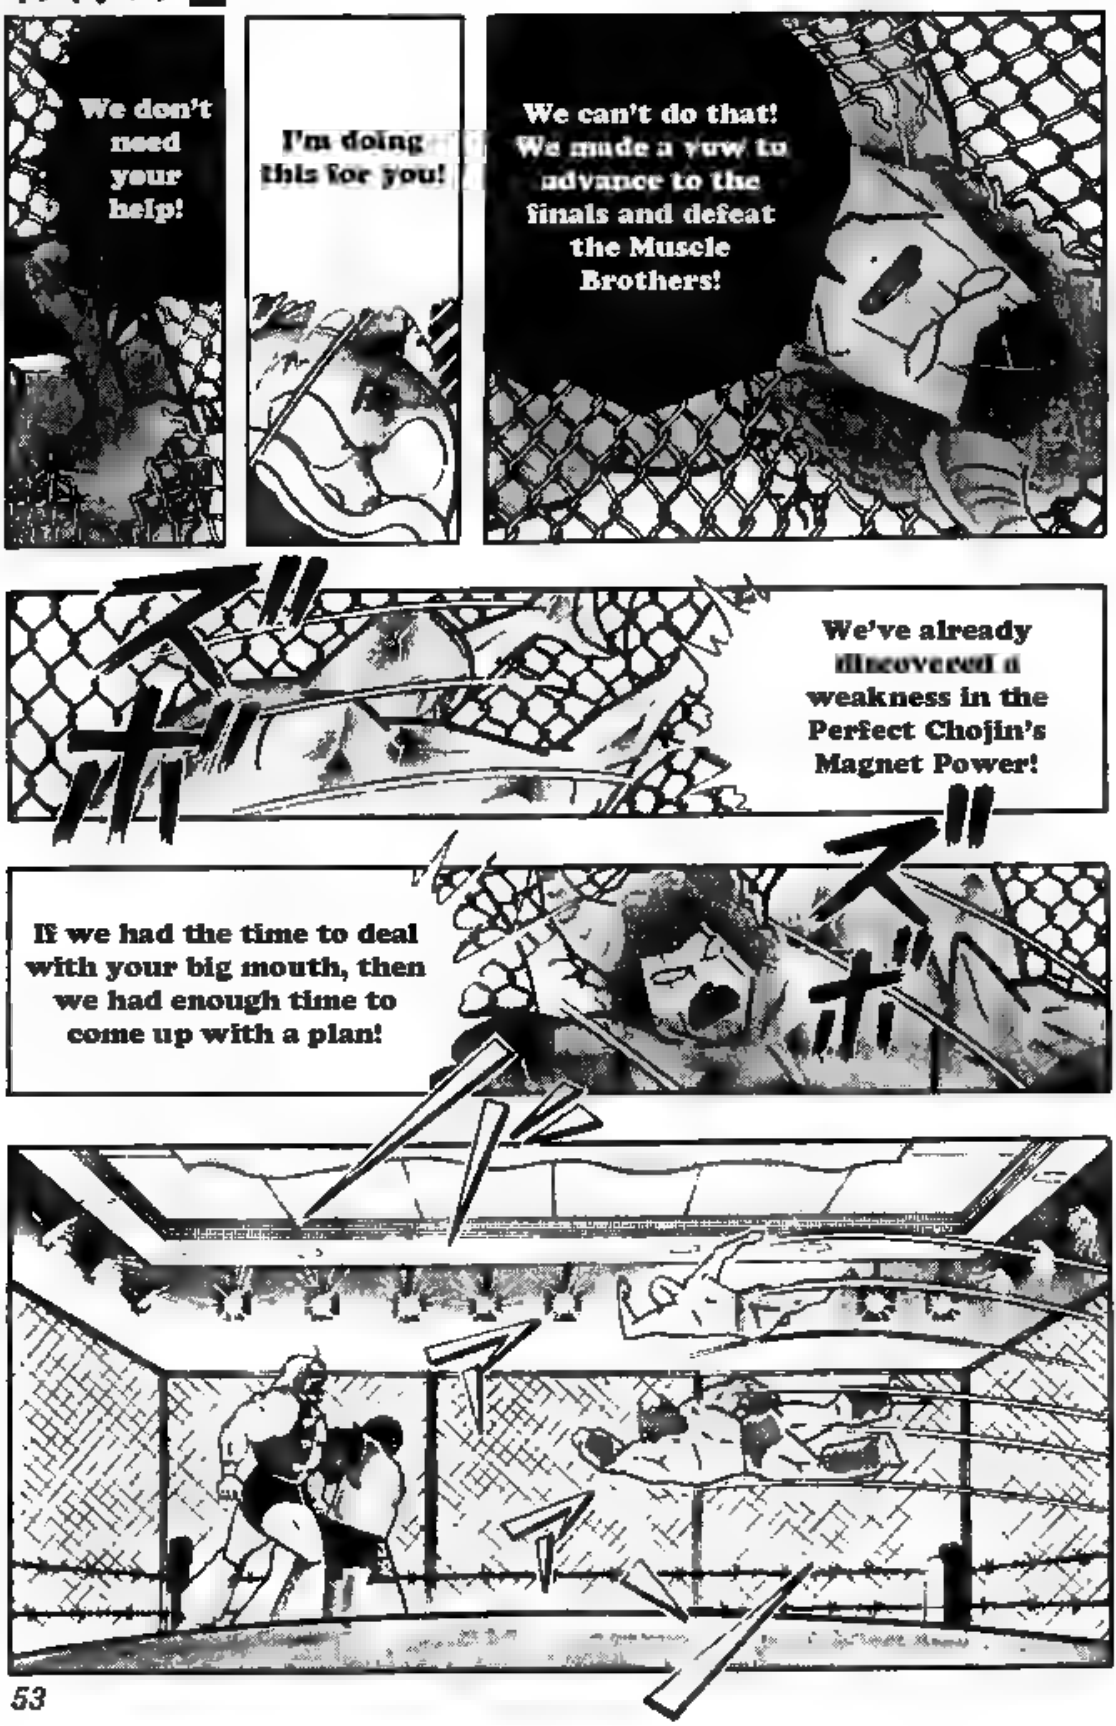
Heh heh heh, we're not done yet. This is where our attack begins!

If you continue the match at this rate, it will not end well!

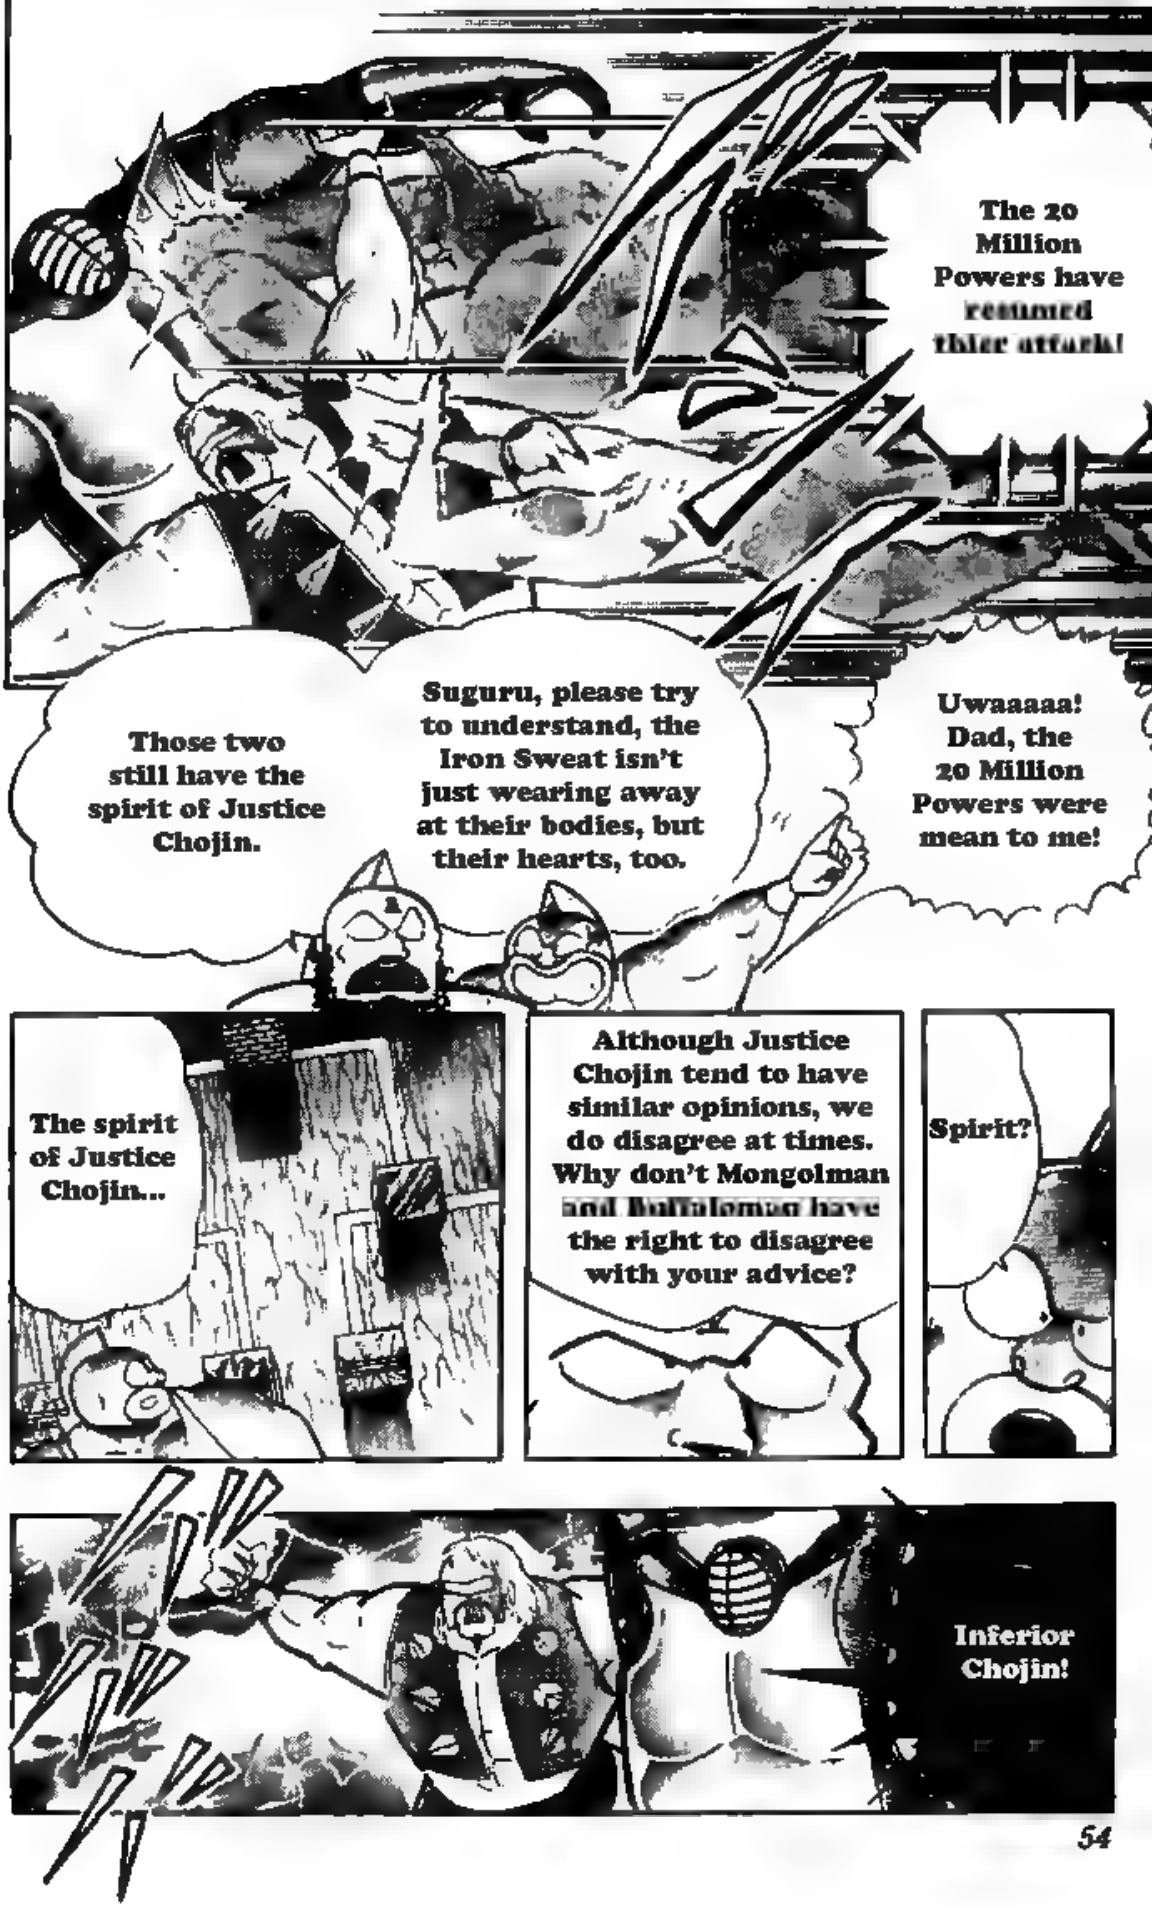
20 Million Powers, I'm saying this due to the relationship we used to have as Justice Chojin!



Accept an honorable surrender while you still can!
Kinnikuman!
Kinnikuman is advising the former Justice Chojin, the 20 Million Powers, to abandon the match!
.....
Kinnikuman seems to know what's going on, but how can you two really do that?
It's true that he cares about his allies, but he doesn't want us to get into the finals, afterall!
It's come to this, afterall. He's telling us to just give up the match!

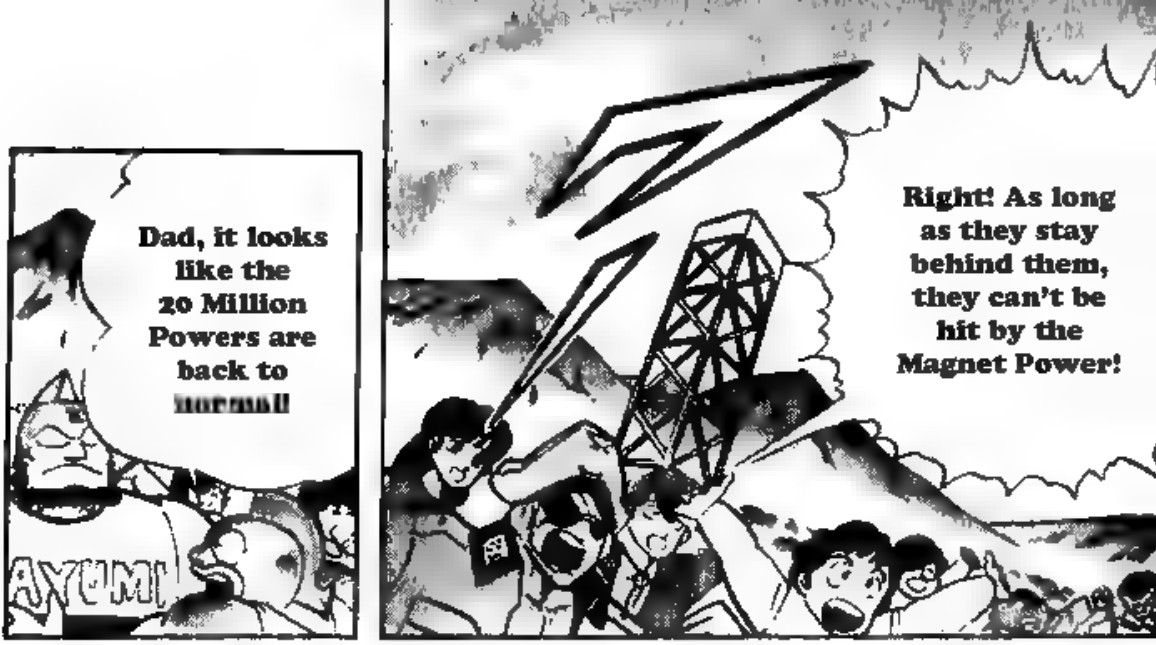


We don't need your help!
I'm doing this for you!
We can't do that! We made a vow to advance to the finals and defeat the Muscle Brothers!
We've already discovered a weakness in the Perfect Chojin's Magnet Power!
If we had the time to deal with your big mouth, then we had enough time to come up with a plan!

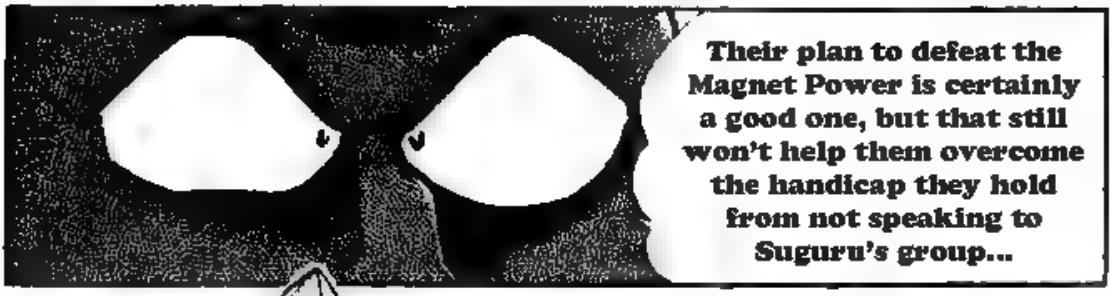


The 20 Million Powers have resumed thier attack!
Those two still have the spirit of Justice Chojin.
Suguru, please try to understand, the Iron Sweat isn't just wearing away at their bodies, but their hearts, too.
Uwaaaaa! Dad, the 20 Million Powers were mean to me!
The spirit of Justice Chojin...
Although Justice Chojin tend to have similar opinions, we do disagree at times. Why don't Mongolman and Buffalomen have the right to disagree with your advice?
Spirit?
Inferior Chojin!

Trying to escape!?
Get behind them, Buffaloman!
Behind them again, Buffaloman!
What's happened to the 20 Million Powers!?
The 20 Million Powers, after being a constant victim of the Magnet Power, are now able to completely avoid it!
Magnet Power and only be used from the front of your body!
I've been watching your movements when you use the Magnet Power and I noticed something...



Dad, it looks like the 20 Million Powers are back to normal!
AYUMI
Right! As long as they stay behind them, they can't be hit by the Magnet Power!



Their plan to defeat the Magnet Power is certainly a good one, but that still won't help them overcome the handicap they hold from not speaking to Suguru's group...

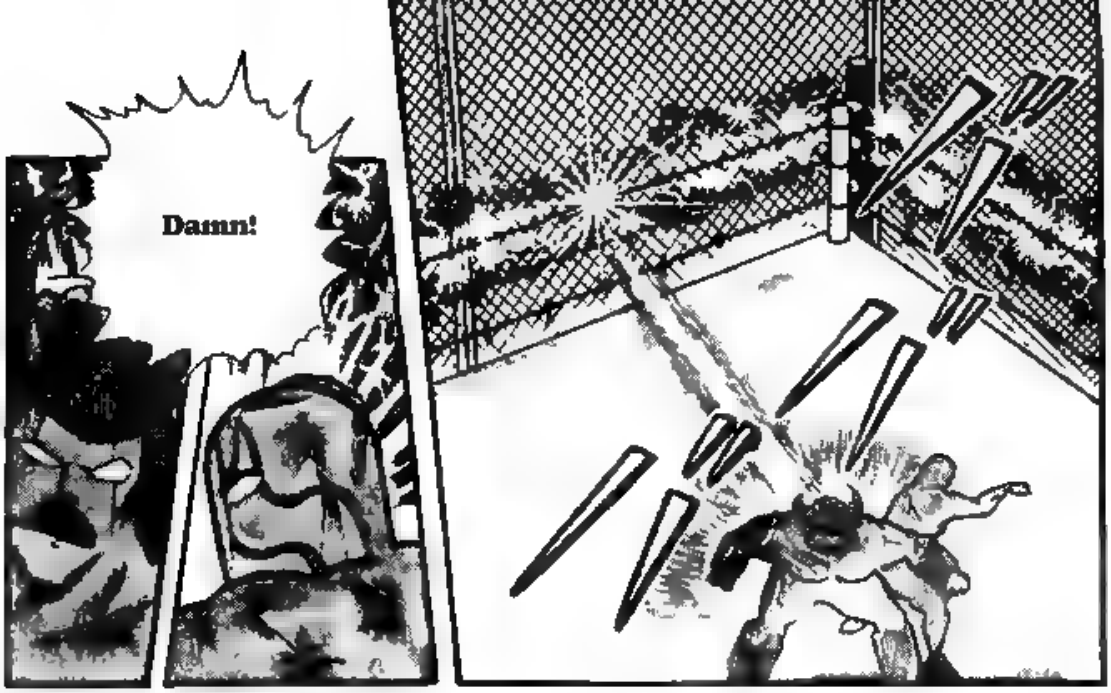
Heh heh heh heh.
So, are you amazed by our Magnet Power Destroyer?

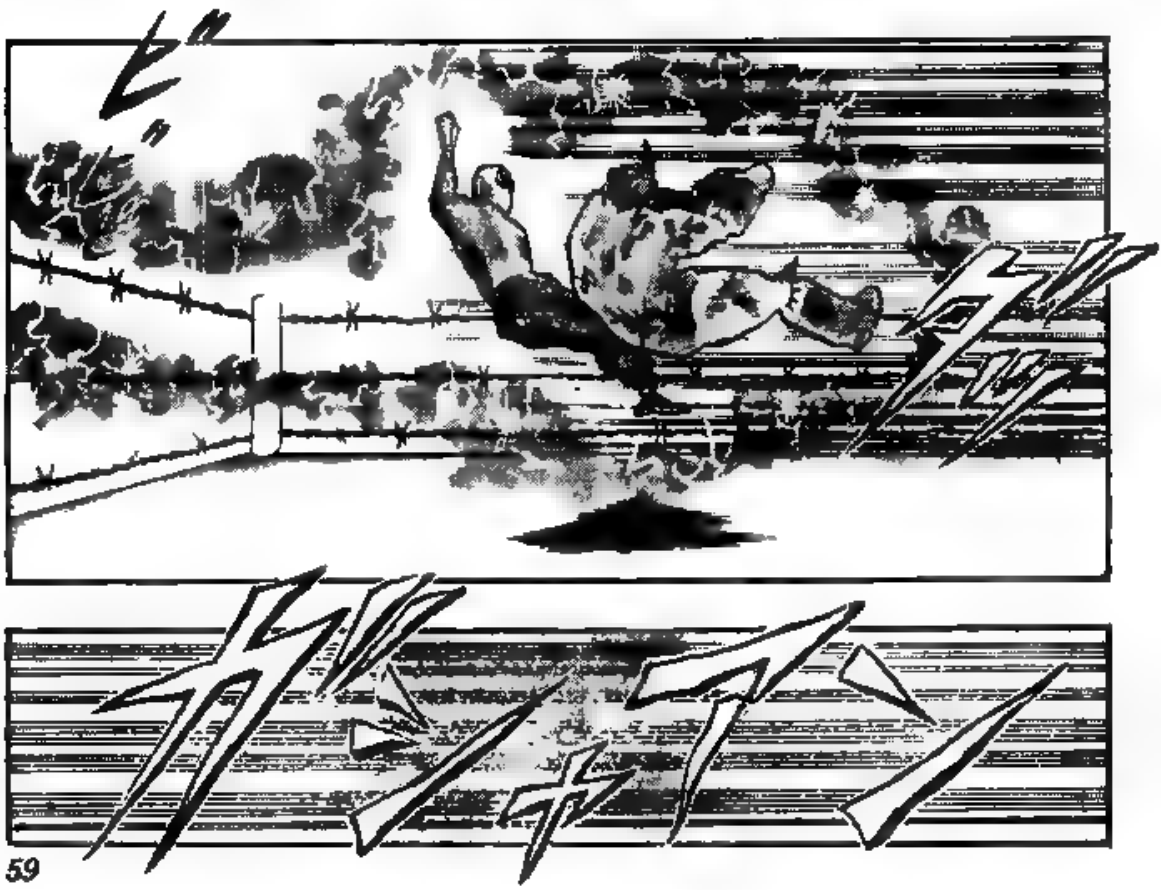
Any type of metal can be charged magnetically!
What?
You're correct. Magnet Power can only be fired in front of us. However, I think you're forgetting something about magnetism...
Transmitted Magnet Power!
ビビビビ
あ。。

The Magnet Power coming from Dudo and Neptuneman is being put into the barbed wire!
If you don't, it's going to get bad...
No! Get out of there, guys!



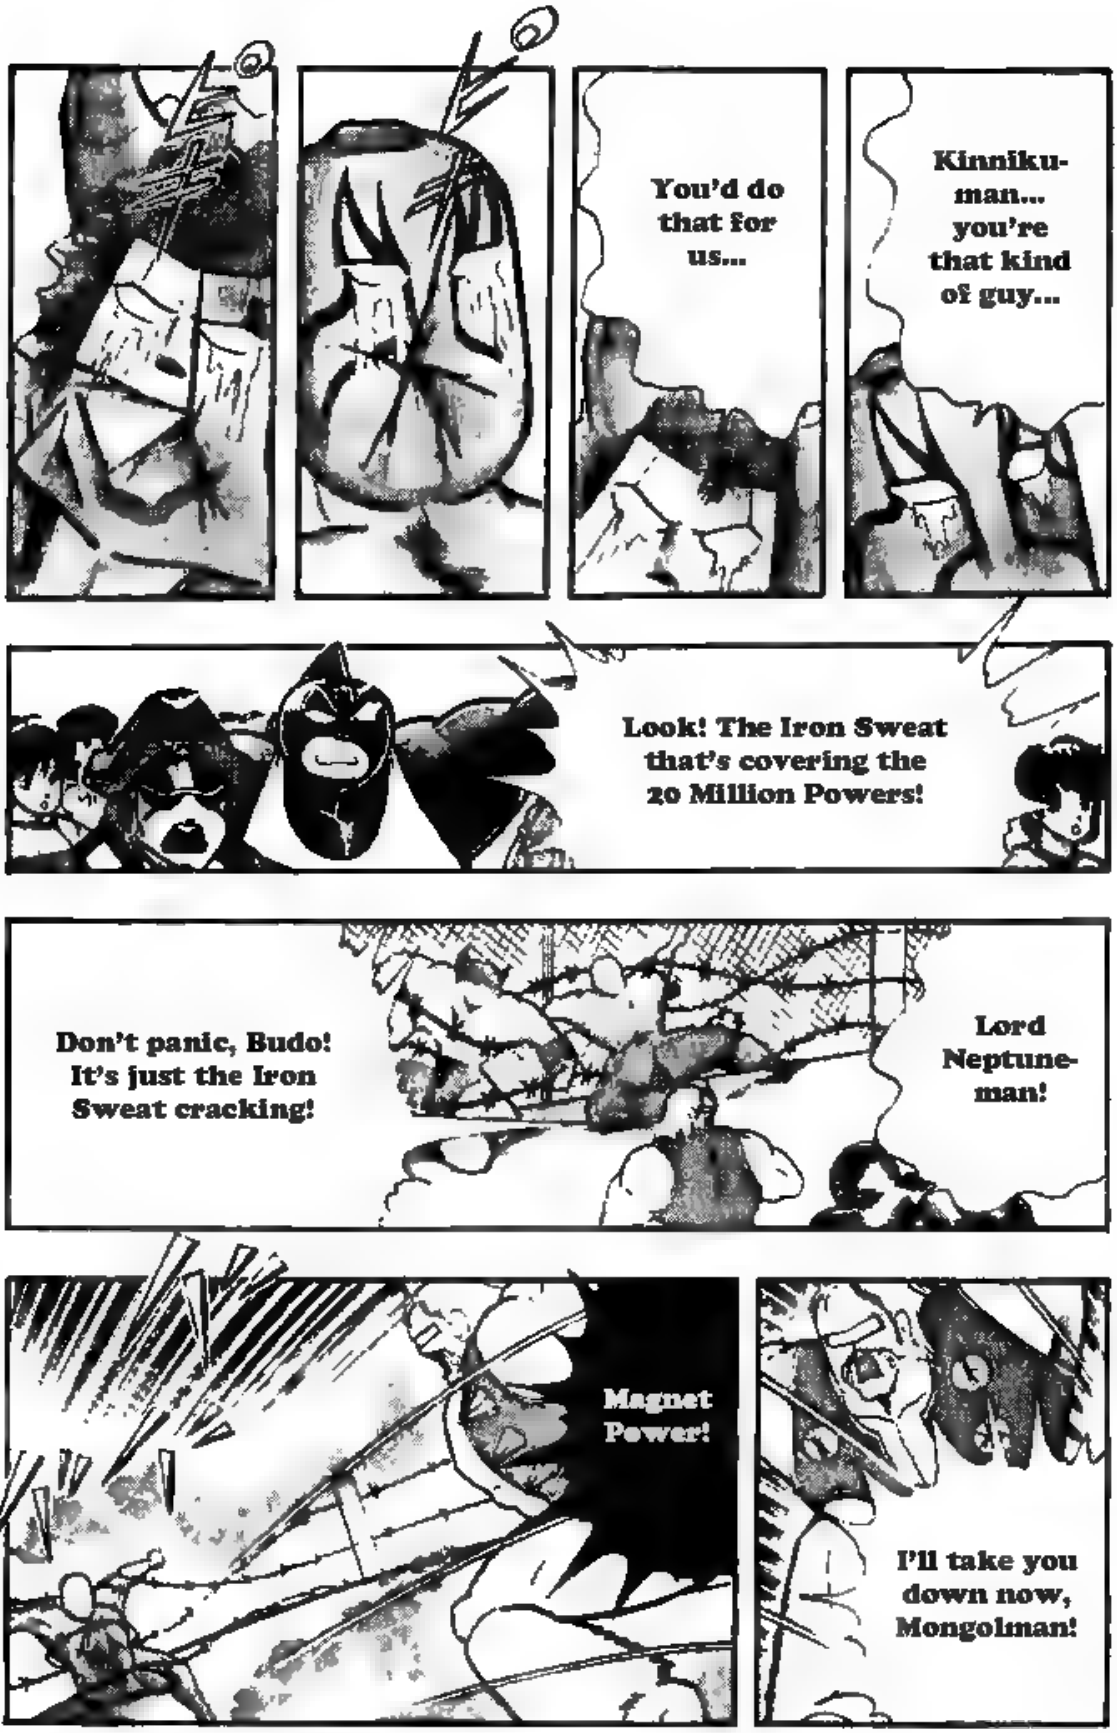
Damn!

If we transmit it into something else, we can easily take down an enemy behind us!
Even if we can't use Magnet Power from behind...



No! They have no way to take on the Missionaries! They'll really die this time!
Me, too! We're really slipping, aren't we?
Heh... I can't believe that someone like me... didn't think of something so simple...
There's only one person who can save them, now...
That's you, Suguru!
We'll never abandon the match! If we lose, it'll be by KO!
Kinnikuman, no matter how much you try, we know you just don't want us in the finals...
20 Million Powers! I'm asking you again to please forfeit this match!

What kind of deal?
I was being a bit too kind earlier. This time, I will not allow you two to go to the finals... so I'm willing to make a deal...
The Muscle Brothers will give up our right to go to the finals!
If you two forfeit this match...
Niku!
Of course I share his opinion on this.
What about your partner, Kinnikuman Great!?
I have faith that this will restore the Justice Chojin.
What are you saying!?



You'd do that for us...
Kinniku-man... you're that kind of guy...
Look! The Iron Sweat that's covering the 20 Million Powers!
Don't panic, Budo! It's just the Iron Sweat cracking!
Lord Neptune-man!
Magnet Power!
I'll take you down now, Mongolman!

What kind of attack is Neptuneman pulling Mongolman in for!?
Mongol-man!
Take this: Law Breaking Robin Special!
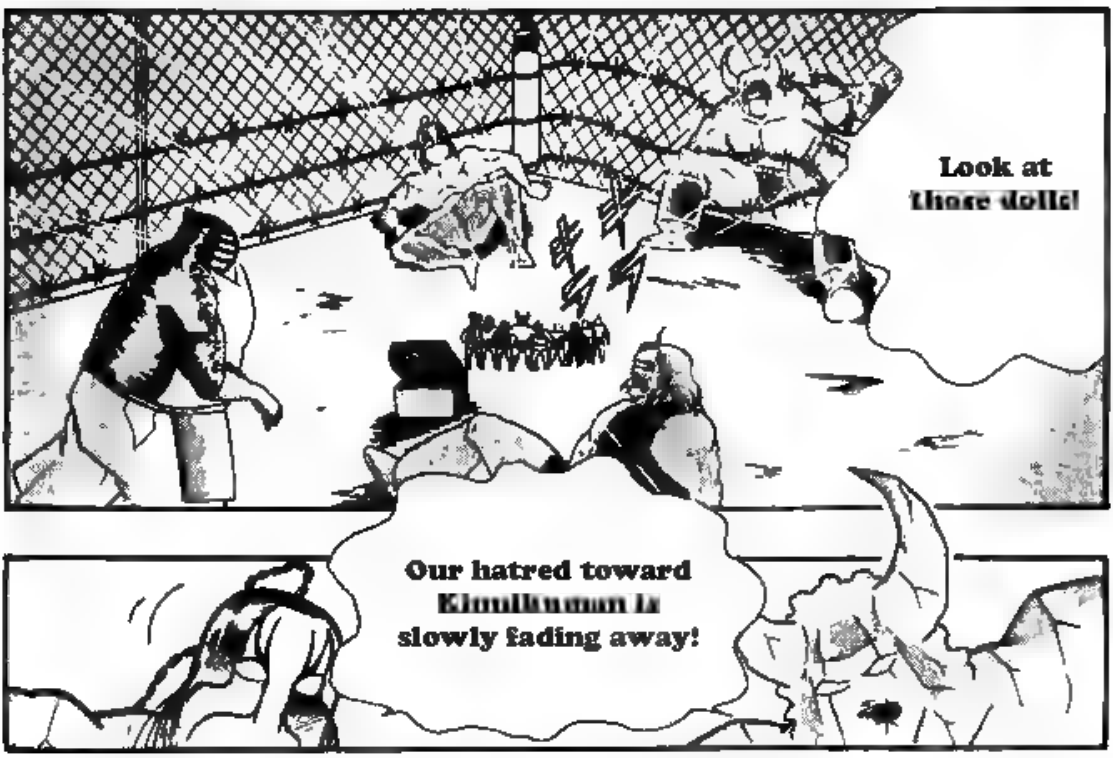
That's the Robin Special, the attack used by Neptuneman's rival, Robin Mask!

Neptuneman is falling and Mongolman has fallen out of his legs!
No, the cursed dolls that control the Justice Chojin's friendship!
This is a sign that the Justice Chojin's friendship has finally been restored!!

Dream Chojin Tag Arc 41

Electromagnetic Chojin!

Damn! The Justice Chojin cursed dolls that fell out after the fall are holding hands!
The nine dolls in the ring are tightly holding hands, as if to symbolise the revival of the Justice Chojin's friendship!

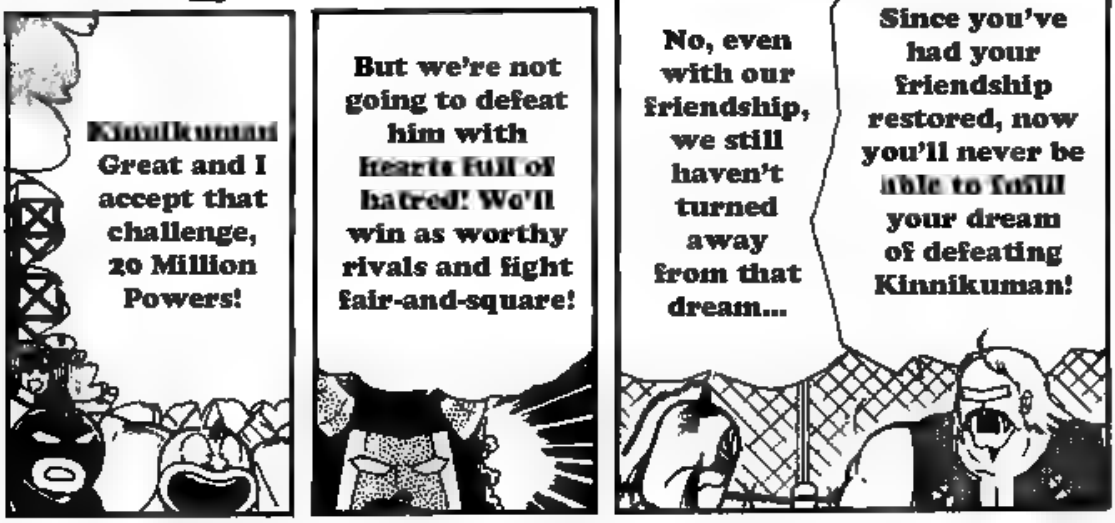


Look at those dolls!
Our hatred toward Kinnikuman is slowly fading away!

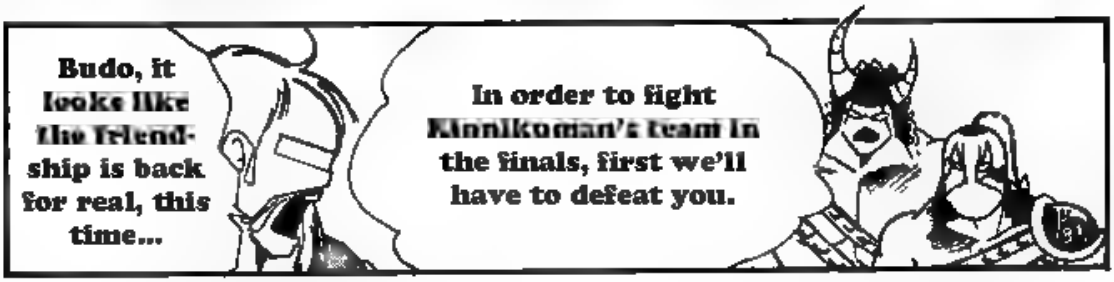
We too were holding his hand like those dolls at one time...
救世主…!!

The Iron Sweat that's covering their bodies is...
Aah!
This is...

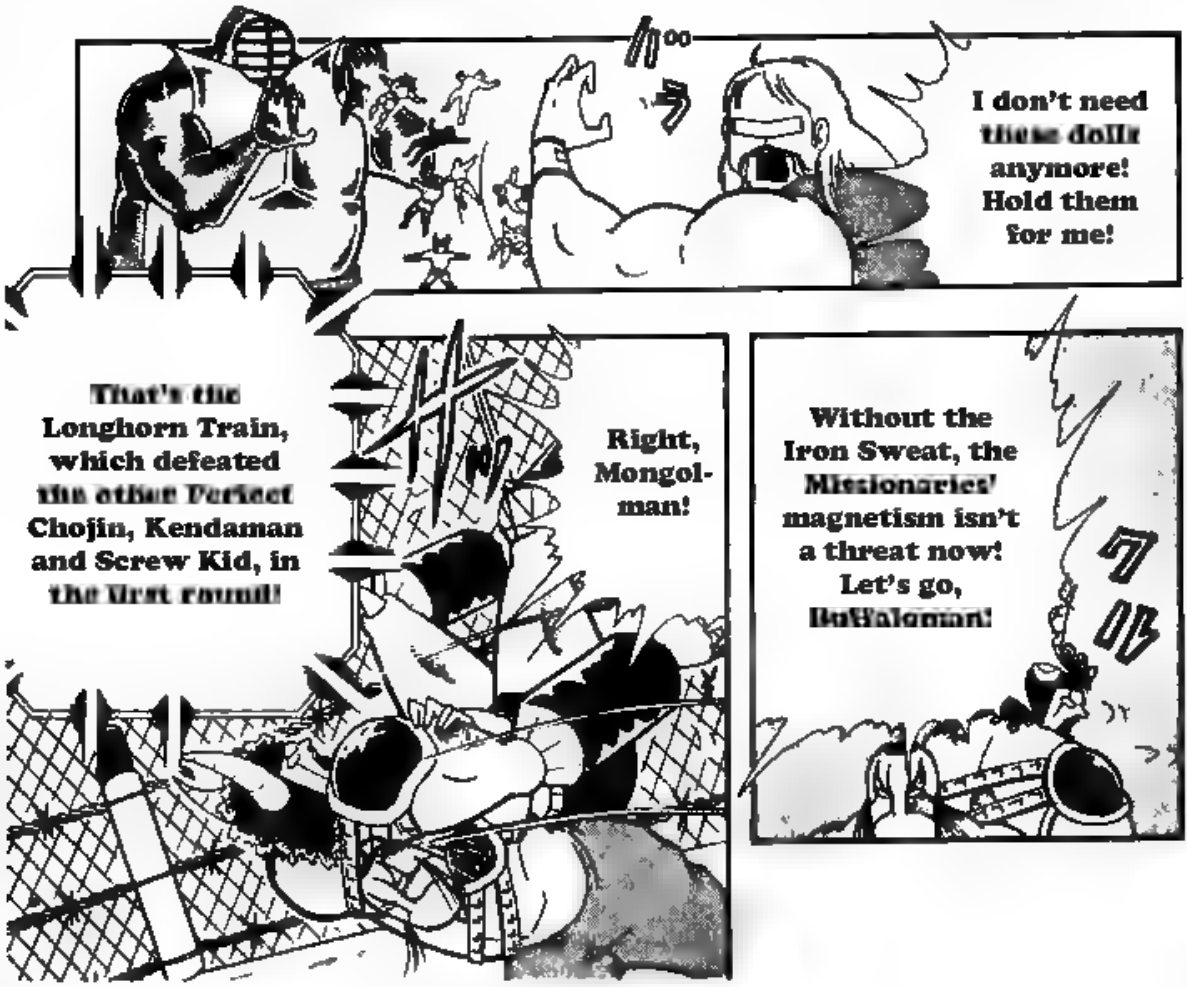
The Iron Sweat has fallen off!
But why would they suddenly change their thoughts once the dolls started holding hands!?
It's friendship... Since the 20 Million Powers have abandoned their bad feelings toward Suguru and the others, the Gods of the Justice Chojin have freed them from the Iron Sweat!
Those dolls represent the friendship between the Justice Chojin! You gave your life trying to get them to hold hands!
Prince Kamehame, now I understand why you gave your life to try to get back those cursed dolls!



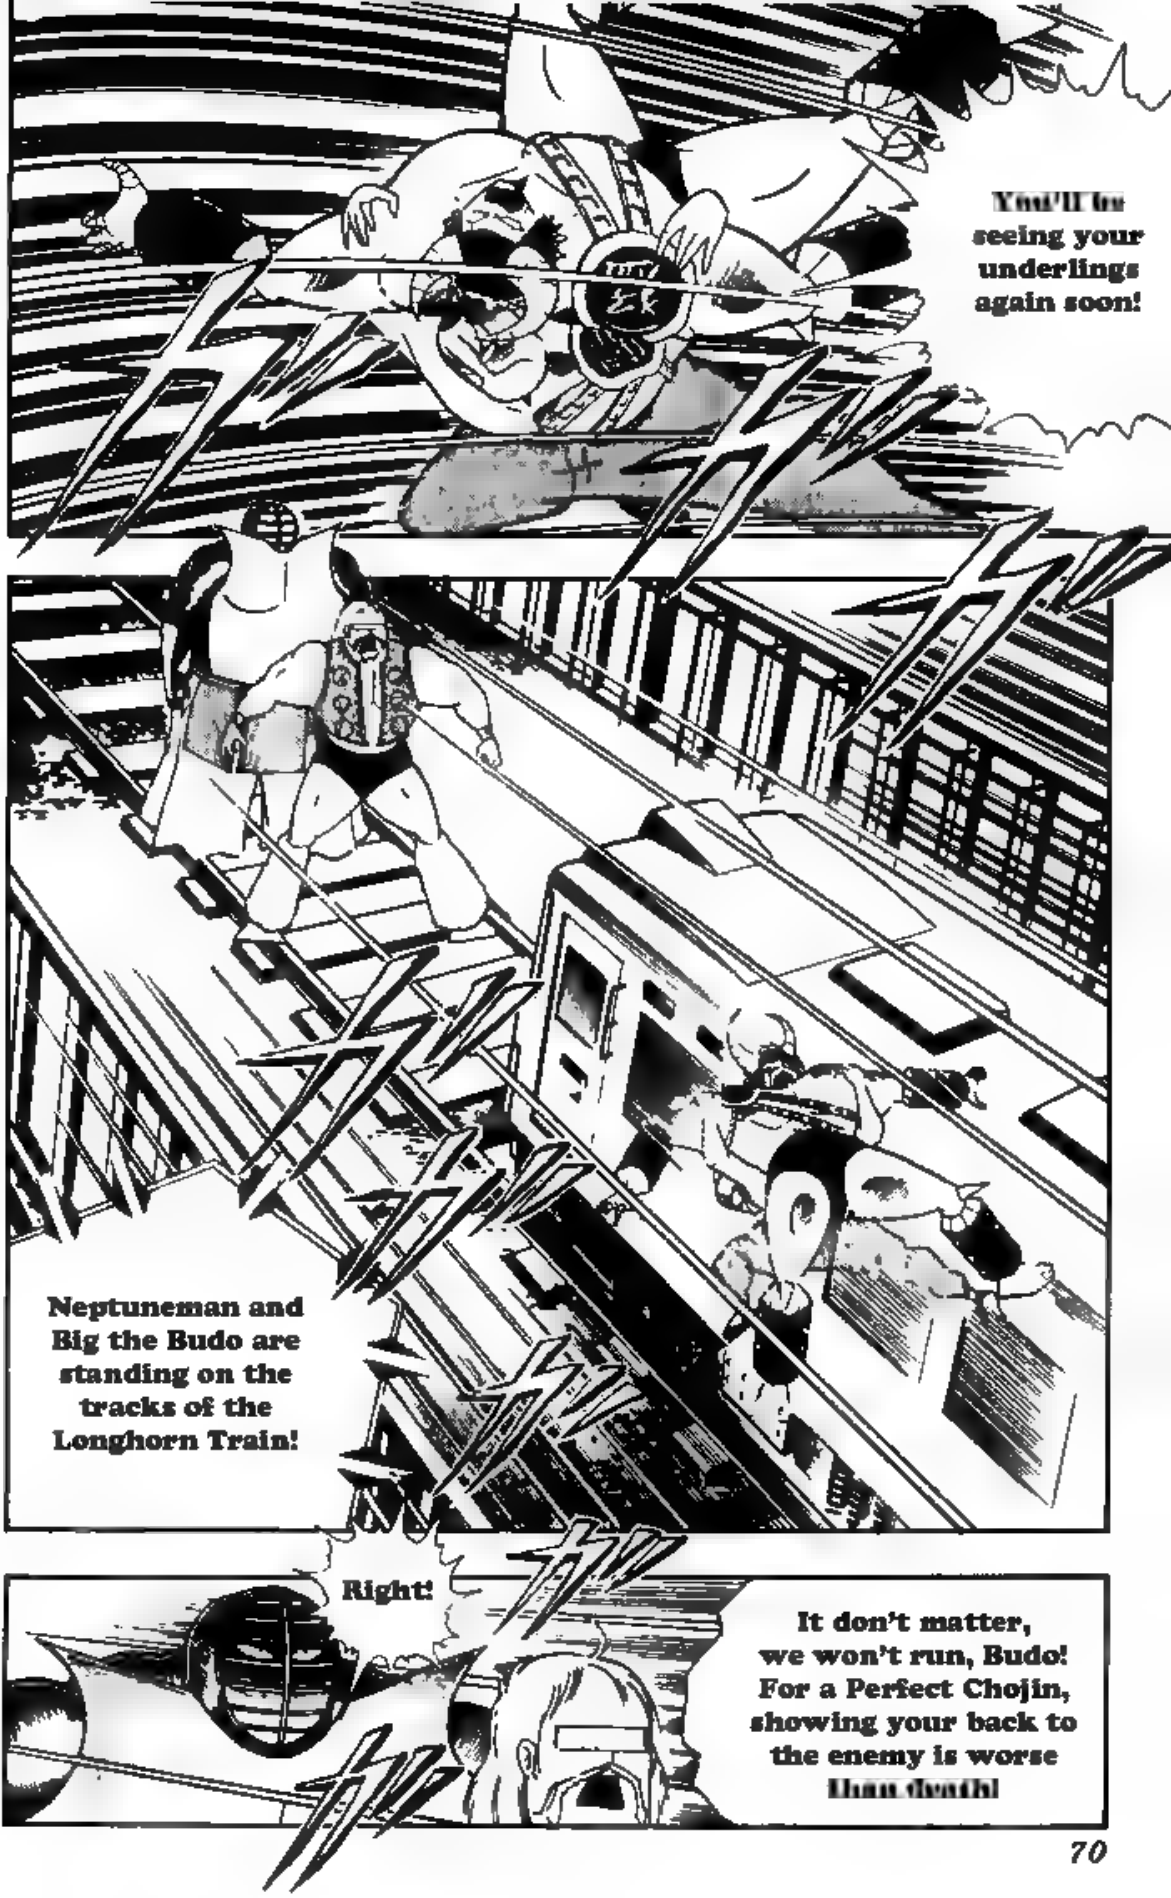
Kinnikuman! Great and I accept that challenge, 20 Million Powers!
But we're not going to defeat him with hearts full of hatred! We'll win as worthy rivals and fight fair-and-square!
No, even with our friendship, we still haven't turned away from that dream...
Since you've had your friendship restored, now you'll never be able to fulfill your dream of defeating Kinnikuman!



Budo, it looks like the friendship is back for real, this time...
In order to fight Kinnikoman's team in the finals, first we'll have to defeat you.



I don't need these dolls anymore! Hold them for me!
That's the Longhorn Train, which defeated the other Perfect Chojin, Kendaman and Screw Kid, in the first round!
Right, Mongolman!
Without the Iron Sweat, the Missionaries' magnetism isn't a threat now! Let's go, Buffaloman!

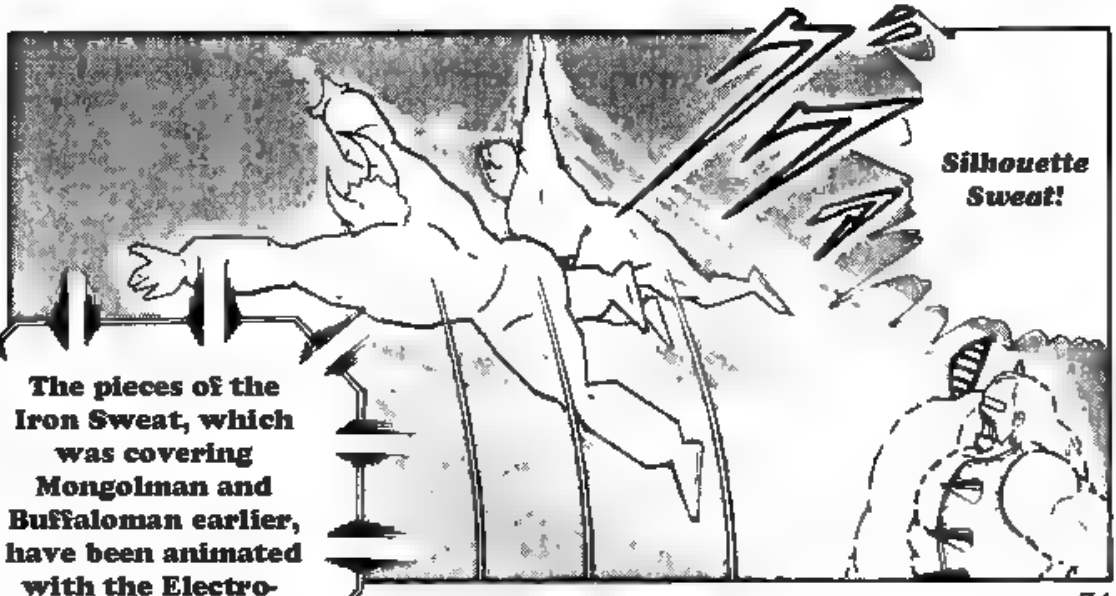


You'll be seeing your underlings again soon!
Neptuneman and Big the Budo are standing on the tracks of the Longhorn Train!
Right!
It don't matter, we won't run, Budo! For a Perfect Chojin, showing your back to the enemy is worse than death!

Longhorn Train!
They did it! A comback victory for the 20 Million Powers!
The Missionaries have crashed into the lights!
.....
Were they shocked to death?

Hahahaha! Budo, let's teach them a lesson about Perfect Chojin!
Neptuneman!
Thanks to the Longhorn Train, our power has increased!

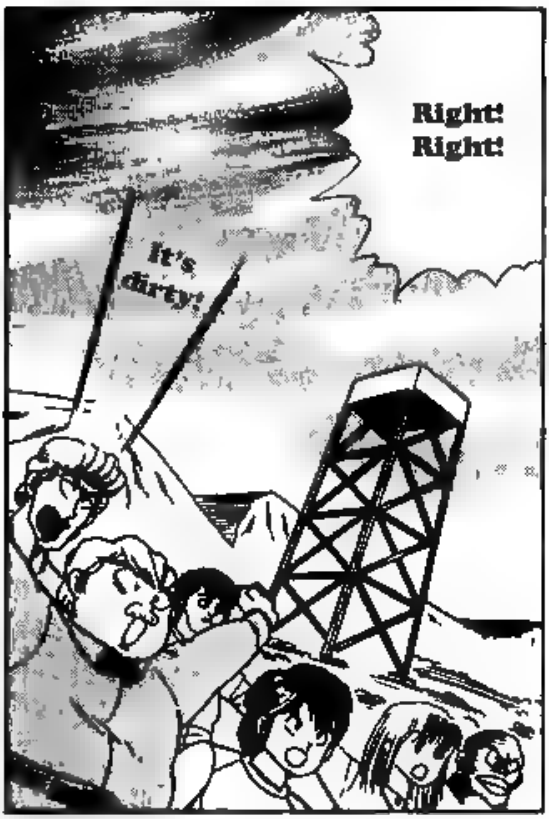
Right, magnets can hold electricity! Since they're magnetic Chojin, they absorbed the electricity into their bodies to become electromagnetic Chojin!
Huh?
Heh, your inferior brains think that we would be shocked to death by hitting the lights, but you forgot that we're both magnetic Chojin!
We'll end this!
The 20 Million Powers, in an act of desperation, move to finish the Hell Missionaries!
Electro-magnetic Power!
Stop, 20 Million Powers! They're not the same as they were earlier!



The pieces of the Iron Sweat, which was covering Mongolman and Buffaloman earlier, have been animated with the Electro-magnetic Power!!

Ooh!
Silhouette
Body Press!

This can't be! It's the Iron Sweat that once covered us!

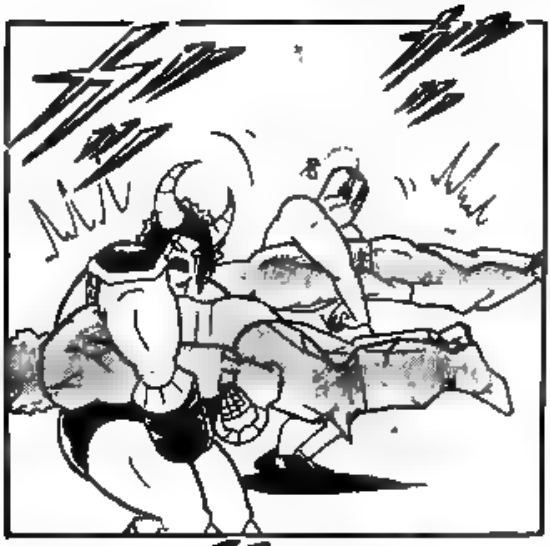


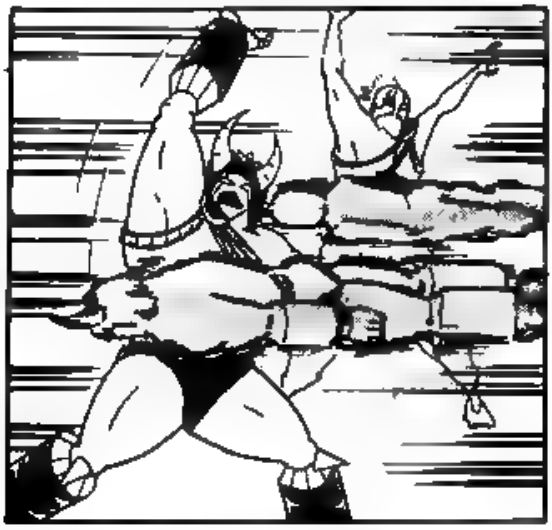
Right! Right!
It's dirty!

This is dirty! How dare you send these things at us!?
Right! Right!

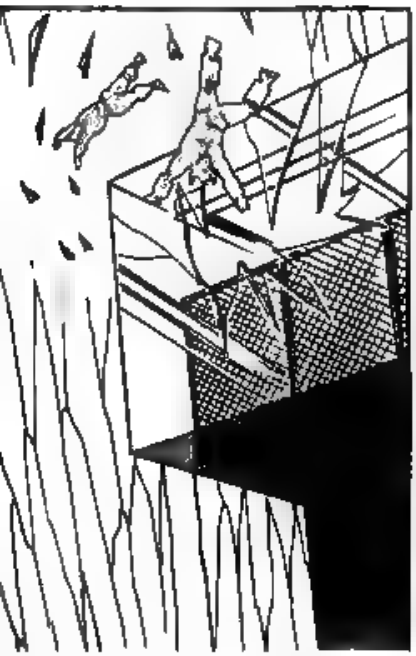
That means you're the ones who made them, not us!
Heh heh heh heh, calling foul on us is so cruel... When did we ever bring these things into the arena? They're made of the Iron Sweat that came out of your bodies!
Guh!
Silhouette Muscle Kick!
Finishing Flying Headbutt!
That's wrong! Make sure you get rid of the Iron Sweat, first!

...so we'll destroy them!
We made them...



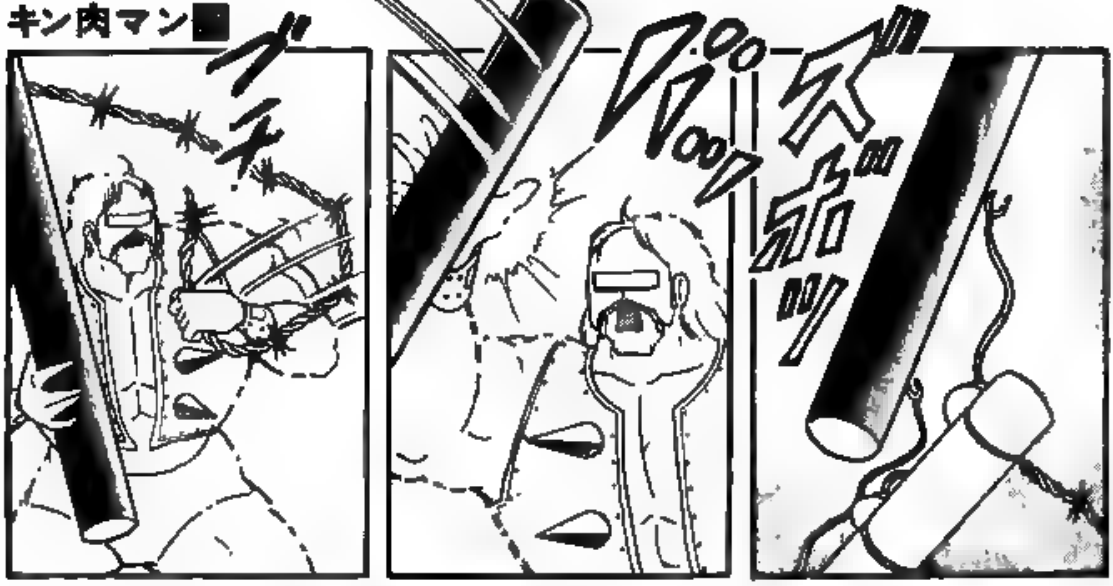


Hiyah!



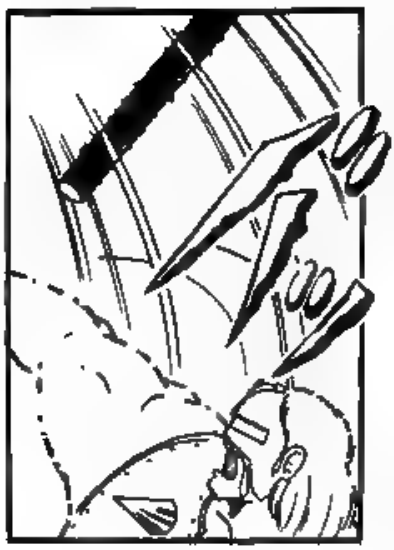
Mongolman and Buffaloman have dealt a Side-Suplex to the Iron Sweat!

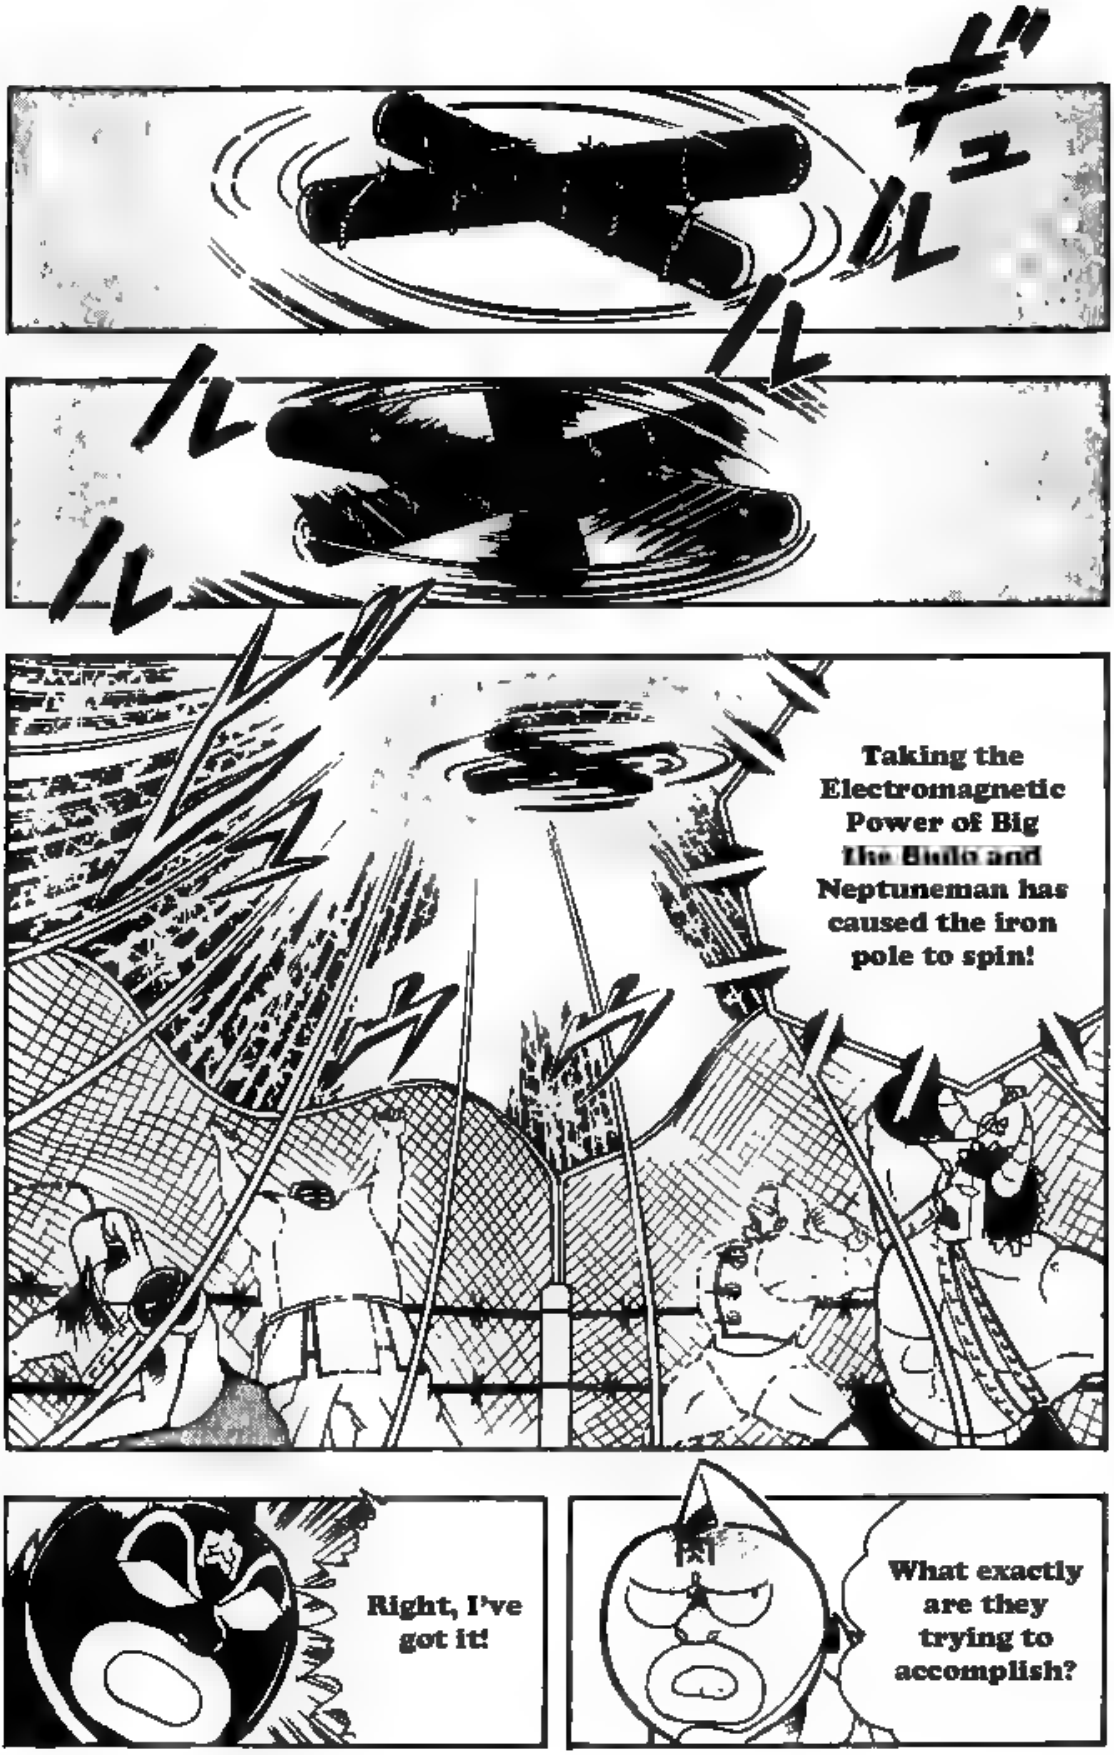
It's just like I predicted before the match started. If this heavyweight battle became a drawn-out match, the first to run out of stamina would be the small-bodied Mongolman!
We did it!
Mongolman and Buffalo-man have gotten rid of the Iron Sweat!
Hahahaha, we've waited for this, Mongolman!
Our techniques were just to wear you down. You gave us a match with your stamina earlier, but in the end victory goes to the Perfect Chojin!
Heh heh heh, right. It's our best one!
What!? So you're still hiding a secret weapon!?



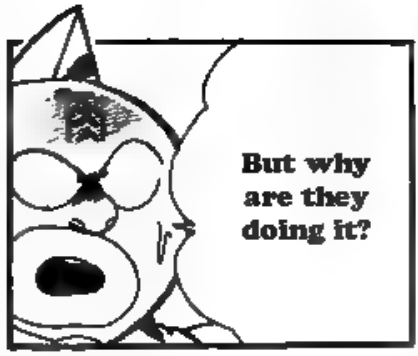
That's your secret weapon...!?
There!

Geh!
Full release! Electro-magnetic Power!

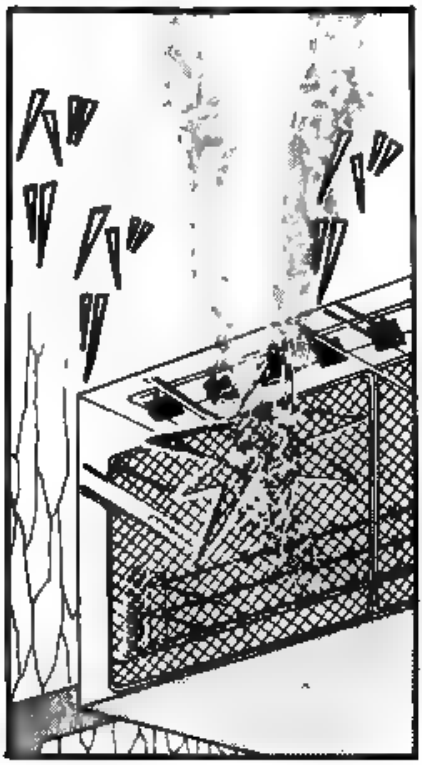


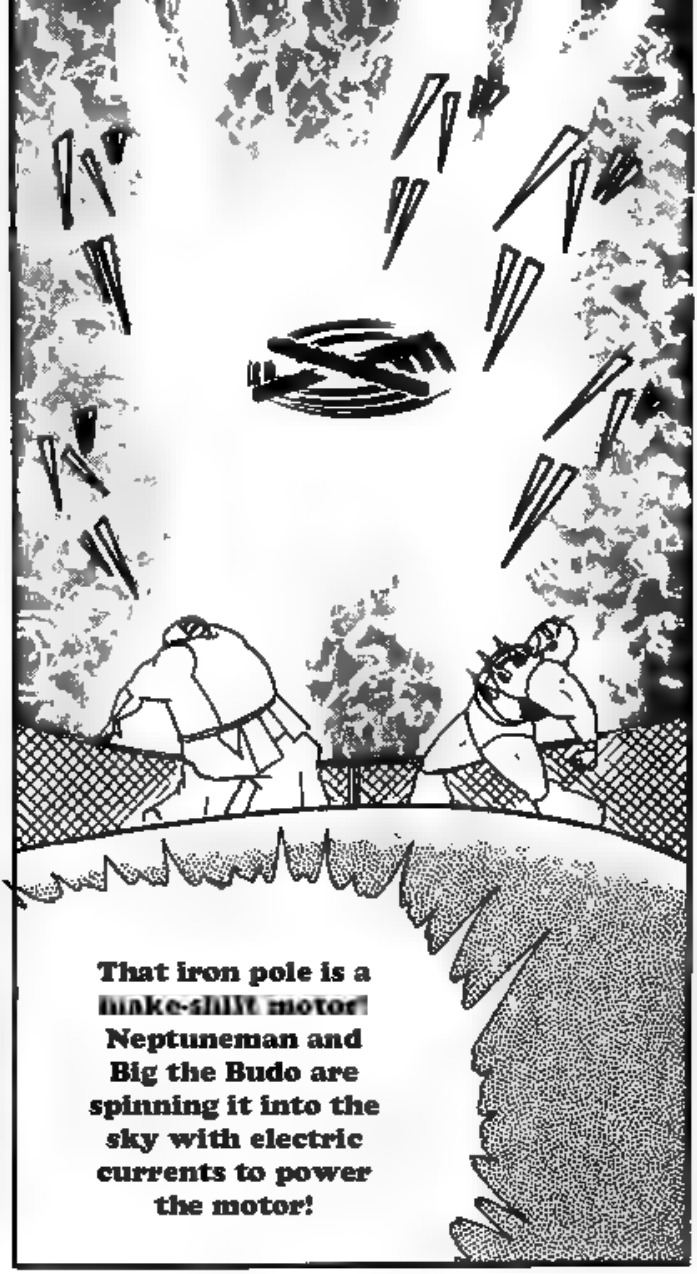


Taking the Electromagnetic Power of Big [illegible] and Neptuneman has caused the iron pole to spin!
Right, I've got it!
What exactly are they trying to accomplish?



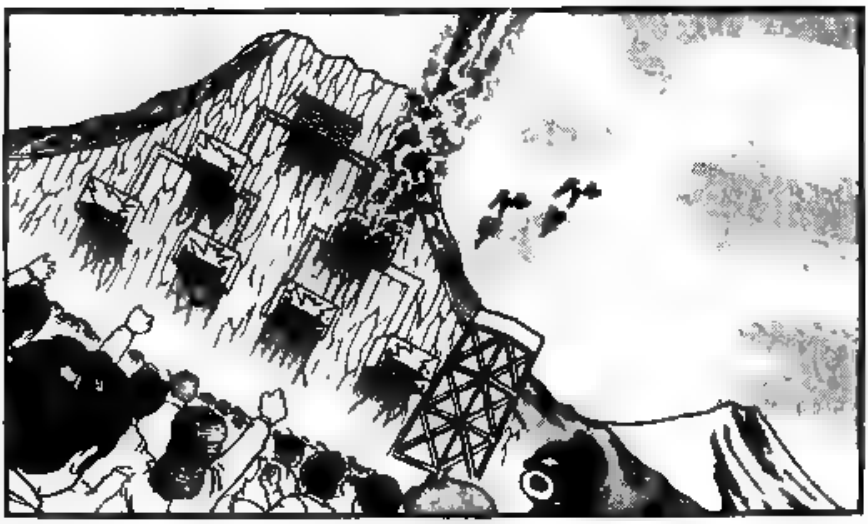
But why are they doing it?





That iron pole is a [redacted]! Neptuneman and Big the Budo are spinning it into the sky with electric currents to power the motor!

Amazing ...



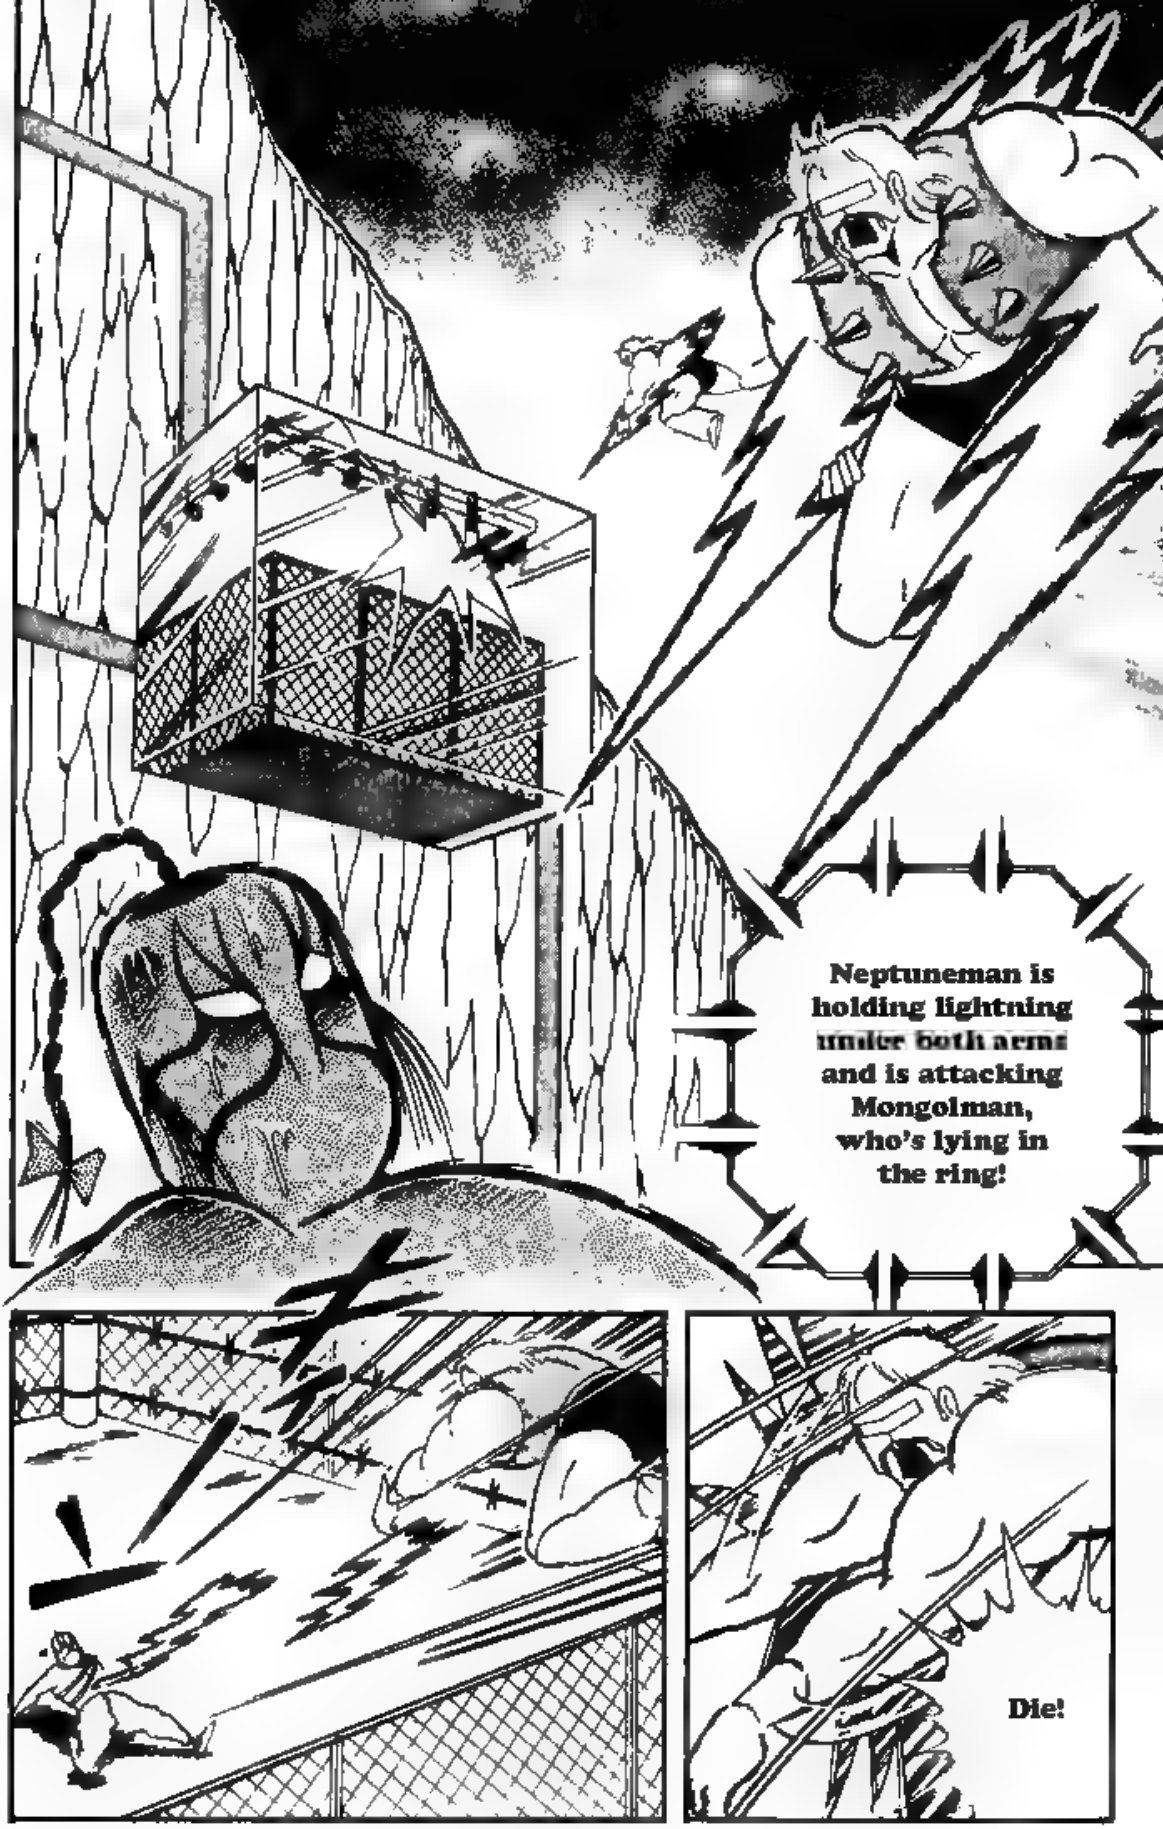
They're making thunder clouds!

Now!

Aah!

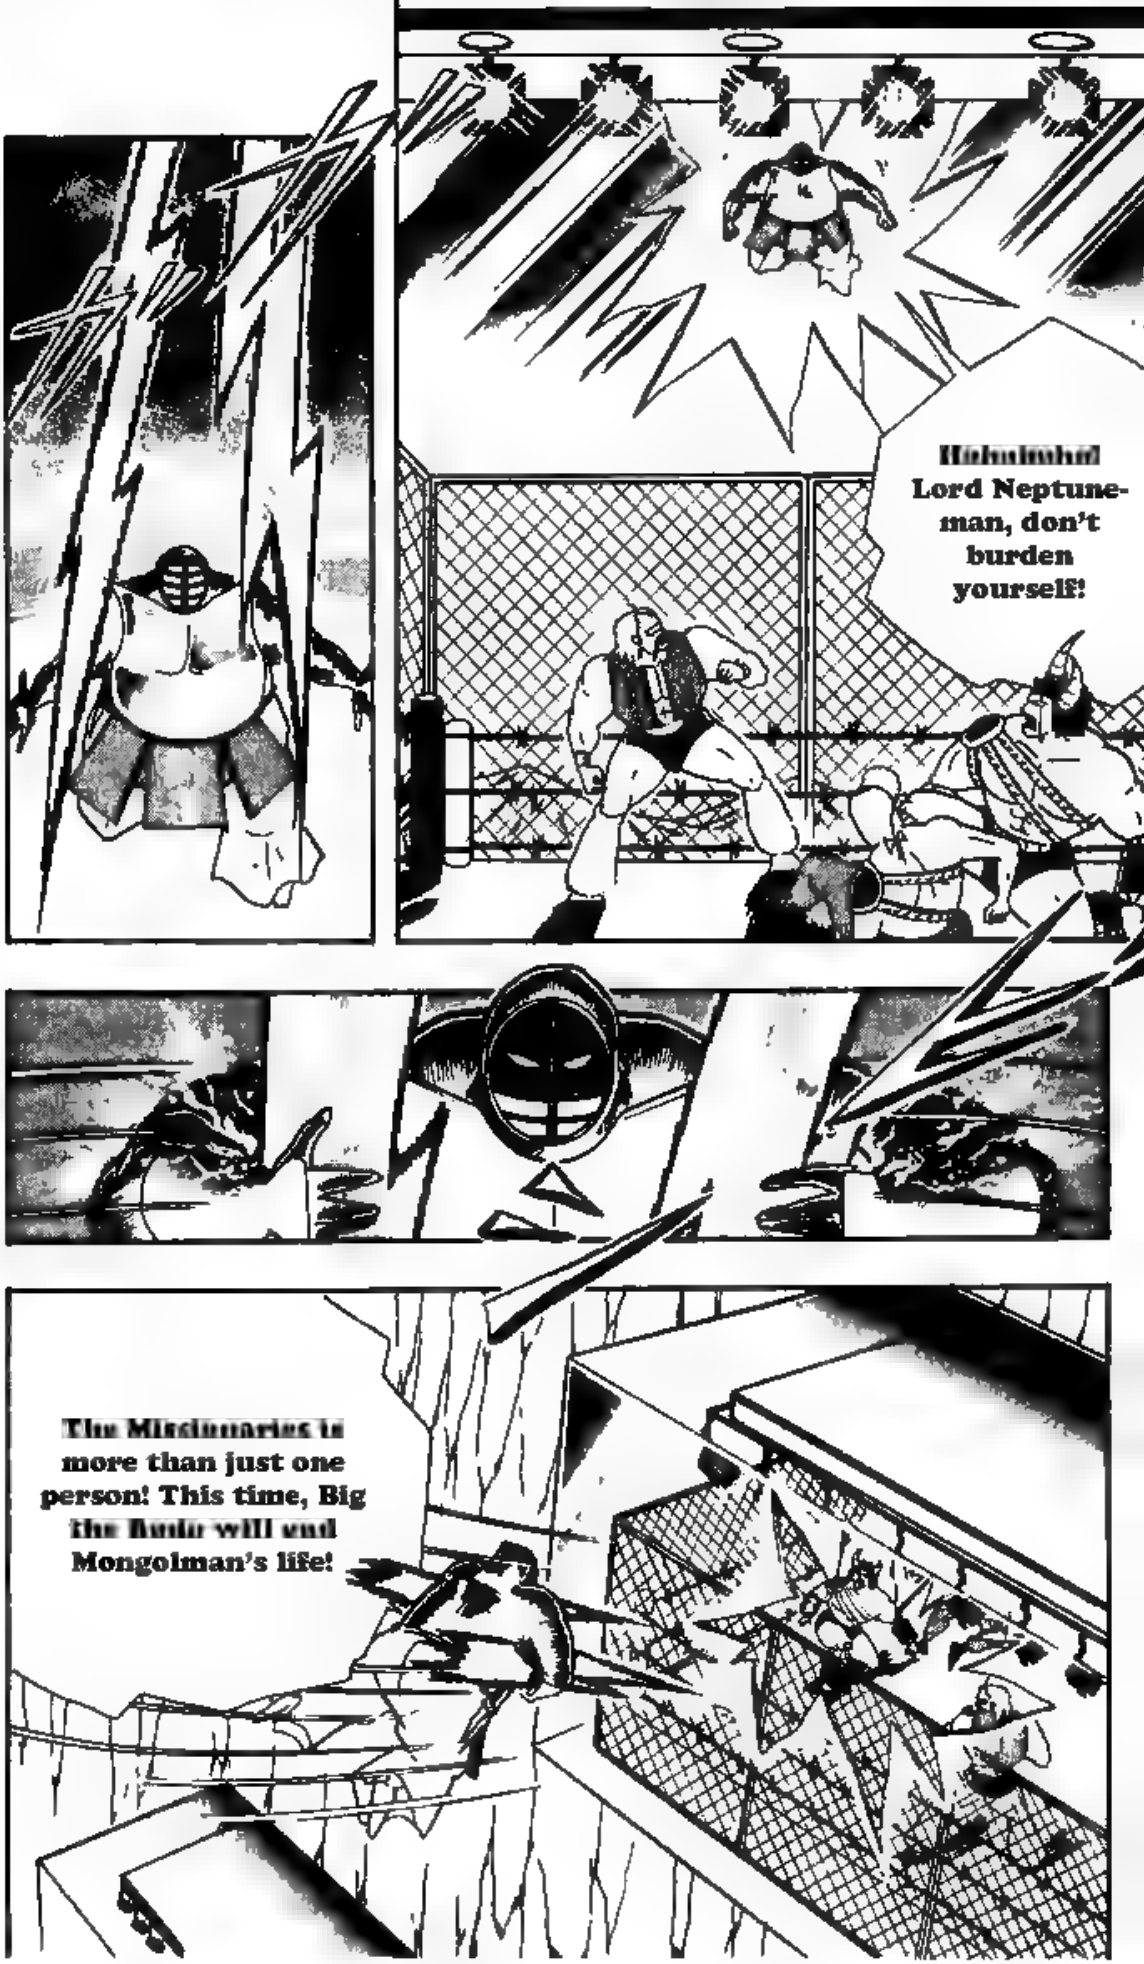
Somehow Neptuneman is carrying lightning in both arms!
This is the ultimate secret weapon of the Perfect Chojin!
Thunder Saber!

A Friendship Worth Risking Your Life For!



Neptuneman is holding lightning under both arms and is attacking Mongolman, who's lying in the ring!
Die!

Mongol-man!
I can't move!
Geh.
Just in the nick of time, Buffaloman has saved his partner from hell!
Buffaloman, I'm really glad I chose you as my partner.
Are you alright, Mongolman?



Hahahaha!
Lord Neptune-man, don't burden yourself!
The Mindinaries is more than just one person! This time, Big the Rudo will end Mongolman's life!

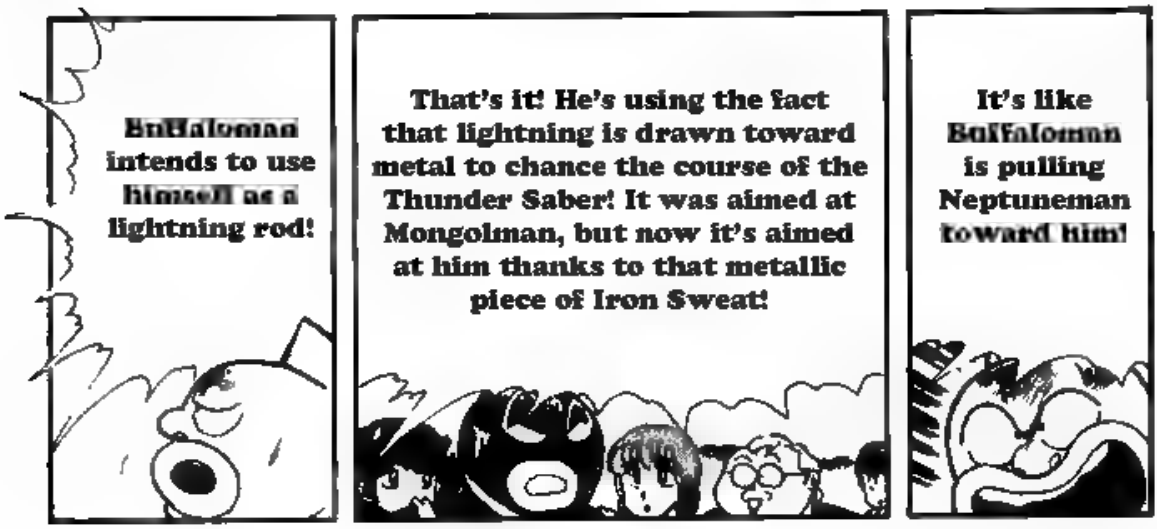
Now he can only hope that his partner pulls through...
Geh! This time Budo's the one with Thunder Sabers!
Take this!
Damn, the Missionari- are aiming for the tired Mongolman!
Watch out, Mongol-man!
The Thunder Sabers are headed straight for Mongolman again!

Uwa!
Neither of the 20 Million Powers are able to move!
あ あ。。
Now's my chance!

Uwahahahha! Buffaloman, there's no way you can help Mongolman, now!
Wahahaha!
Die!
With Buffaloman injured, Neptune-man uses his final attack on Mongol-man!

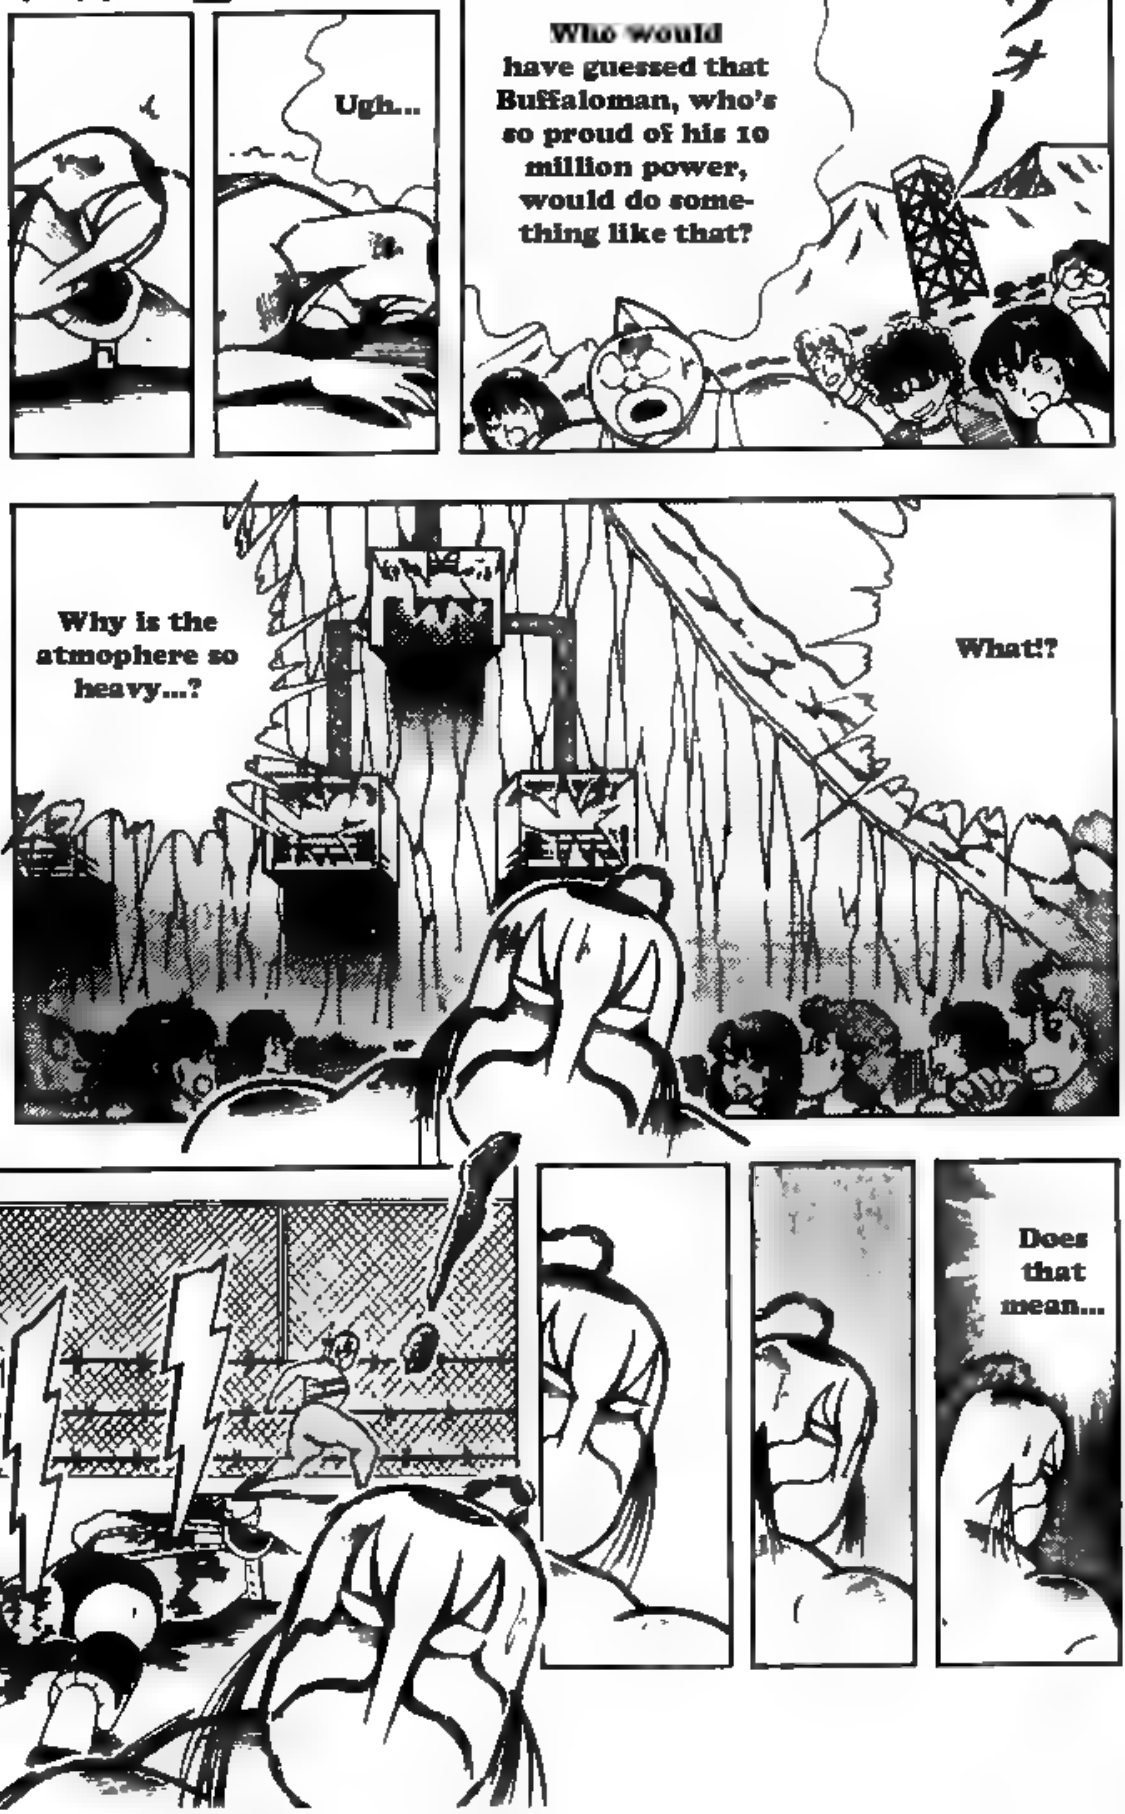
I'm really glad I chose you as my partner
No! I can't move with the Thunder Saber pinning me to the canvas!
Uooh!
Will I let him down?
That's it! I may be able to save Mongolman with this piece of Iron Sweat!
Iron Sweat is made of iron!
It's a fragment of the Iron Sweat we threw out of the ring earlier!
Huh?
Hahahaha! Prepare yourself, Mongolman!

Uh...
I won't let Mongolman die!
Even if it costs me my life...
Why am I being pulled off-course!?
What's going on!? I was aiming for Mongolman...



Buffaloman intends to use himself as a lightning rod!
That's it! He's using the fact that lightning is drawn toward metal to chance the course of the Thunder Saber! It was aimed at Mongolman, but now it's aimed at him thanks to that metallic piece of Iron Sweat!
It's like Buffaloman is pulling Neptuneman toward him!

Uwa!
Thunder Saber! It's best if you hit me!
If that's how you want it, I'll crush you instead!
あ
Finally, Buffaloman has been crushed in the ring by Neptuneman's Thunder Saber!



Ugh...
Who would have guessed that Buffaloman, who's so proud of his 10 million power, would do something like that?
ゾナ
Why is the atmophere so heavy...?
What!?
Does that mean...

You did this to save me... Please, show me your energetic self one more time...
Buffalo-man!
ガク..
I'm happy I chose you, too...
Here's my reply to what you said earlier...
Buffalo-man!
Buffaloman!

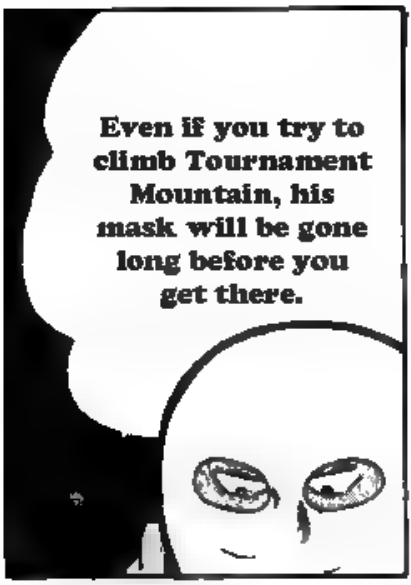
No! Buffaloman can rest in peace knowing that he held onto his values as a Justice Chojin to the very end!
Hahahaha! Buffaloman had the qualities of a good Perfect Chojin, until he became infatuated by this stupid thing called "friendship"! In the end, it's your own fault he was wounded!
He would have never had such a peaceful face!
If Kinnikuman hadn't restored our friendship...
Buffaloman, lend me your power one last time!
Buffaloman, is that how you are?
No, I think he did it so that he'd increase Mongolman's anger power! Justice Chojin gain unbelieveable power when an ally is hurt or killed!
He's just wasting his life! Didn't he get Buffaloman's feelings!?
That's the Longhorn Train! Mongolman still hasn't given up on getting into the finals!

The 20 Million Powers' Longhorn Train departs, with the dream of a comeback on board!
This this! Longhorn Train!
Mongolman, will your anger win? Can it stand up to the calm judgement of the Perfect Chojin!?
If we can defeat that technique, then the Missionaries will go to the finals!
Longhorn Train Destroyer!

Magnet Power - !
Magnet Power + !
Mongolman is hit in the leg!
The Longhorn Train is being pulled apart by Magnet Power, despite there being no Iron Sweat!

Magnetic
Storm
Crash!

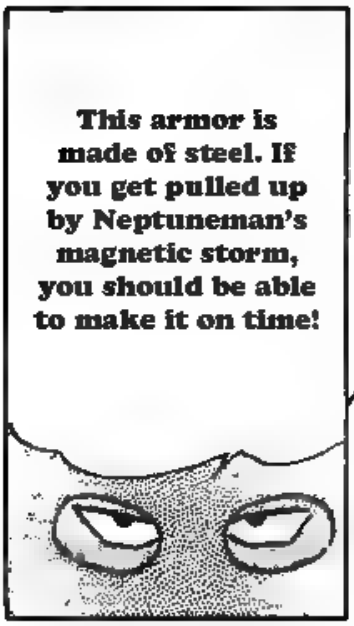
The 20 Million Powers may not be getting up again! The Hell Missionaries are terribly strong!
Was no match for the Perfect Chojin...
Buffaloman, even my anger power...
That will end it, and we'll finally be declared the winners!
The match isn't over yet. Have you forgotten? The Perfect Chojin have the holy ceremony of the Mask Hunt!
Those two! If we don't get in the way of Mongolman's mask being ripped off...
Who's trying to stop me!?
Shut up!
Wait, Kinnikuman! You need your body for the finals! What will you do if it gets hit!?



Even if you try to climb Tournament Mountain, his mask will be gone long before you get there.

But...

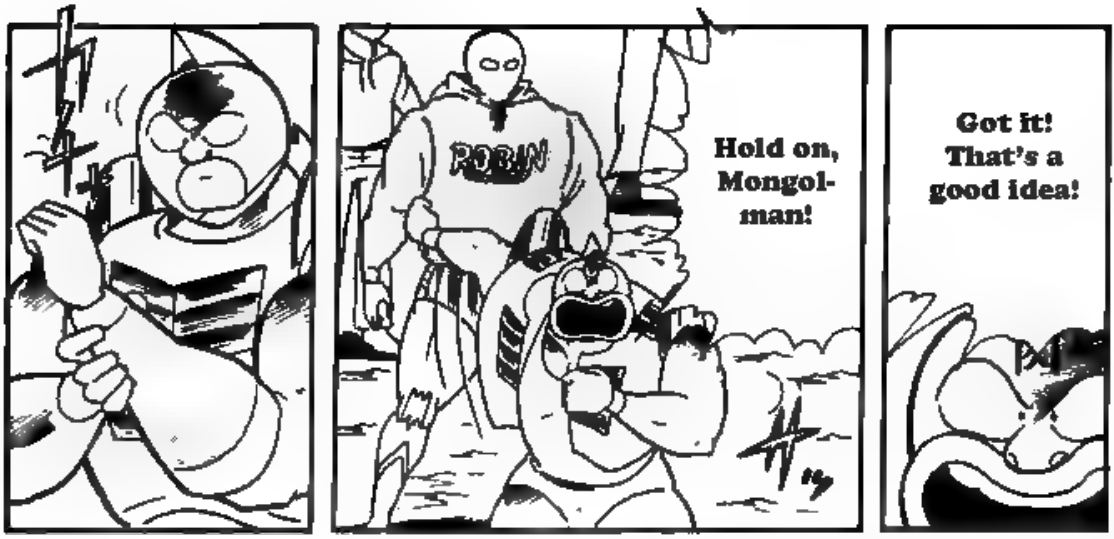
Nobody will try to stop you.
ROBIN
That's Robin Mask's voice!



This armor is made of steel. If you get pulled up by Neptuneman's magnetic storm, you should be able to make it on time!

Isn't that your armor!?

You might make it in time if you wear this!

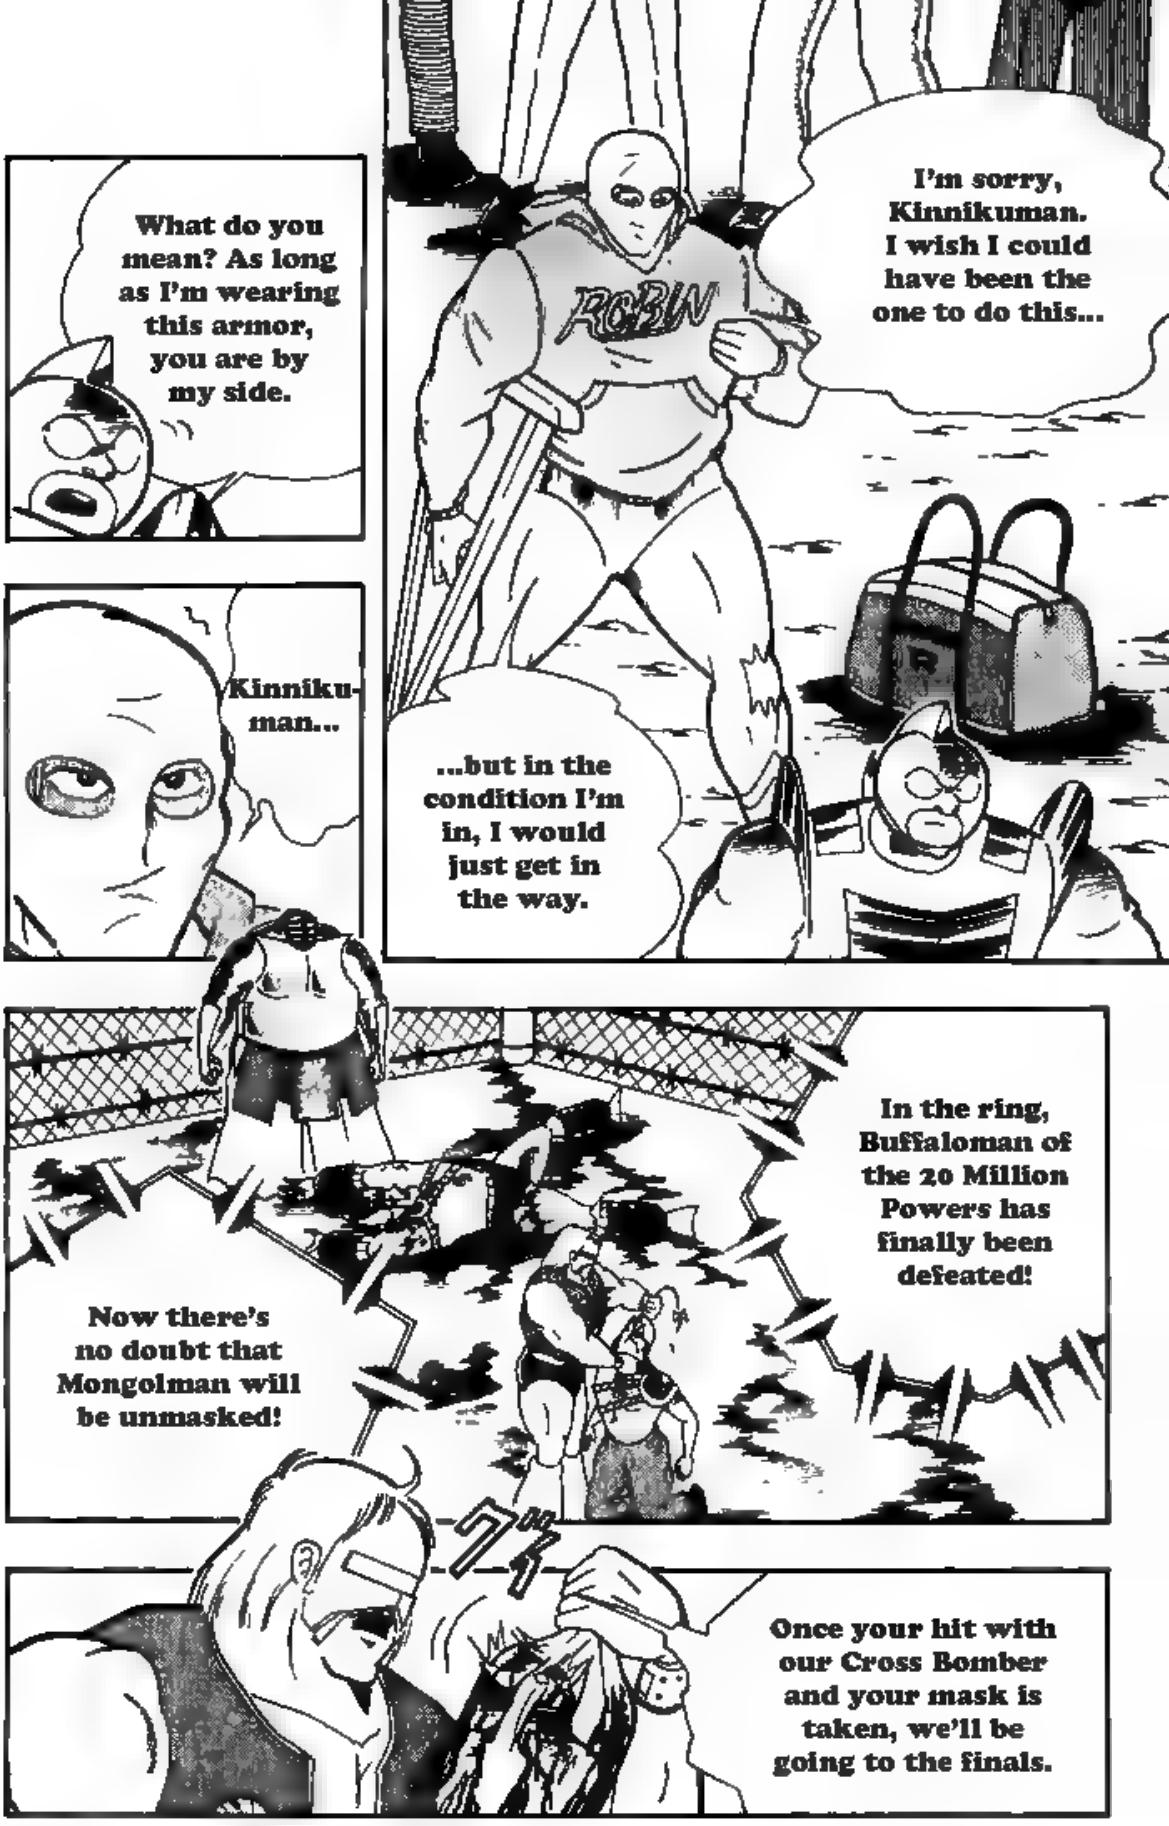


ROBIN
Hold on, Mongol-man!
Got it! That's a good idea!

Now I'll save you!

Dream Chojin Tag Arc 43

Completion of the Mask Hunt!?



I'm sorry, Kinnikuman. I wish I could have been the one to do this...
ROBIN
What do you mean? As long as I'm wearing this armor, you are by my side.
...but in the condition I'm in, I would just get in the way.
Kinniku-man...
In the ring, Buffaloman of the 20 Million Powers has finally been defeated!
Now there's no doubt that Mongolman will be unmasked!
Once your hit with our Cross Bomber and your mask is taken, we'll be going to the finals.

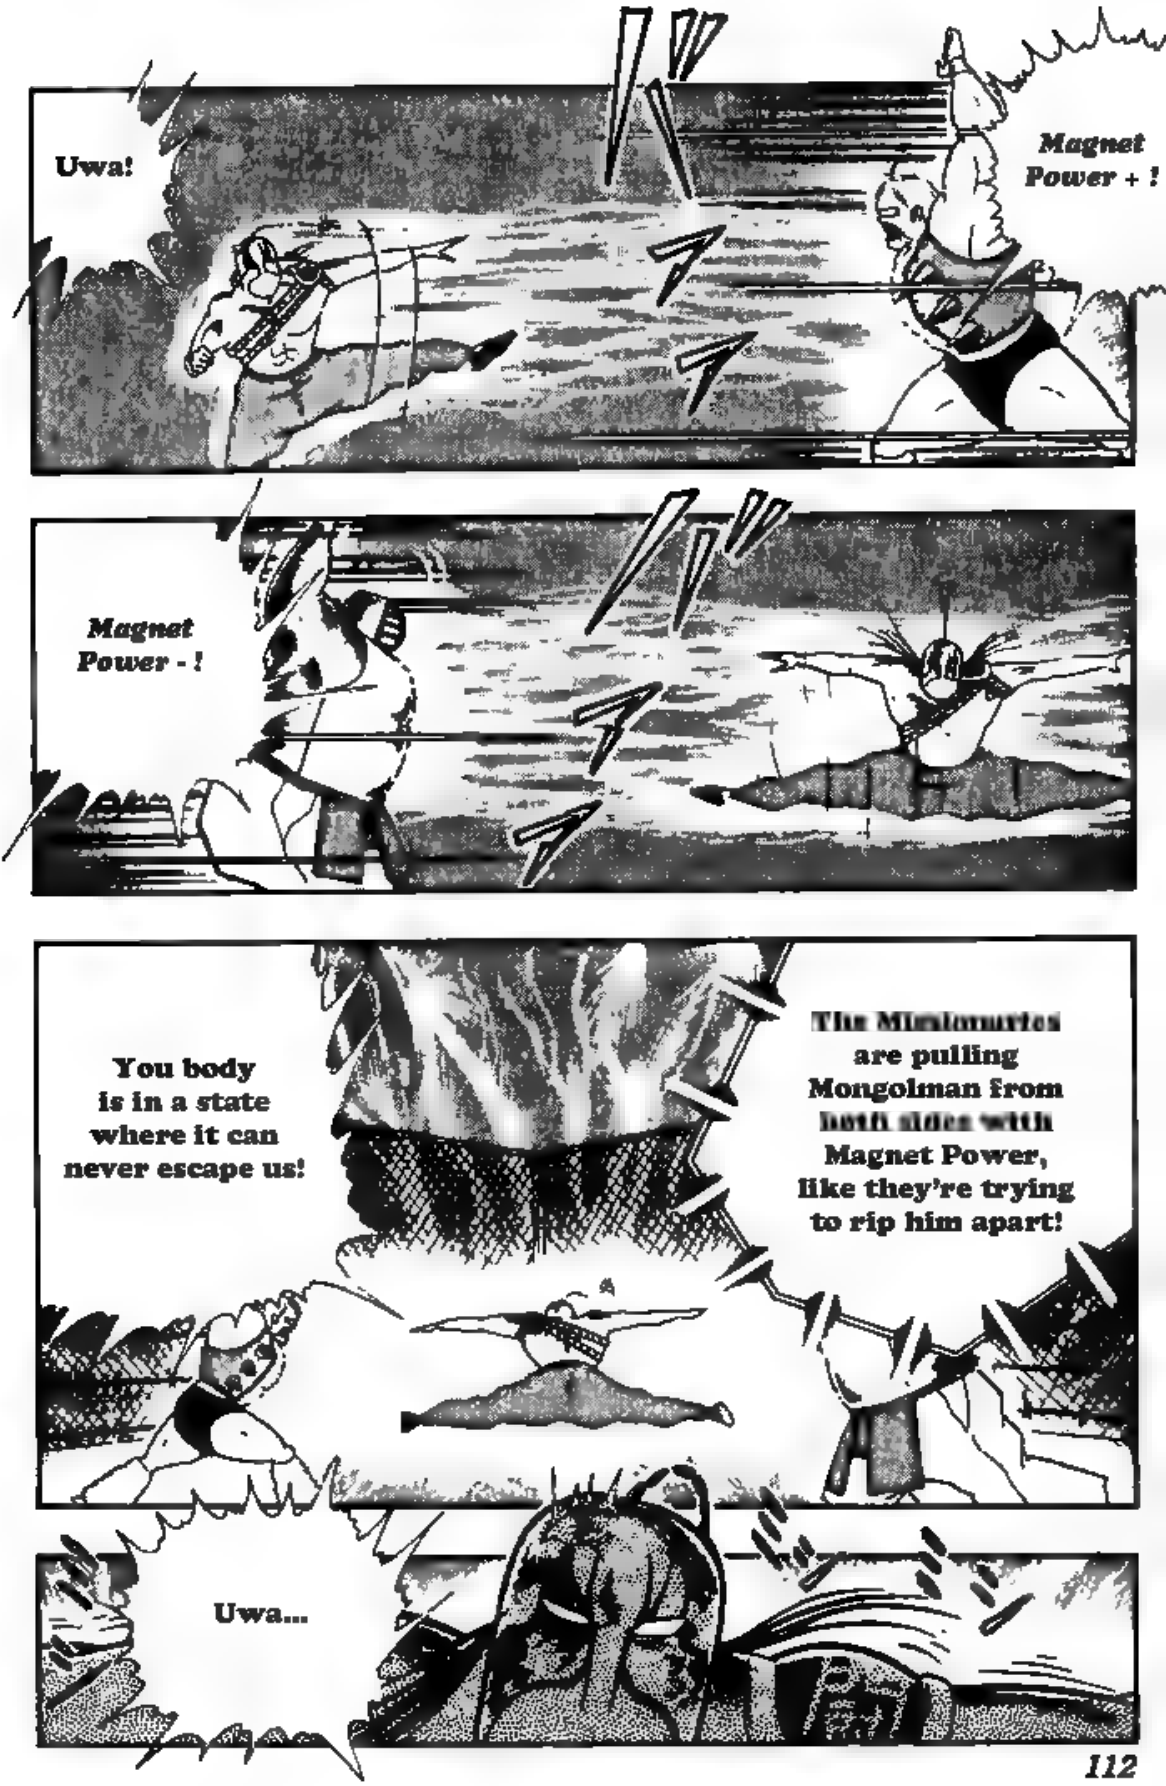
Geh!
As you say...
Budo, prepare the Cross Bomber!
Buffaloman is watching over me in both life and death!
My life should have ended already! I'm being carried by Buffaloman's soul!

So my life...
Will not be...
...taken that easily!
Mongolman has struck back with an Enzuigiri!
I need to get Buffaloman to a doctor, quickly...
Lord Neptuneman!
Maybe I don't have to come to his rescue! He can still do this!

Hold on, I'll deal with him...
How dare you do that to Lord Neptune-man!?
Magnet Power!
Uwa!
Double Leg Suplex!

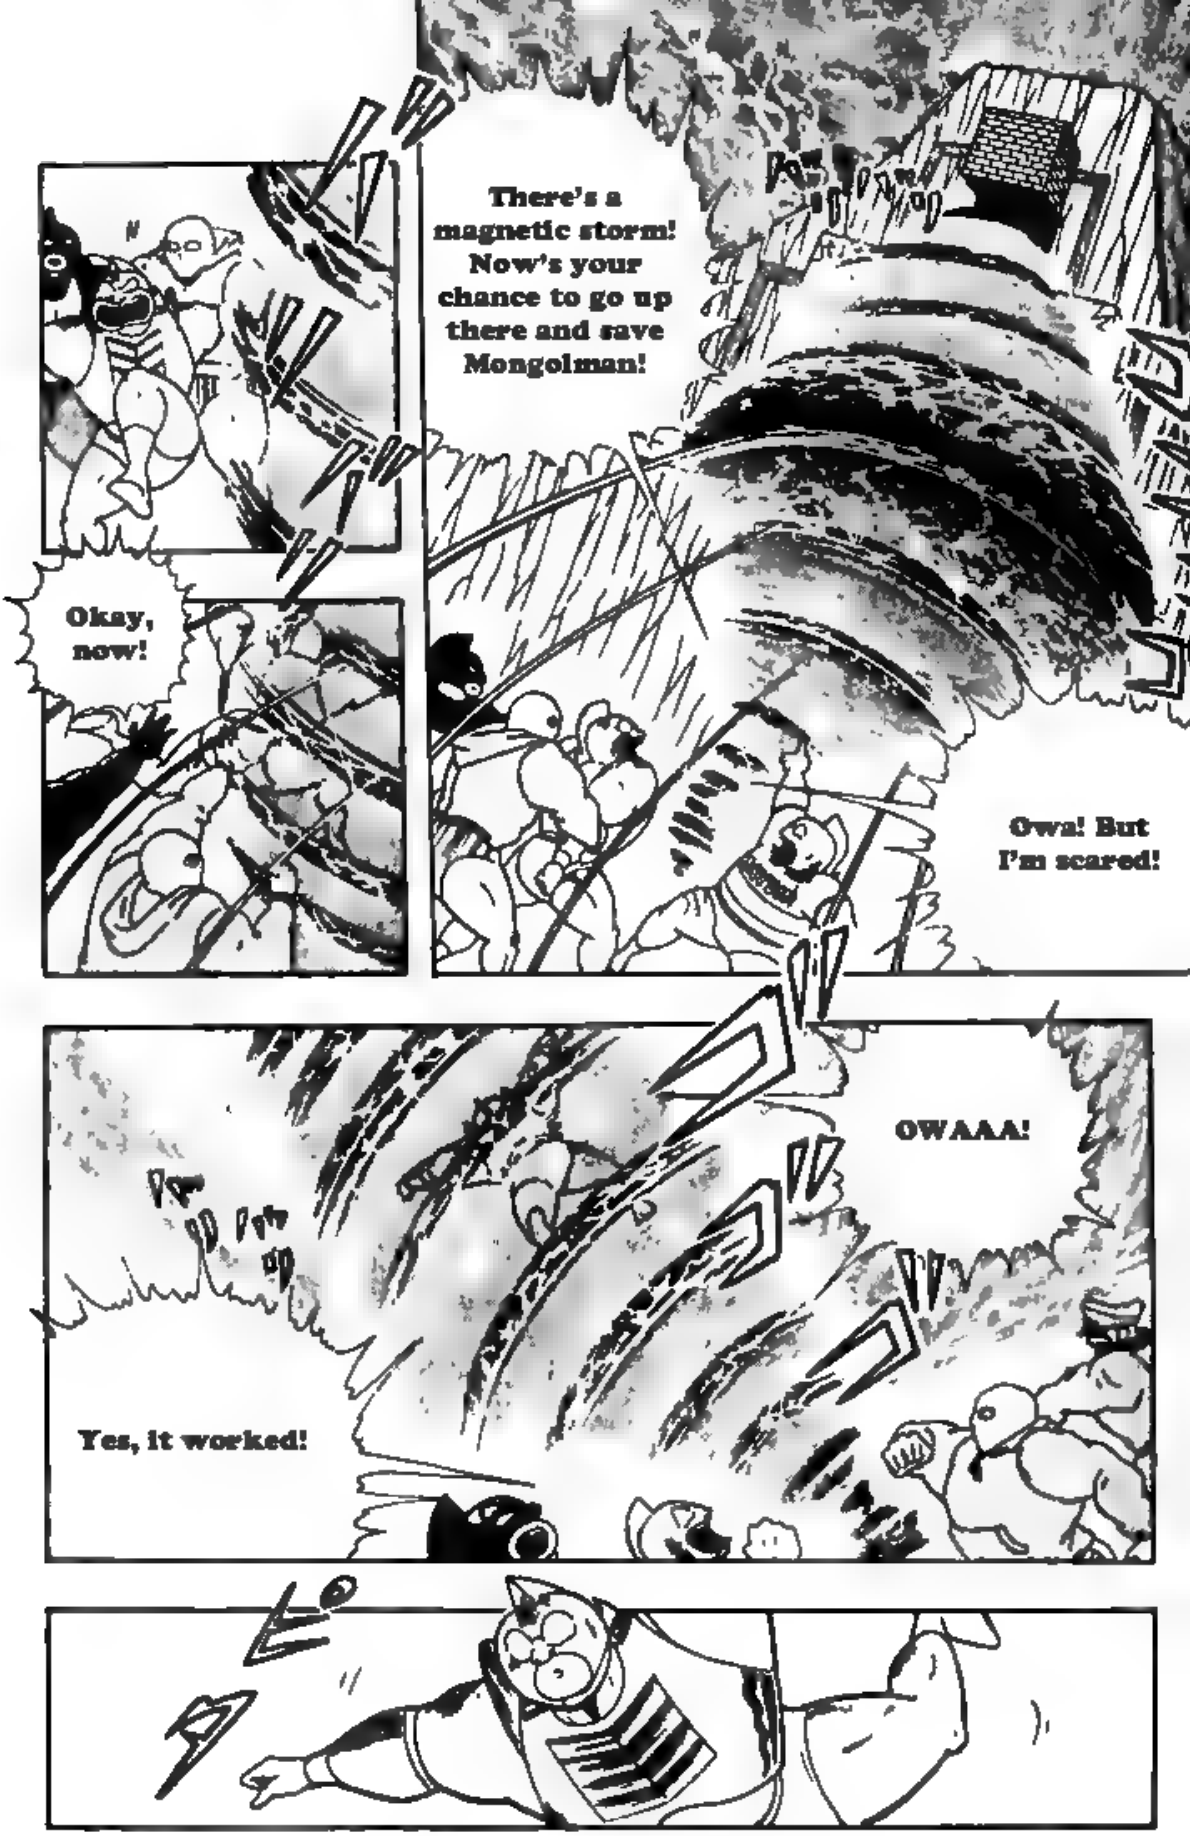
Just like earlier, Neptuneman pulled Mongolman with the Magnet Power, even thought the Iron Sweat is gone!
And yet this is just like the Longhorn Train Destoryer earlier... How could he be pulling a body made of flash without the Iron Sweat!?
Why!? Magnet Power should only work on things like iron or metal, like the Iron Sweat...

Anything our Magnet Power hits will be filled with magnetism!
Since you've been fighting so long within our magnetic storm, your body has absorbed quite a bit of magnetism!
!?
The answer is simple: you've been fighitng us too long!
By body is full of Magnetism!?
So then....
Hahahaha, if you believe it or not, your body won't go back to normal now that it's filled with magnetism!
I refuse to believe that...!

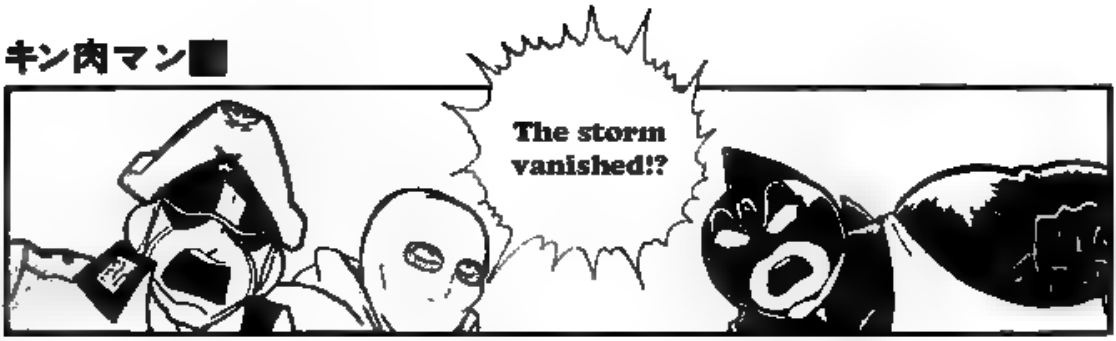


Uwa!
Magnet Power + !
Magnet Power - !
You body is in a state where it can never escape us!
The Minimurtes are pulling Mongolman from both sides with Magnet Power, like they're trying to rip him apart!
Uwa...

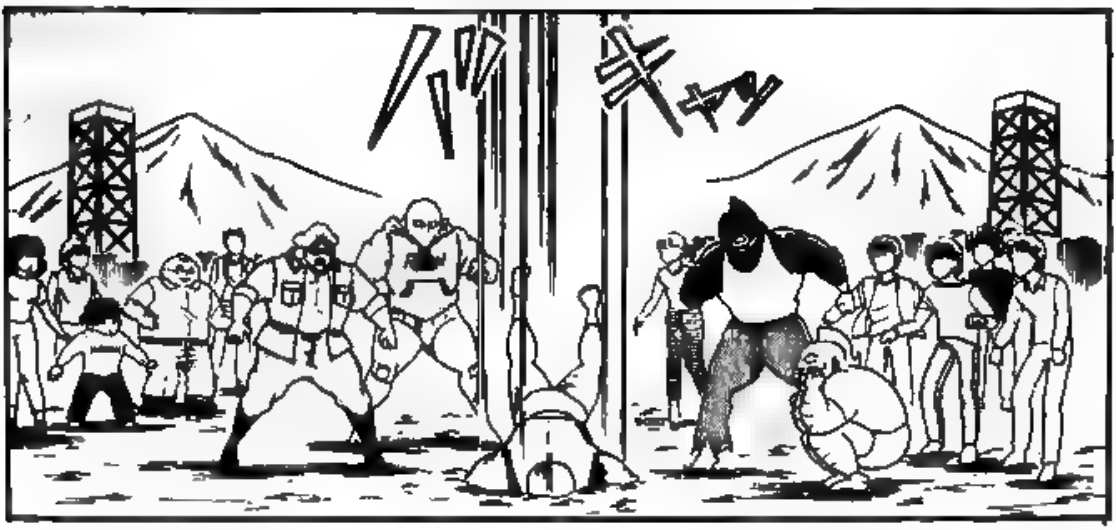
An incredible amount of magnetism is filling up Tournament Mountain!
Uwa!
Kyaa!
Ah.
It's not just in the box, either! Magnetism is flooding outside the ring!
Uwa! My spare wig!



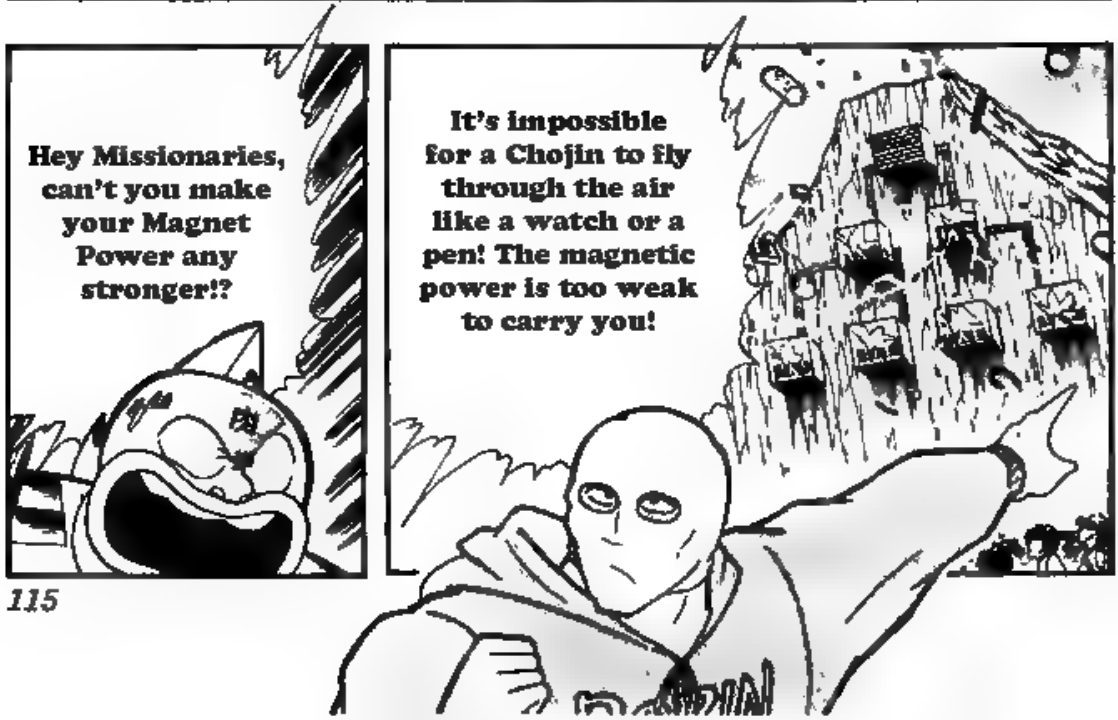
There's a magnetic storm! Now's your chance to go up there and save Mongolman!
Okay, now!
Owa! But I'm scared!
OWAAA!
Yes, it worked!



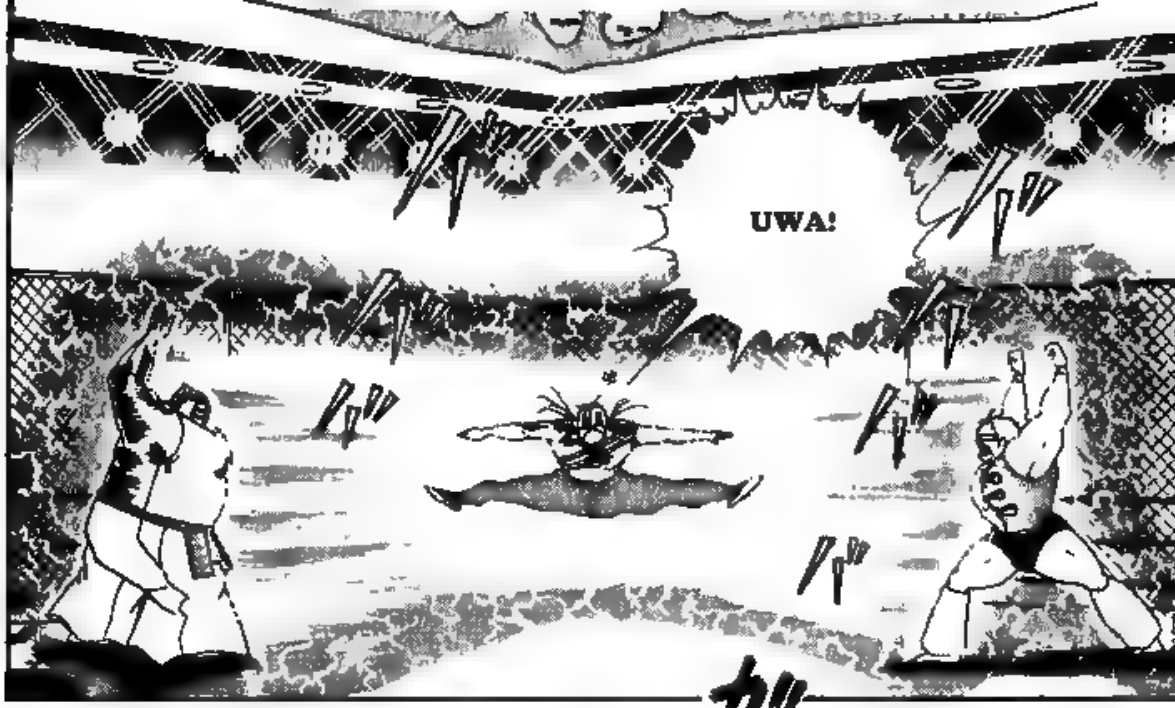
The storm vanished!?



The storm was there, but but it all disappeared so suddenly before I could get up!
What happened!?

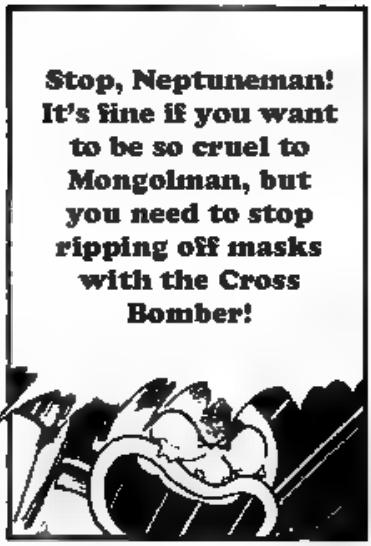


Hey Missionaries, can't you make your Magnet Power any stronger!?
It's impossible for a Chojin to fly through the air like a watch or a pen! The magnetic power is too weak to carry you!

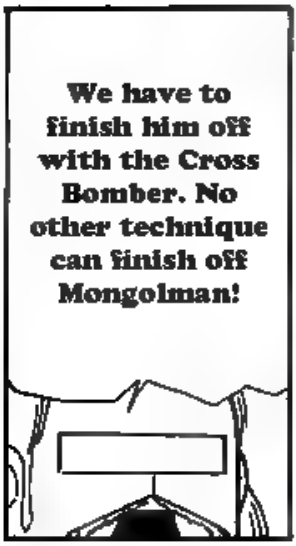


UWA!

Alright, Bndo. That's enough.

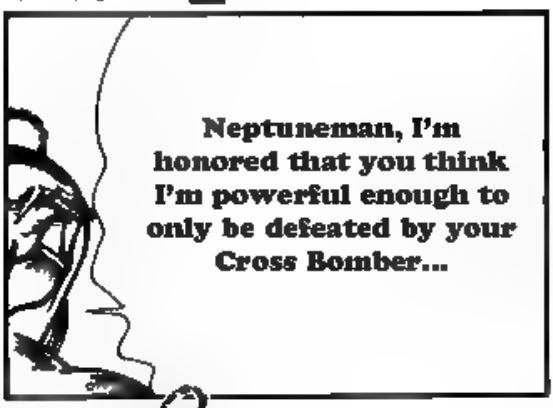


Stop, Neptuneman! It's fine if you want to be so cruel to Mongolman, but you need to stop ripping off masks with the Cross Bomber!

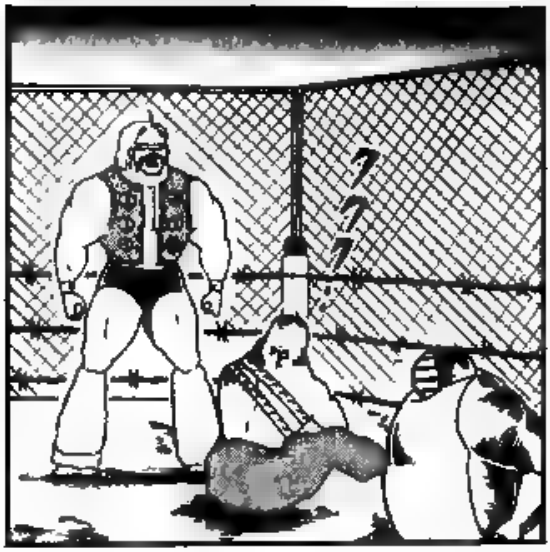


We have to finish him off with the Cross Bomber. No other technique can finish off Mongolman!

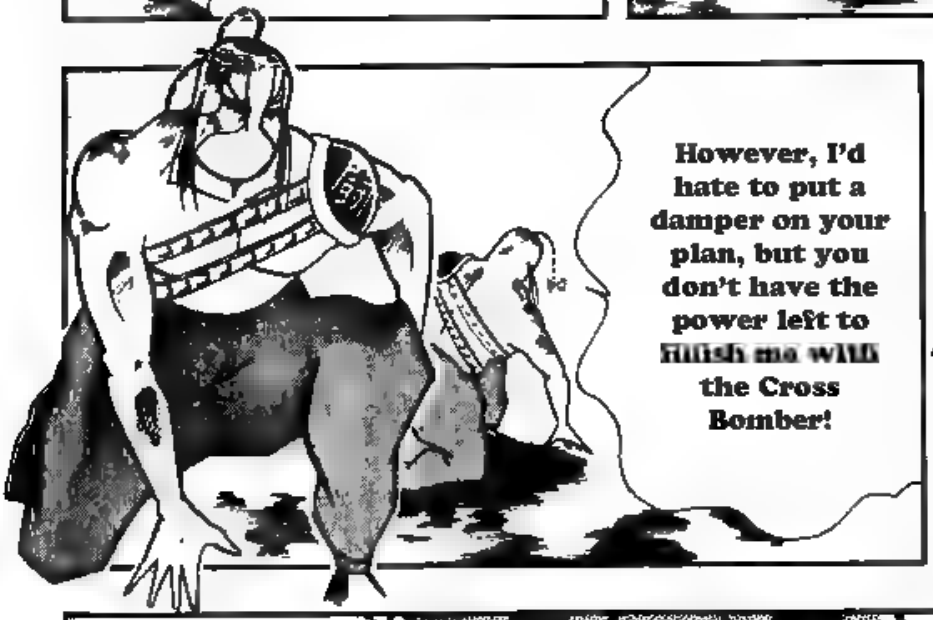
Why!? We had him pinned down! Now he'll only run away again!



Neptuneman, I'm honored that you think I'm powerful enough to only be defeated by your Cross Bomber...



フフフ

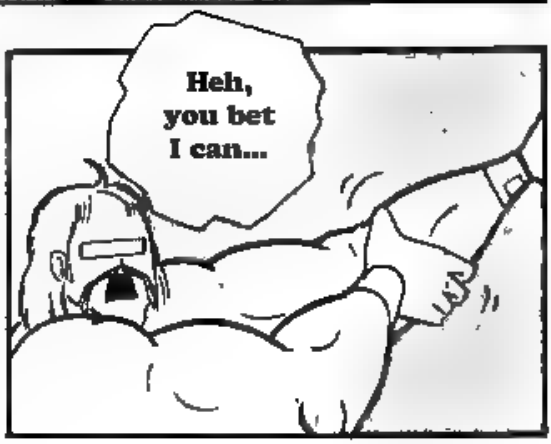


However, I'd hate to put a damper on your plan, but you don't have the power left to finish me with the Cross Bomber!

Mongol-man!

That's the feeling I have... Can you really muster a Cross Bomber strong enough to finish me!?

What are you doing, Mongolman!?



Heh, you bet I can...

I'll take the Cross Bomber head on and let the Missionaries go to the finals. I think this will help Kinnikuman, too...
Don't be angry, Buffaloman. Even though you've been through so much to save me, my body is filled with magnetism, so I don't really have any way to win...
Alright, come at me, Neptune-man!
Right... I'm doing this for Kinnikuman...
Hold on, Kinnikuman! Look at his eyes... don't you feel like you've seen them before somewhere?
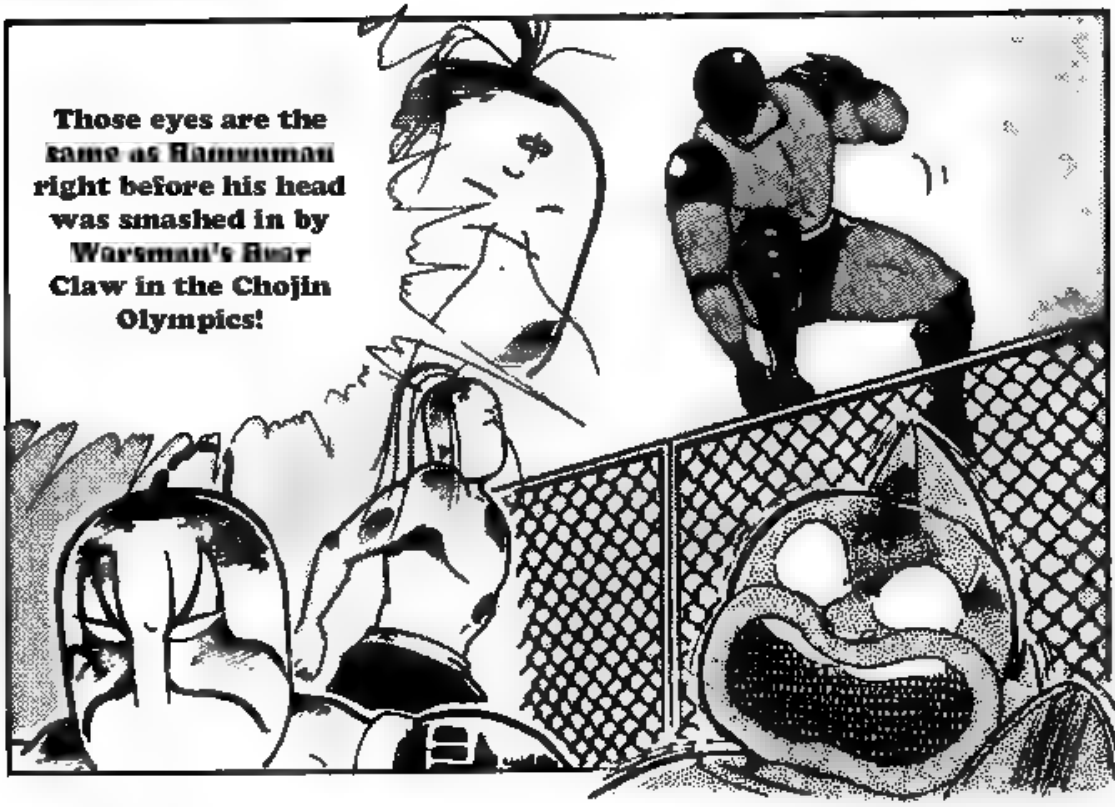
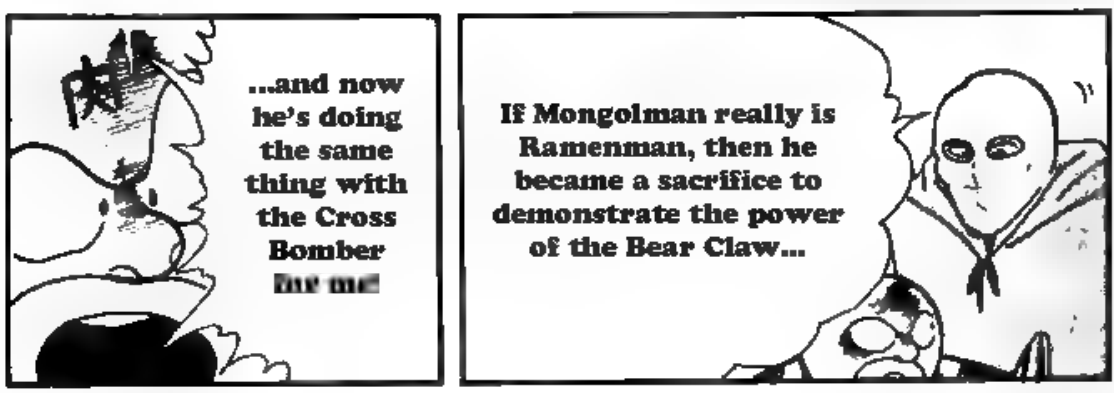
Stop and think about this, Mongol-man! You have pleanty of time!

Ah!
Eyes...?



Those eyes are the same as Ramenman right before his head was smashed in by Warsman's Bear Claw in the Chojin Olympics!



...and now he's doing the same thing with the Cross Bomber for me!
If Mongolman really is Ramenman, then he became a sacrifice to demonstrate the power of the Bear Claw...

Mongolman, or should I say Ramenman, this time we'll make you show your true face!
A violent storm is brewing between Neptuneman and Budo's arms!

If I can get up this, then I can get to Mongolman!
Now, let go!
There it is! A magnetic storm 1000x times more powerful than earlier!
Mongolman, I'm going to save you!

DIE!
There's Neptuneman's fourth Cross Bomber!
Uwahahaha! You're a bit too late!
Kin-niku-man!
Stop the Cross Bomber!
Burning Inner Strength!
.....

Kinnikuman's brave efforts were in vain, as Mongolman's mask is ripped off!

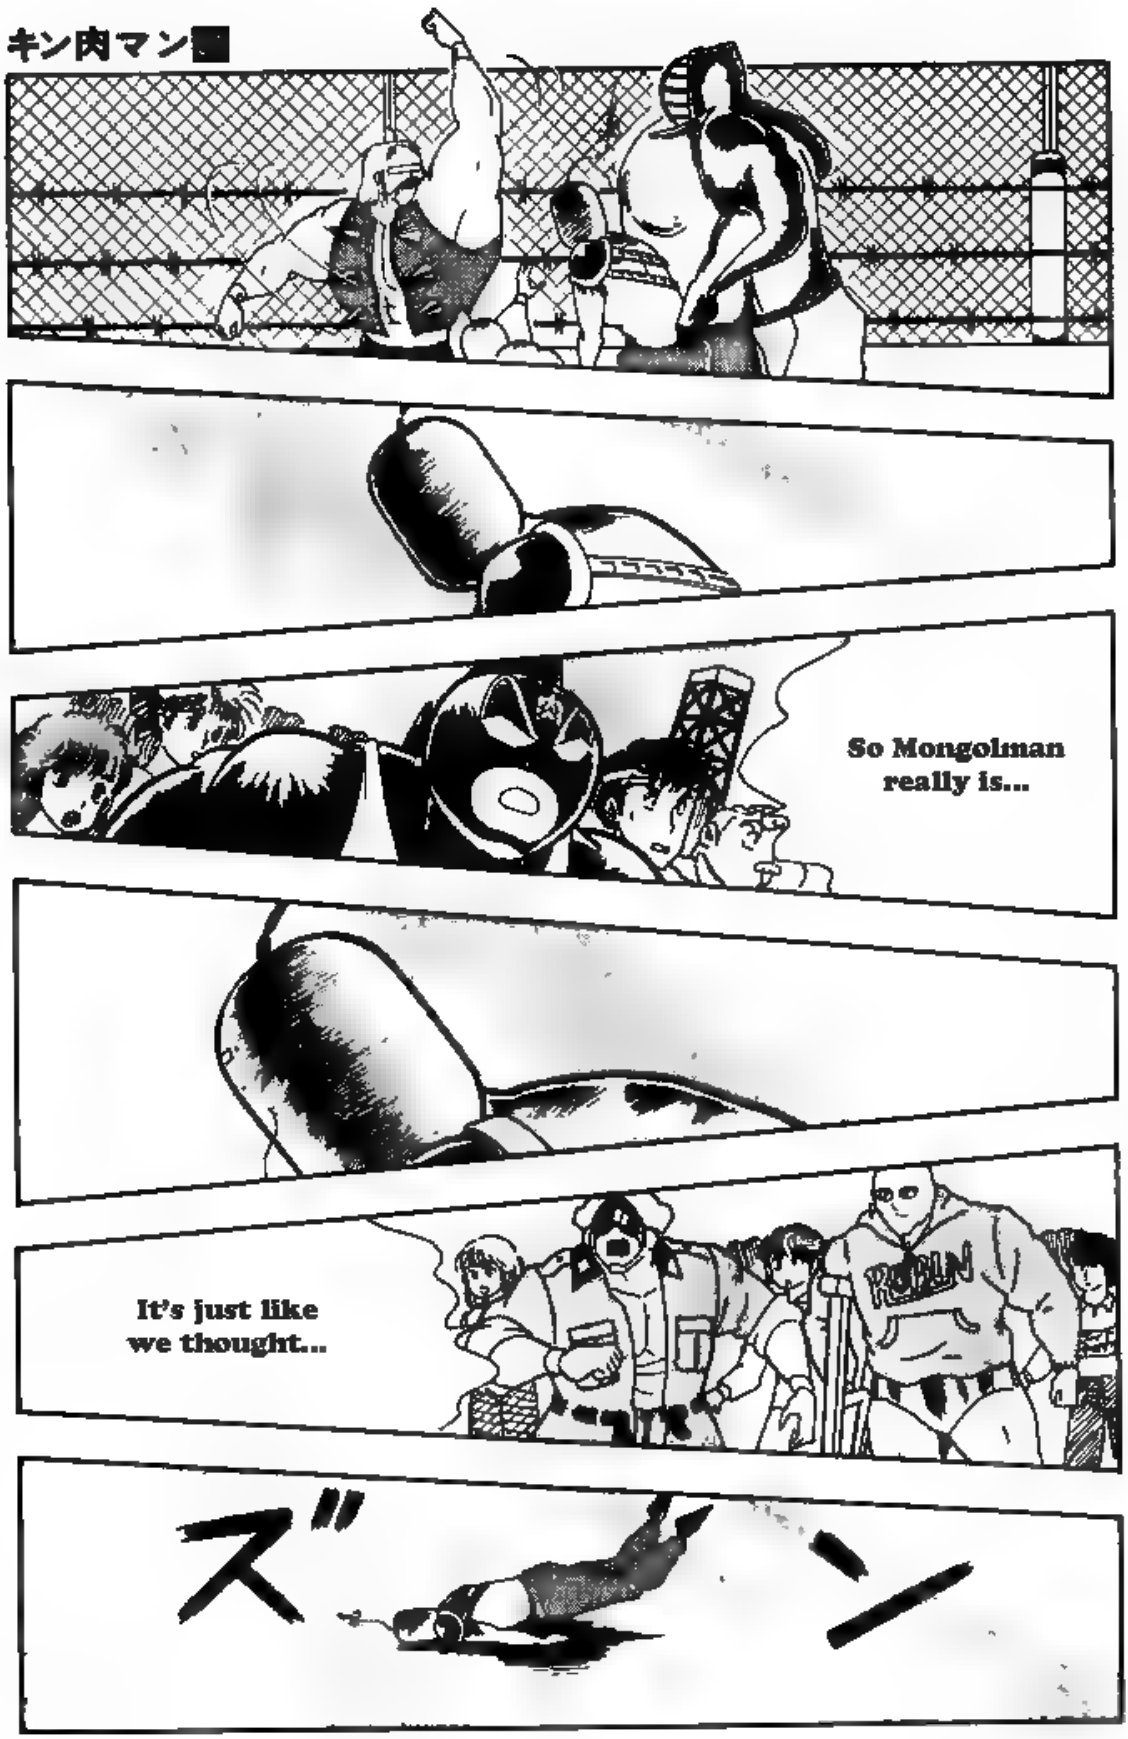
The Reason Behind the Mask!



So Mongolman really is...
It's just like we thought...
ROBIN

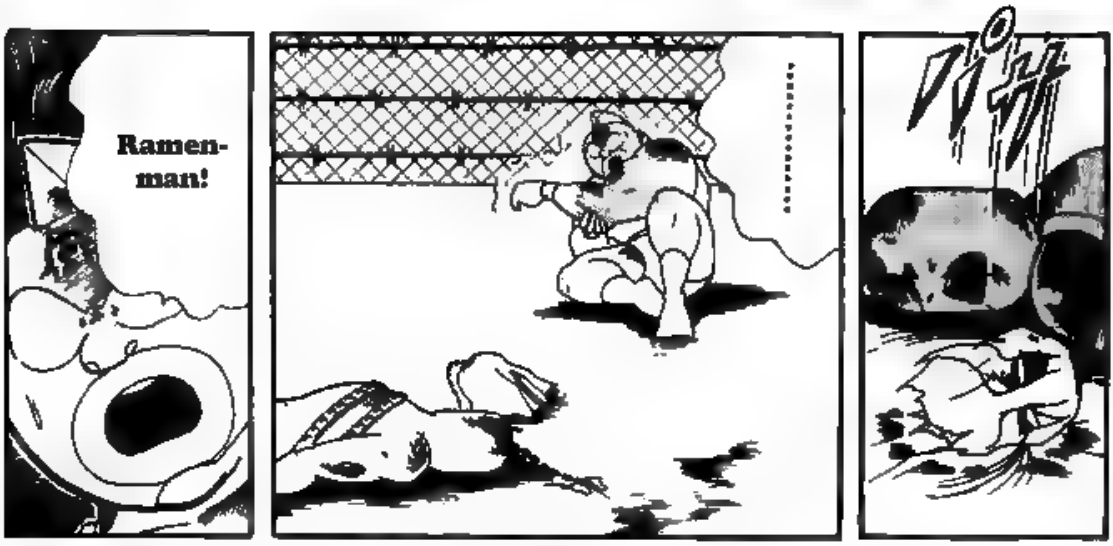
It was Ramenman!



Ramen-man!

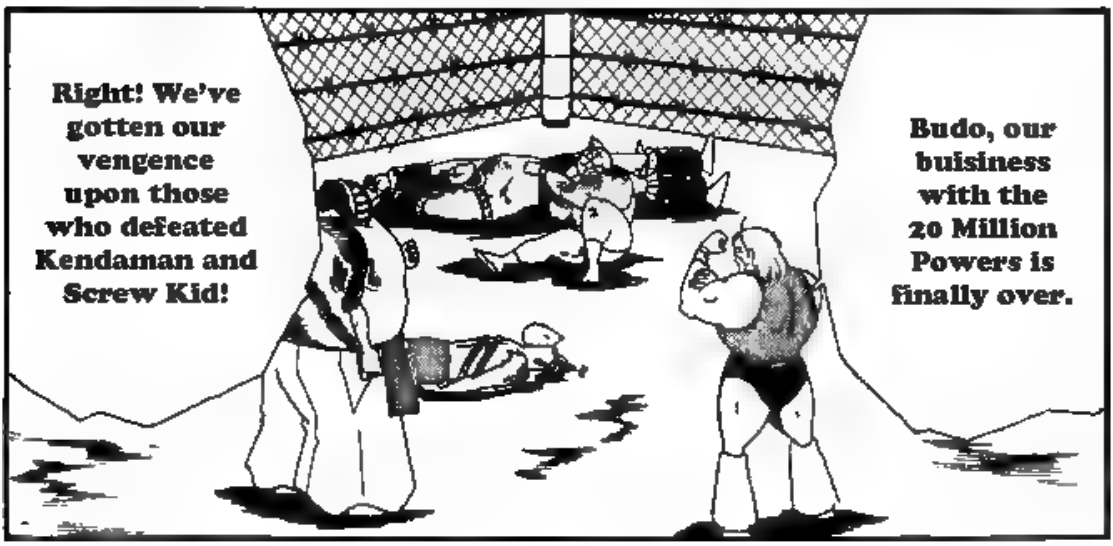
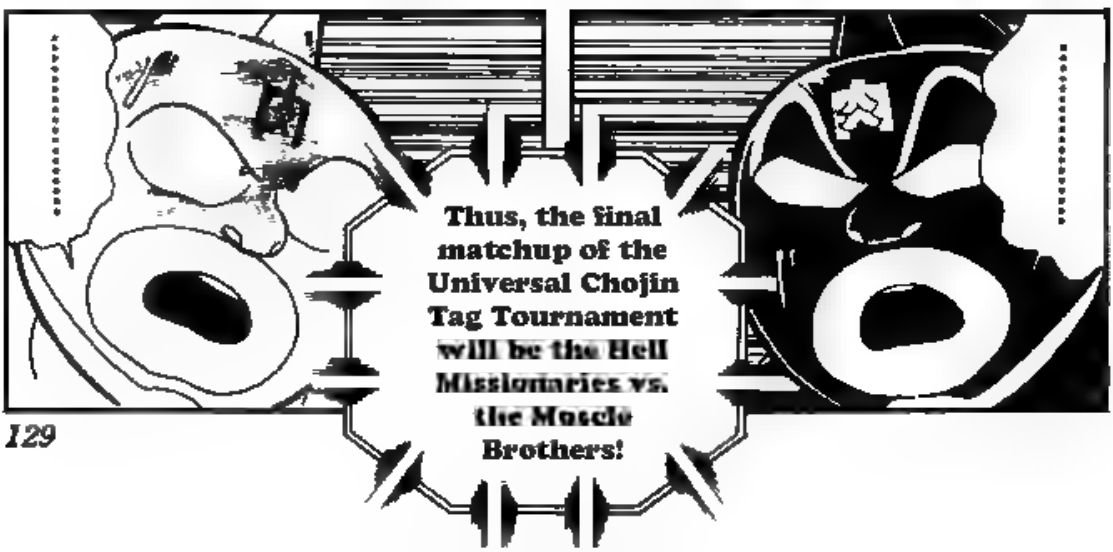
ピヨピヨ

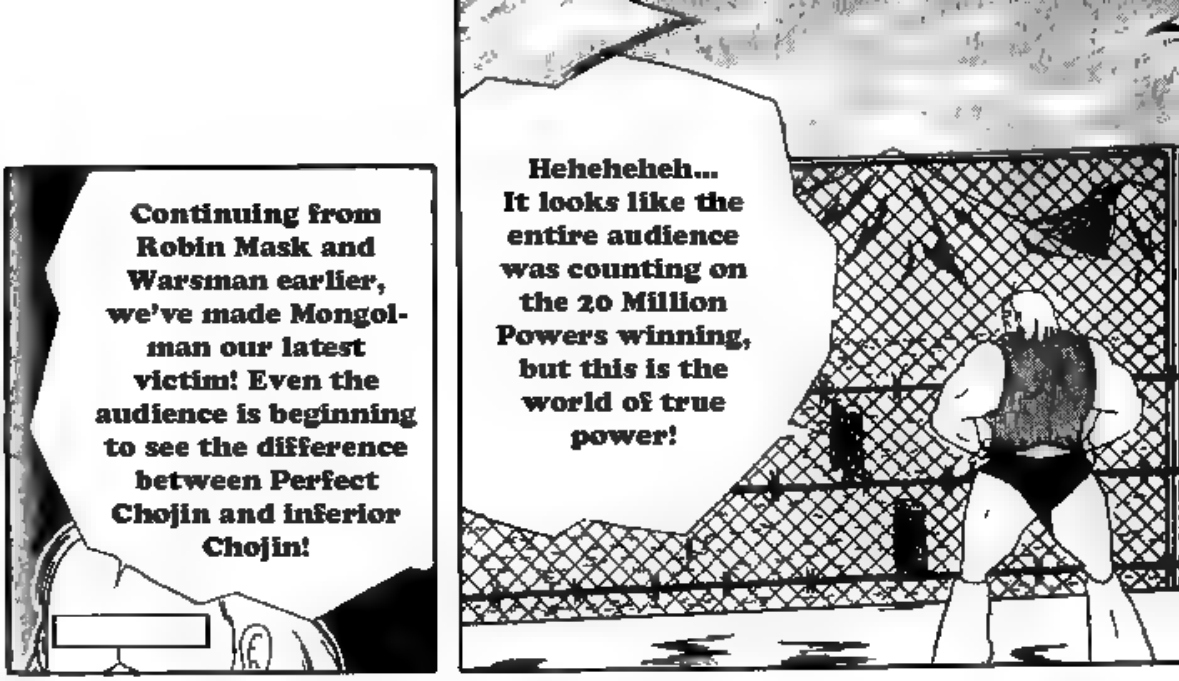


Right! We've gotten our vengence upon those who defeated Kendaman and Screw Kid!
Budo, our buisiness with the 20 Million Powers is finally over.

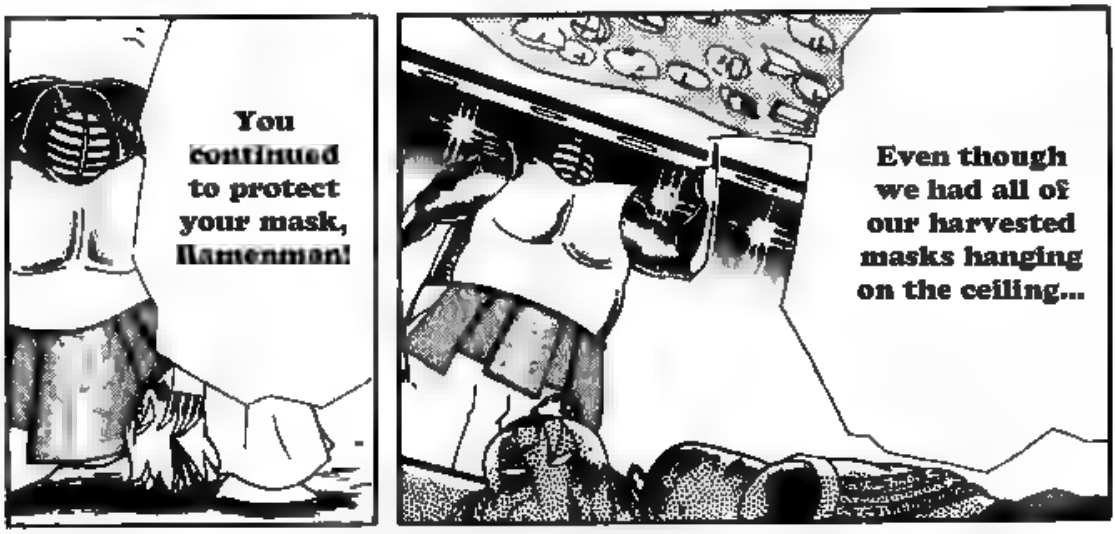
NUMBER ONE!
The moment that the final member of the 20 Million Powers, Mongolman, had his mask taken, the Hell Missionaries have moved to the finals!



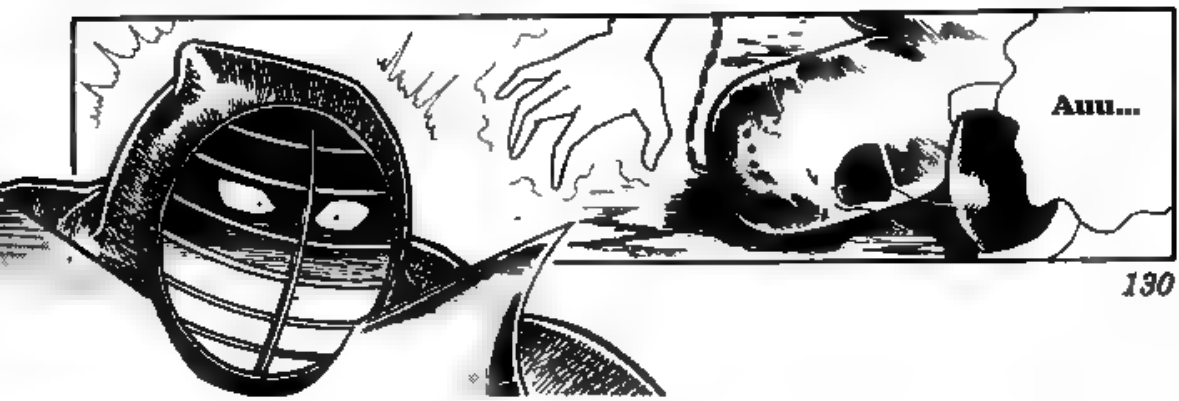
.....
Thus, the final matchup of the Universal Chojin Tag Tournament will be the Hell Missionaries vs. the Muscle Brothers!
.....



Continuing from Robin Mask and Warsman earlier, we've made Mongol-man our latest victim! Even the audience is beginning to see the difference between Perfect Chojin and inferior Chojin!
Heheheheh... It looks like the entire audience was counting on the 20 Million Powers winning, but this is the world of true power!



You continued to protect your mask, Ramenman!
Even though we had all of our harvested masks hanging on the ceiling...

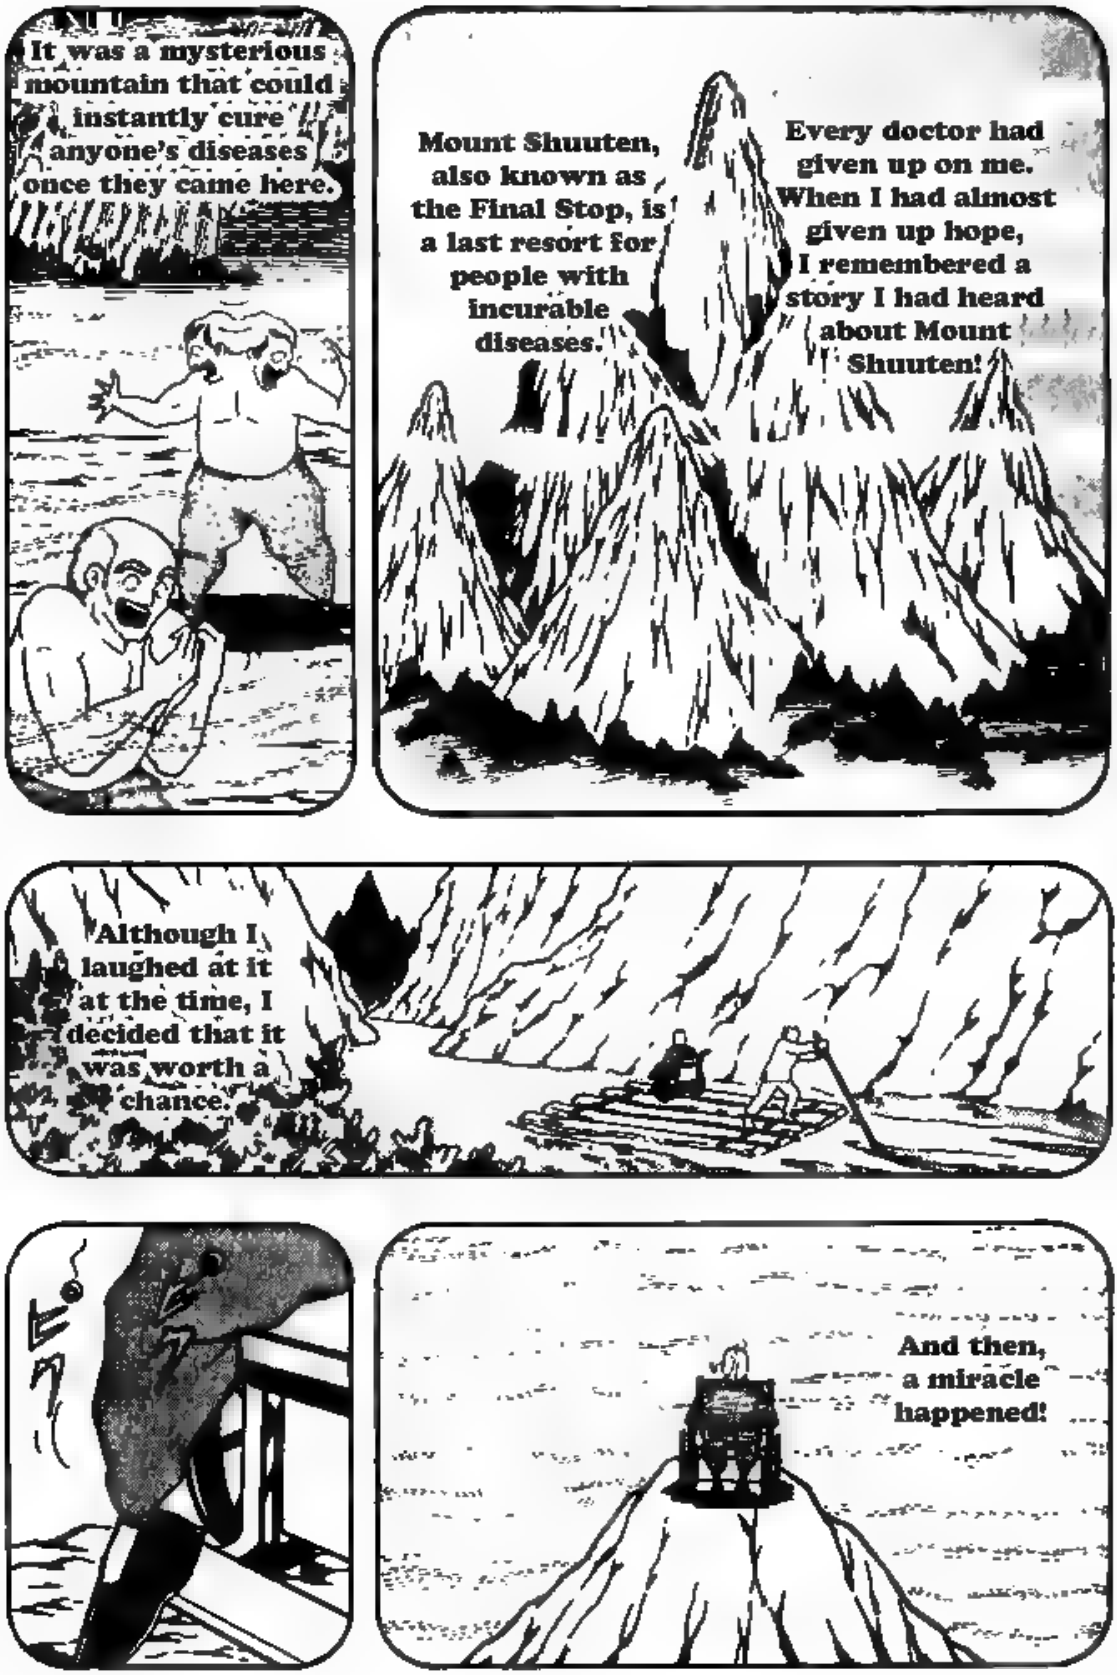


Auu...

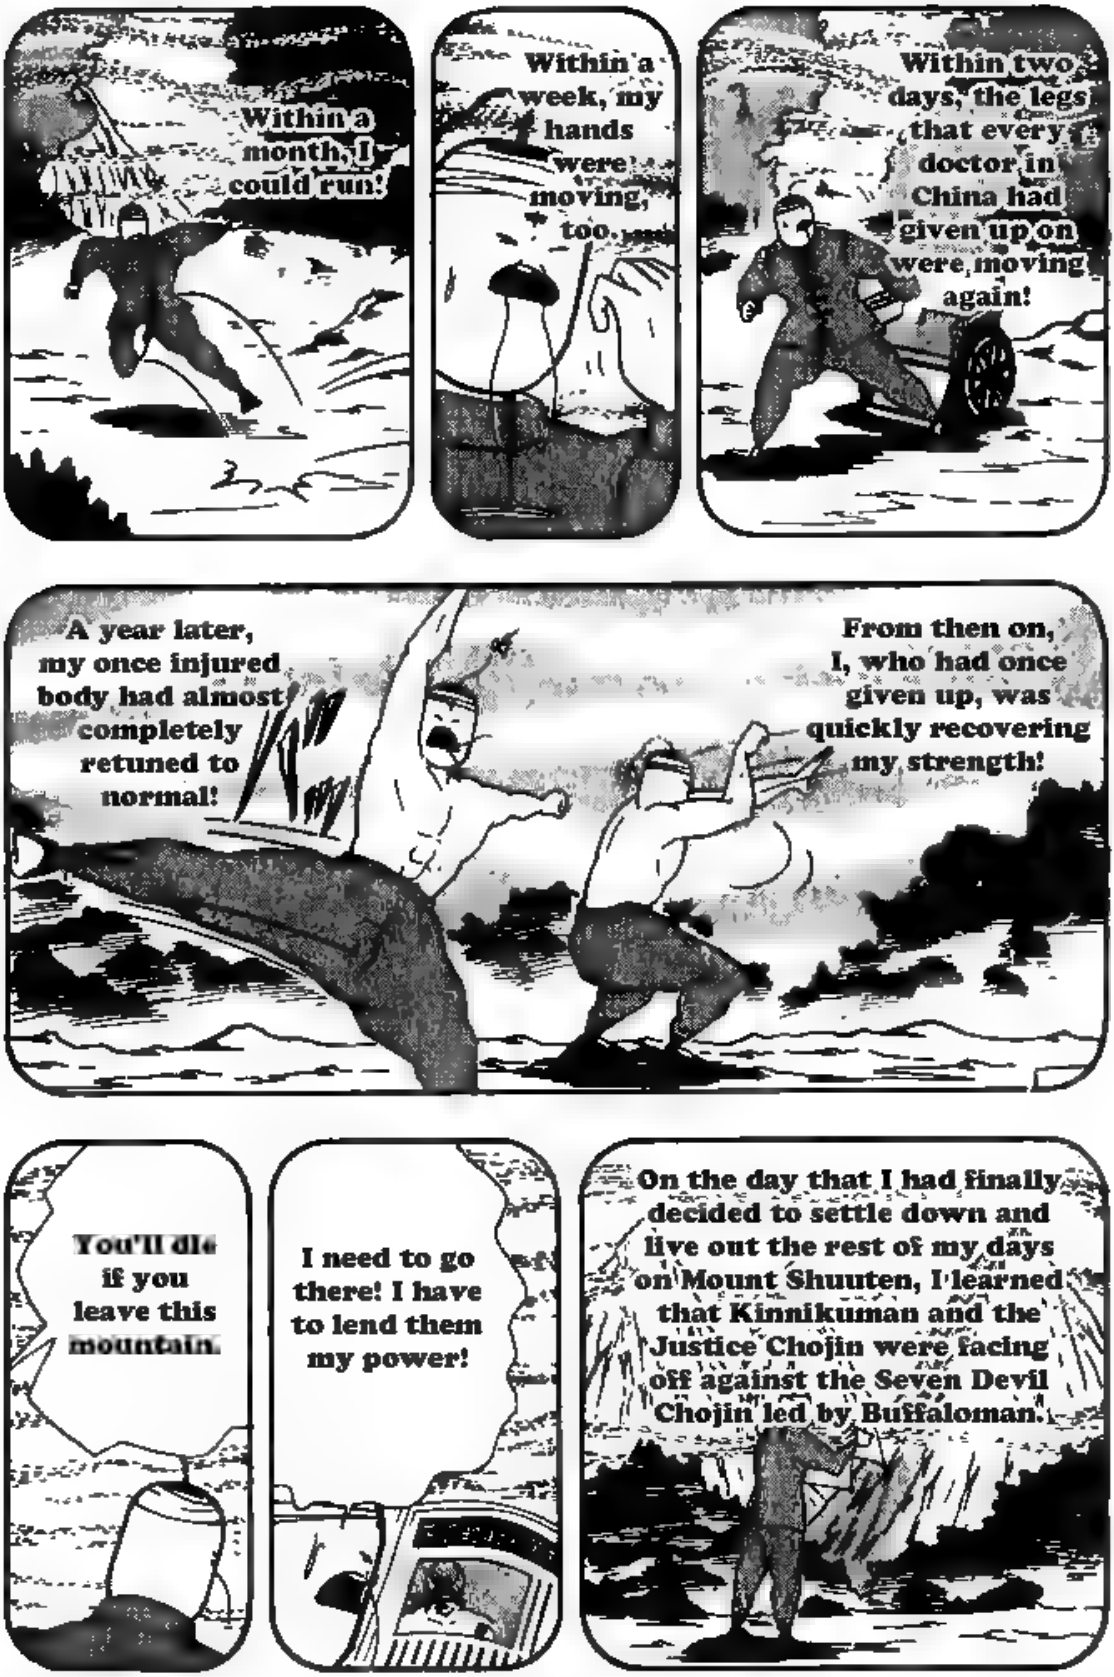
What!?
Lord Neptuneman, Ramenman is still moving!
Auu...

Right, he hasn't told us why he was wearing this mask...
Your mask!? Do you want your mask!?
Auu...
Ramen-man, are you trying to tell us some-thing!?
Ah!
Hey, Perfect Chojin, let me borrow this.
Ramenman, you still haven't recovered from Warsman's Bear Claw back then...
Alright! Let's hear what the loser dog has to say about it!
You...

Although your body seemed to be recovered from Warsman's attack three years ago, why have you continued wearing a mask and fighting as Mongolman!?
I can finally show my true face...
There was a reason why I couldn't...
I wanted to show myself as Ramenman...
It all started with the injury I took from Warsman three years ago during the Chojin Olympics...
Even in China, which is known for it's medicine, there wasn't a single doctor who was able to make a vegetable Chojin's body move again...
My body would be unable to ever get into the ring again, so I began a journey across my homeland of China to treat these wounds...



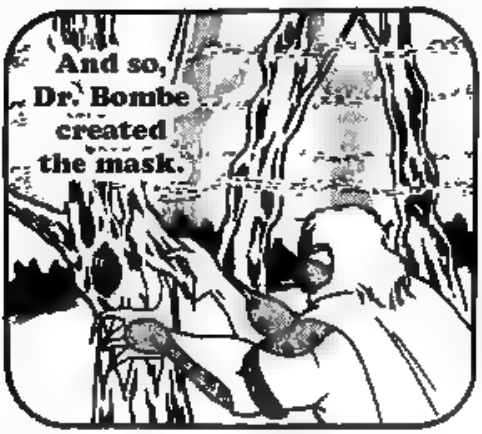
It was a mysterious mountain that could instantly cure anyone's diseases once they came here.
Mount Shuuten, also known as the Final Stop, is a last resort for people with incurable diseases.
Every doctor had given up on me. When I had almost given up hope, I remembered a story I had heard about Mount Shuuten!
Although I laughed at it at the time, I decided that it was worth a chance.
And then, a miracle happened!



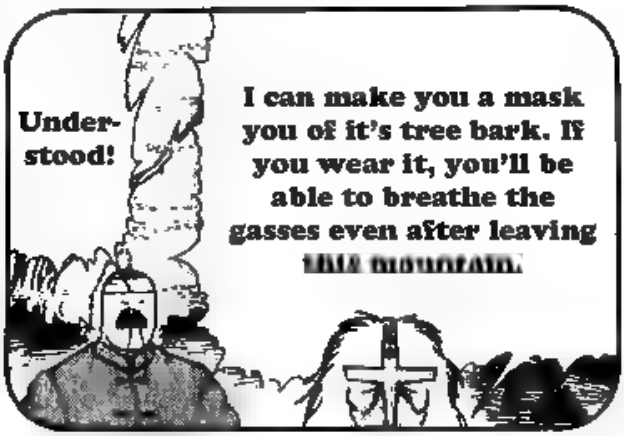
Within a month, I could run!
Within a week, my hands were moving, too.
Within two days, the legs that every doctor in China had given up on were moving again!
A year later, my once injured body had almost completely retuned to normal!
From then on, I, who had once given up, was quickly recovering my strength!
You'll die if you leave this mountain.
I need to go there! I have to lend them my power!
On the day that I had finally decided to settle down and live out the rest of my days on Mount Shuuten, I learned that Kinnikuman and the Justice Chojin were facing off against the Seven Devil Chojin led by Buffaloman.

If you leave the mountain, you will revert to your previous state from not breathing in the gasses.
You're only able to live a normal life on the mountain thanks to the special gasses that this mountain emits.
But I'm worried about my allies!
Right, so you need to help your allies... There was once a time when I burned of Justice like you... Alright, I'll help you!
Alright, I'll do it!
So you can help me leave this mountain and fight on the ground!?
I am Doctor Bombe, Chojin medical specialist! My hands have healed thousands of injured Chojin!
Who are you!?

It's produced by the "Reimei Trees" that grow in this area.
The myst on this mountain that healed your body...



And so, Dr. Bombe created the mask.



Under-stood!
I can make you a mask you of it's tree bark. If you wear it, you'll be able to breathe the gasses even after leaving this mountain.

And that's how the Mongol-man mask was created!

Ooh.

Thanks, Bombe! This will help me rescue Kinniku-man.
What a strange mask! Just by wearing it, I feel my power rushing back!
Are you happy, Ramenman? Now you can fight.
What a tragic masked Chojin...
All you have to do is wear that mask. If it ever comes off, you'll revert to being a vegetable.
ゴボゴボ

So that feeling I had that you were Hamemman every time I talked to you were right!

From that day forward, I was Mongolman, the Mongolian Chojin, who would often cross paths with you. Once as a tag team partner, once as a referee, and then again today as a rivel.

Forgetting something that important was stupid... You were so stupid...

However, with all of the fun I'd been having being able to fight again, I'd completely forgotten Dr. Bombe's words. Before I knew it, I was back to my old habits and sacrificed myself to show you the Cross Bomber, just like during the fight with Warsman three years ago...

How emotional! The whole audience is in tears as the secret of Mongolman's mask is revealed!

No, I won't let him turn back into a braindead vegetable ever again!
Hmph... That was an interesting story, but it doesn't have anything to do with us.
Well, my story is over. Neptuneman, please take my mask.
Uh.
Ramen-man!

How dare you do something like that...?

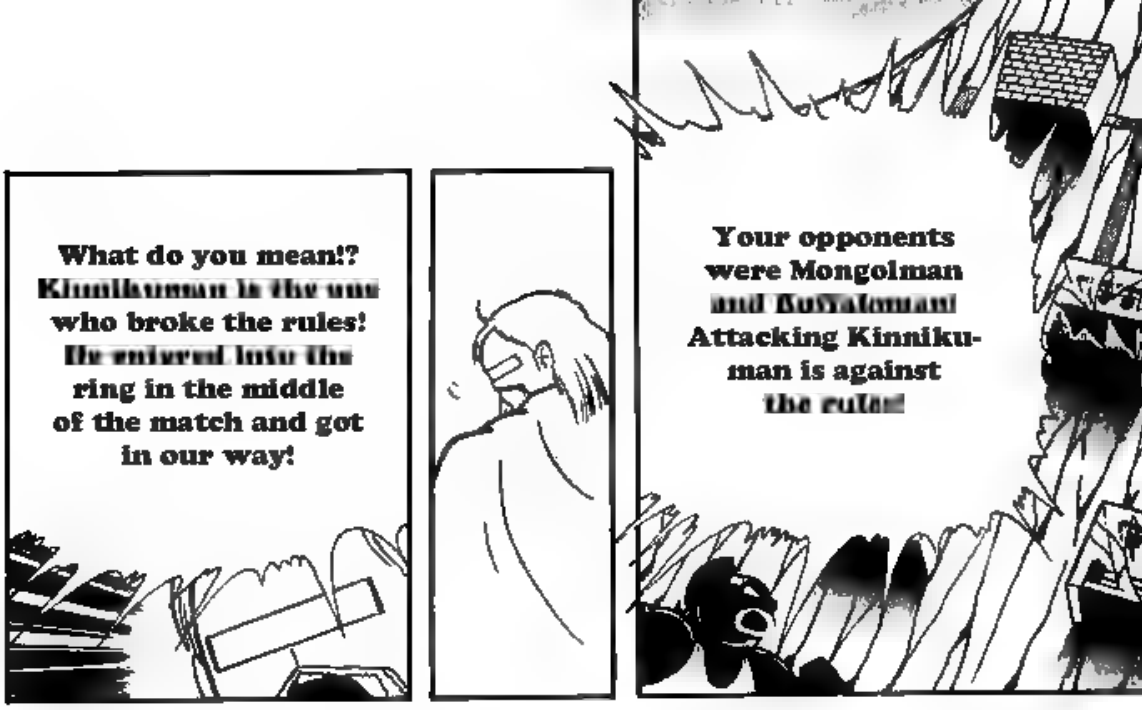
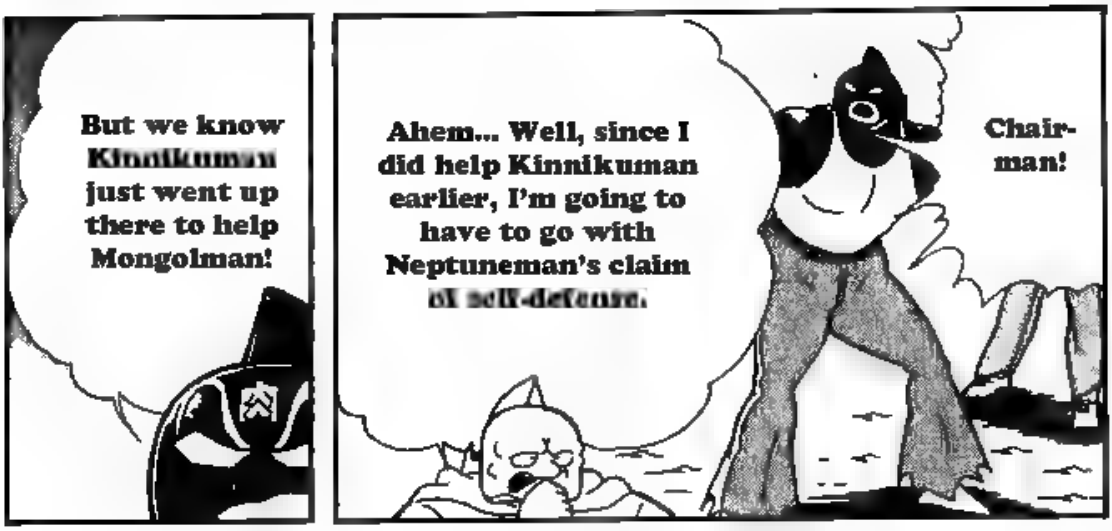
That's Suguru's left arm!
Eeh!?

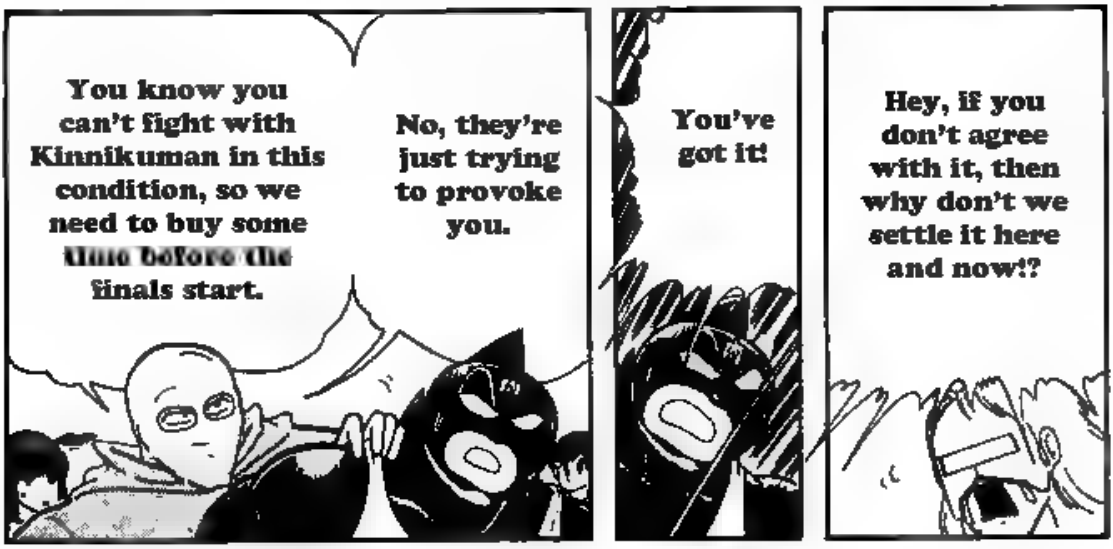
Owa!
It hurts!
It hurts!
What happened to him!?
Hehheheh, of course it does. You just lost your own arm!
Gyaaaaa!
No...! My left arm!
ドクドク
Owa!
Papa, mama, do something!
This is a grave situation: Kinnikuman has had his arm severed by the Cross Bomber!



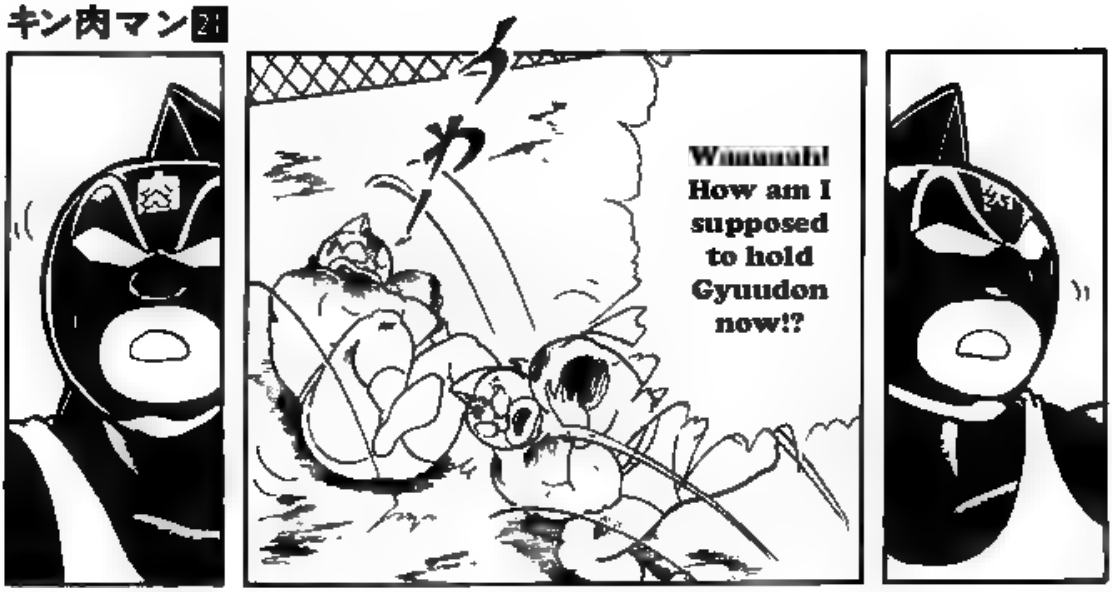
What do you mean!? Kinnikuman is the one who broke the rules! He entered into the ring in the middle of the match and got in our way!
Your opponents were Mongolman and Buffalomen! Attacking Kinnikuman is against the rules!



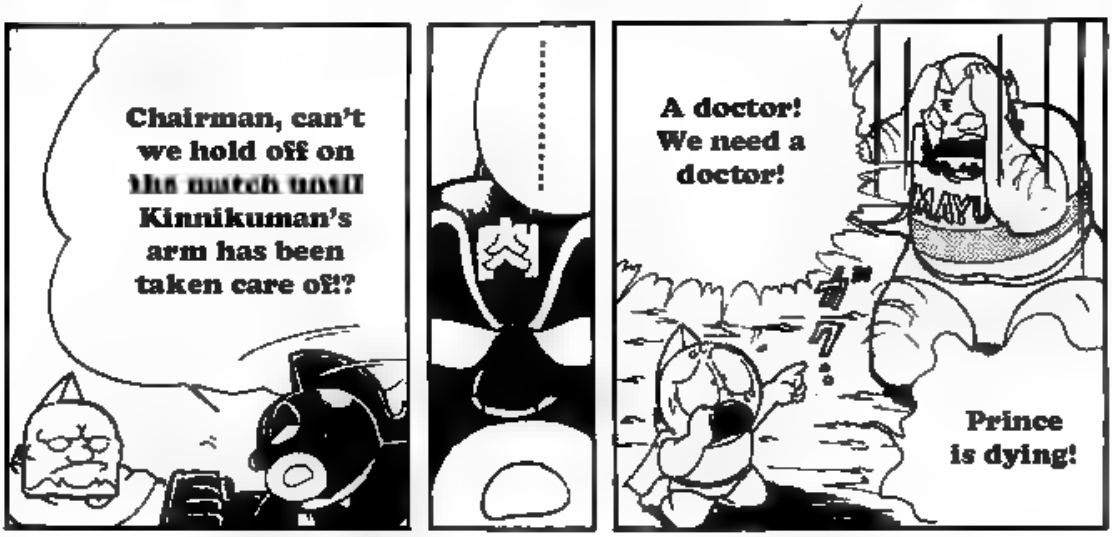
But we know Kinnikuman just went up there to help Mongolman!
Ahem... Well, since I did help Kinnikuman earlier, I'm going to have to go with Neptuneman's claim of self-defense.
Chair-man!



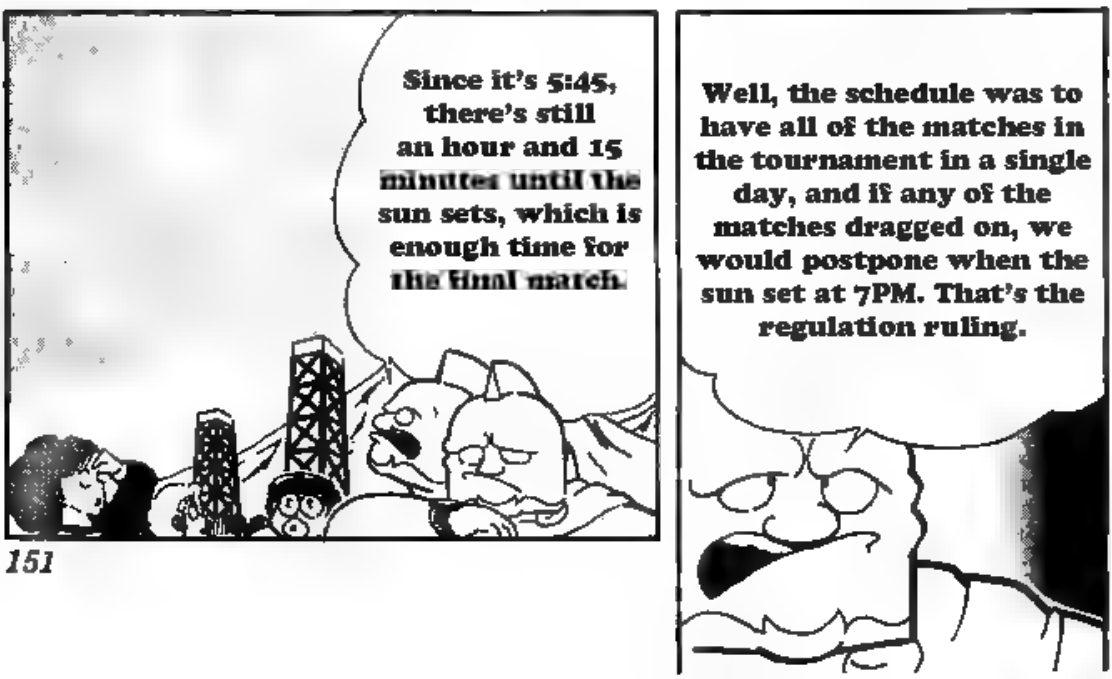
You know you can't fight with Kinnikuman in this condition, so we need to buy some time before the finals start.
No, they're just trying to provoke you.
You've got it!
Hey, if you don't agree with it, then why don't we settle it here and now!?



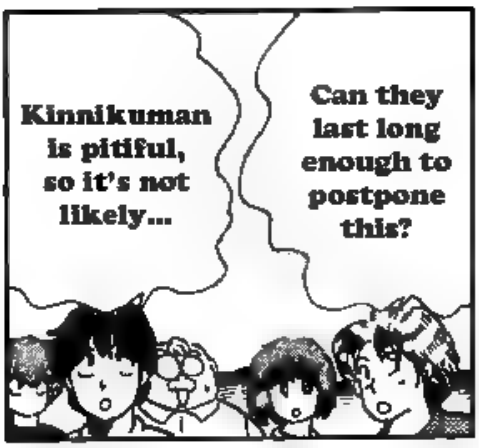
Wuuuuuh! How am I supposed to hold Gyuudon now!?



Chairman, can't we hold off on the match until Kinnikuman's arm has been taken care of!?
A doctor! We need a doctor!
Prince is dying!

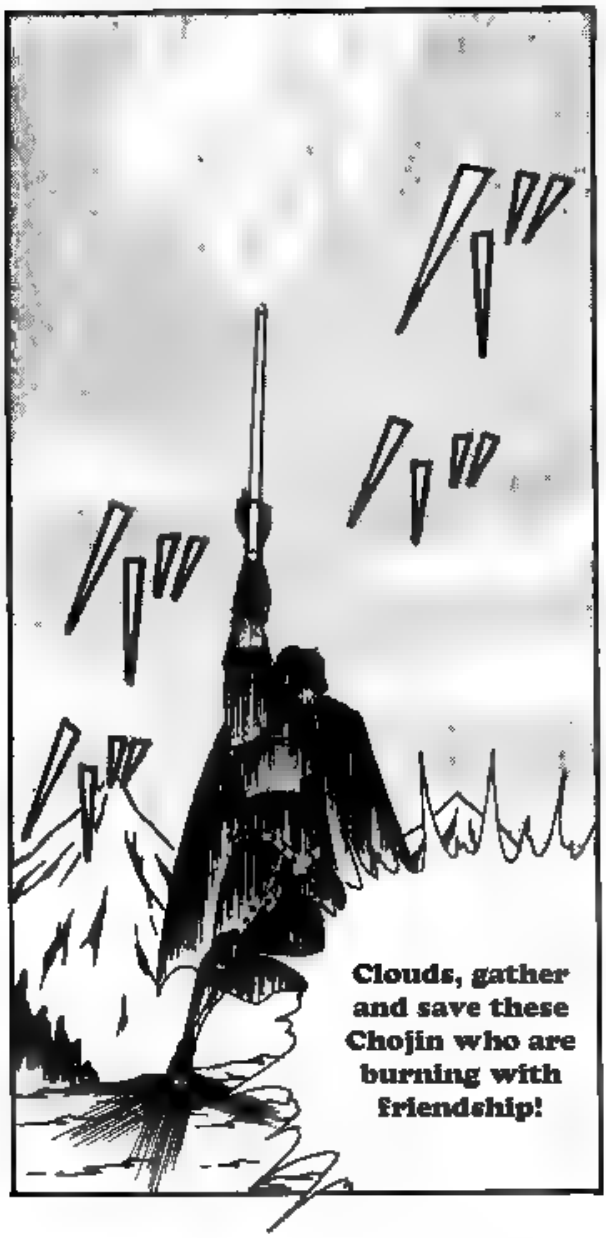


Since it's 5:45, there's still an hour and 15 minutes until the sun sets, which is enough time for the final match.
Well, the schedule was to have all of the matches in the tournament in a single day, and if any of the matches dragged on, we would postpone when the sun set at 7PM. That's the regulation ruling.

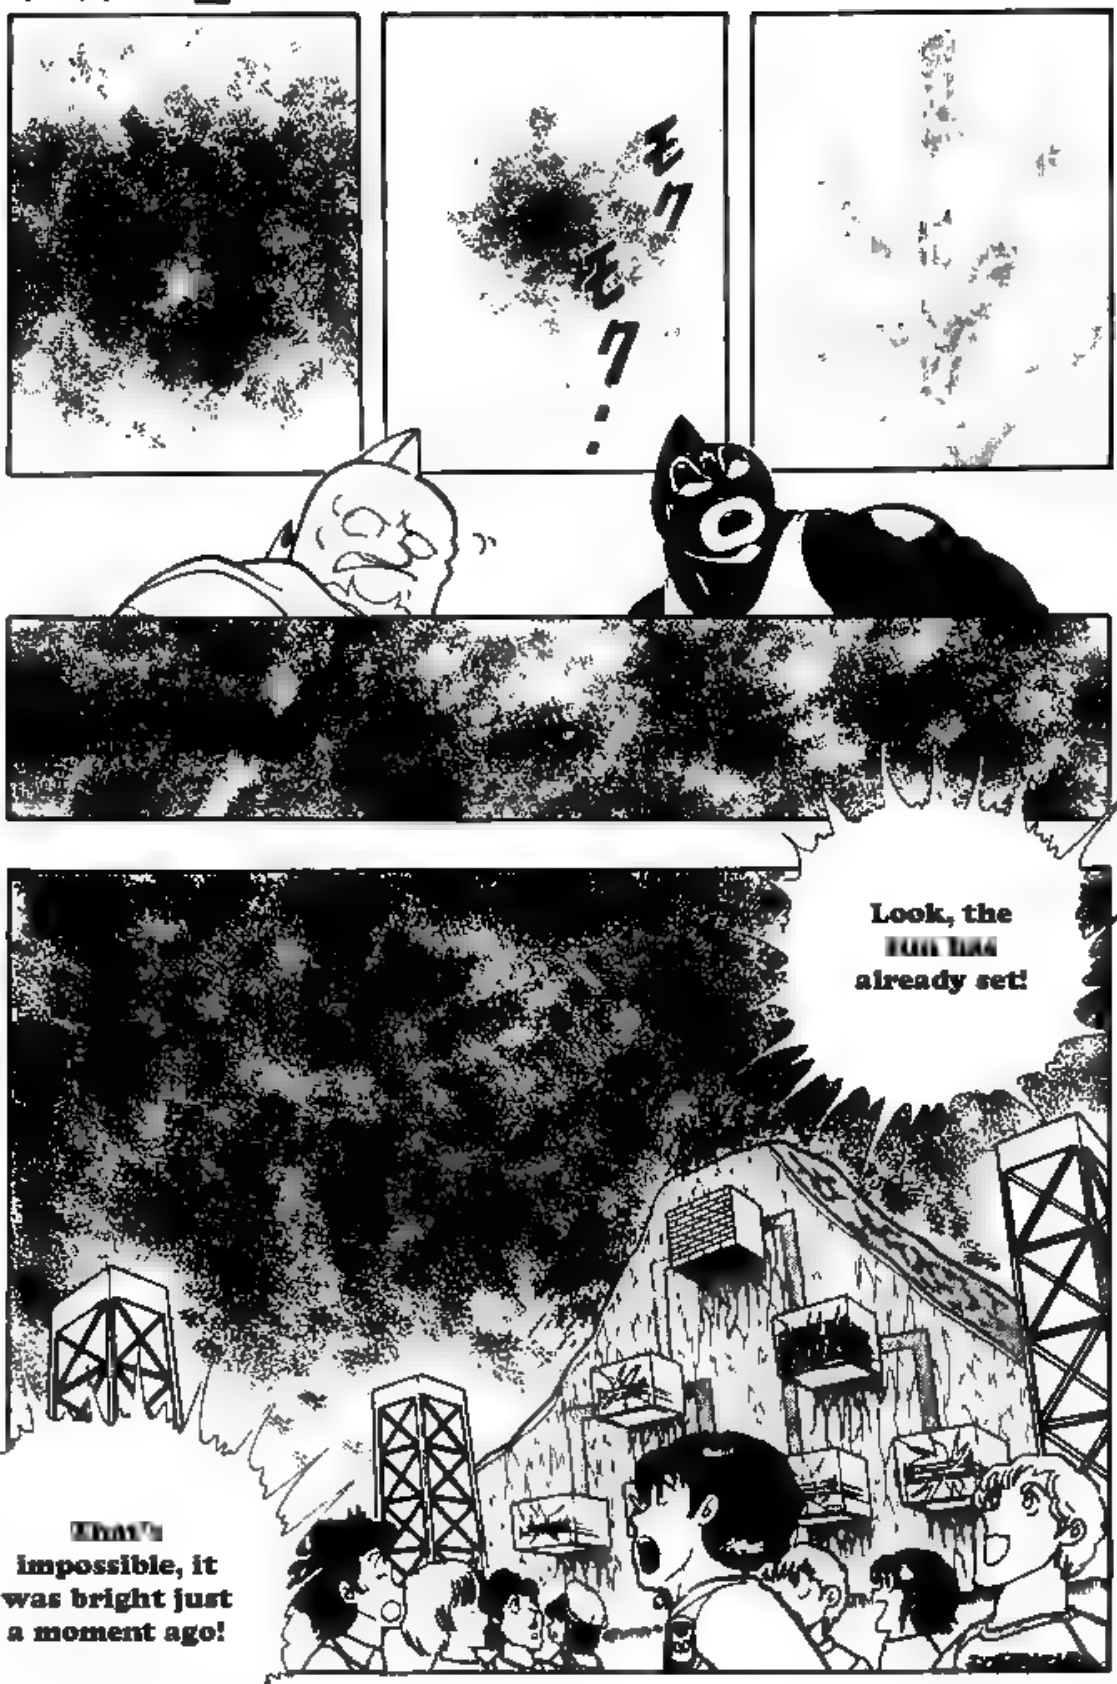


Kinnikuman is pitiful, so it's not likely...
Can they last long enough to postpone this?

But it's the rules...
An hour won't work! A Chojin's life is at stake, here!

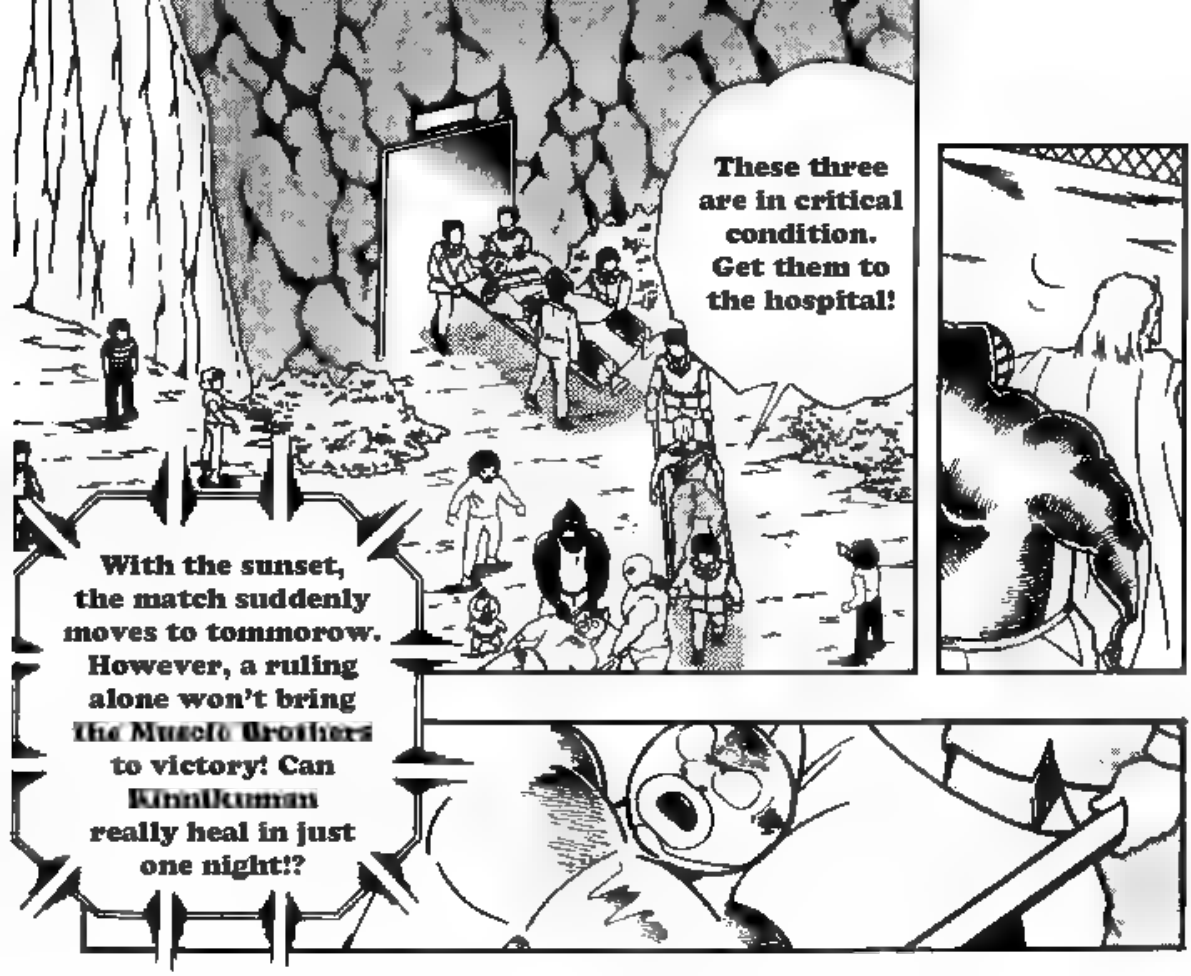


Clouds, gather and save these Chojin who are burning with friendship!

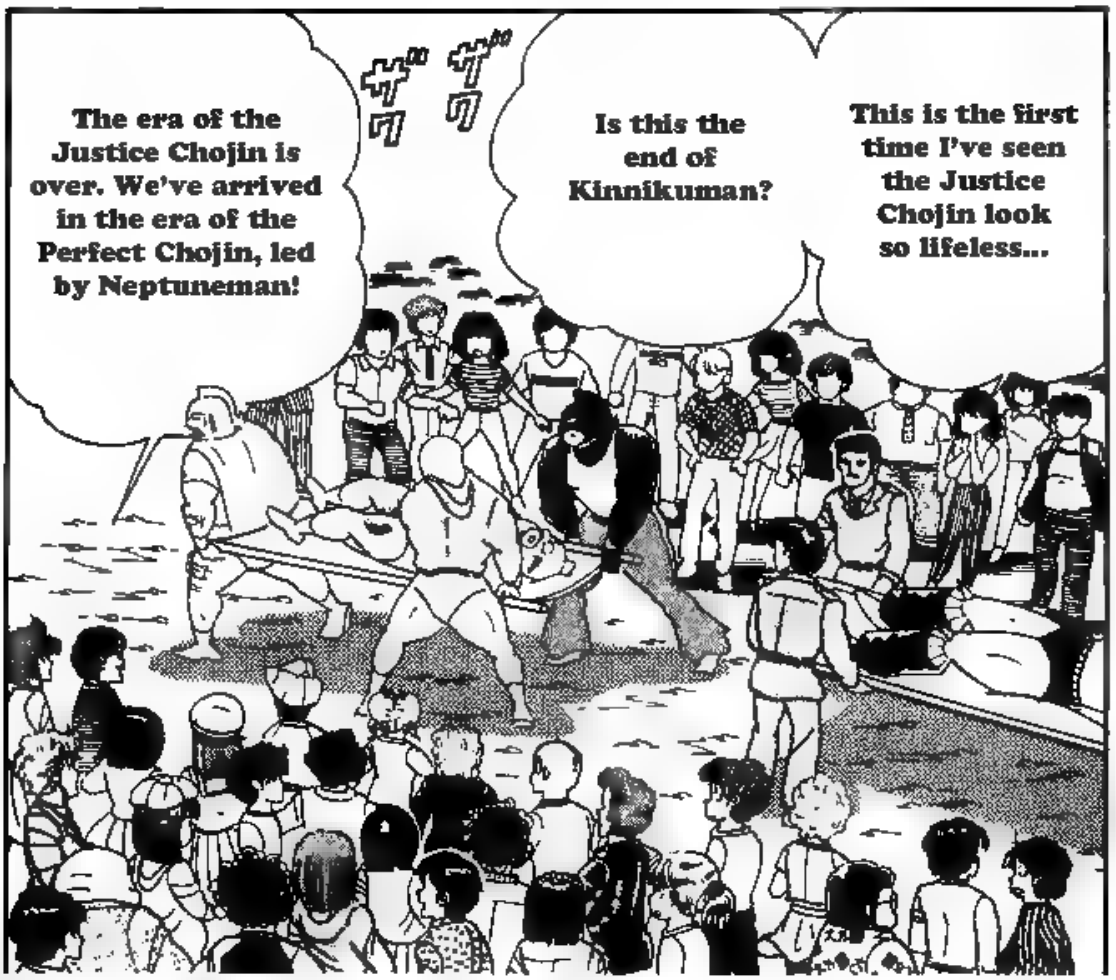


モクモク！
Look, the sun has already set!
What's impossible, it was bright just a moment ago!

Due to the sunset rule, the final match between the Muscle Brothers and the Hell Missionaries will be held tomorow!
Suguru!
He's lucky!
A doctor! Suguru needs to see a doctor!
Just don't forget! My cape still has two empty spaces left!
Kinnikuman and Kinnikuman Great, those spaces will be filled with your masks soon!



These three are in critical condition. Get them to the hospital!
With the sunset, the match suddenly moves to tommorow. However, a ruling alone won't bring the Muscle Brothers to victory! Can Kinnikuman really heal in just one night!?



The era of the Justice Chojin is over. We've arrived in the era of the Perfect Chojin, led by Neptuneman!
ｻﾞﾜ ｻﾞﾜ
Is this the end of Kinnikuman?
This is the first time I've seen the Justice Chojin look so lifeless...

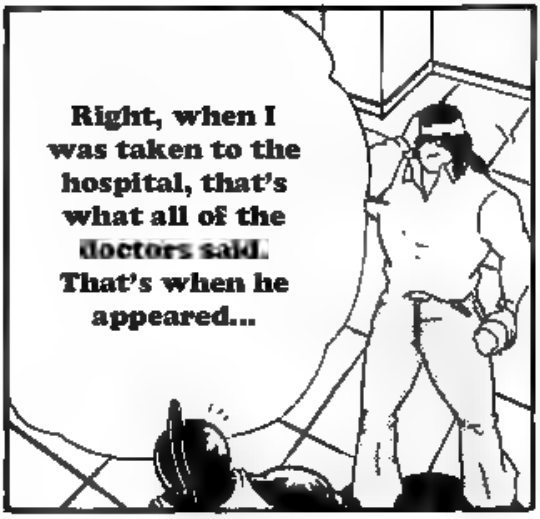
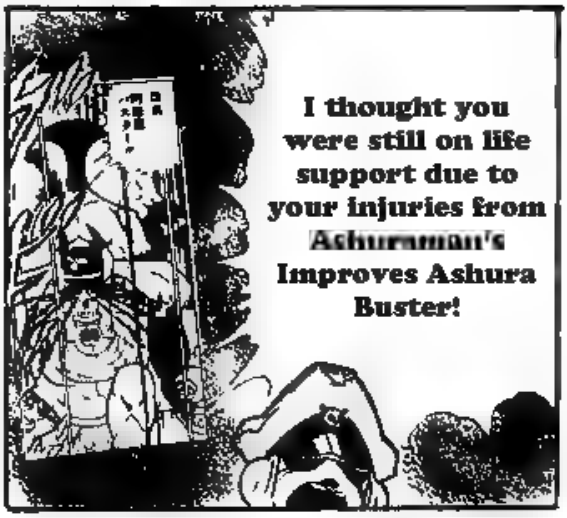
Prince Suguru!
Who are you!? Only authorized visitors are allowed!

Ura!
You, get out of here!
I saw that sign and removed it.
Ugh!
I'm glad to see you all again.
Geronimo!

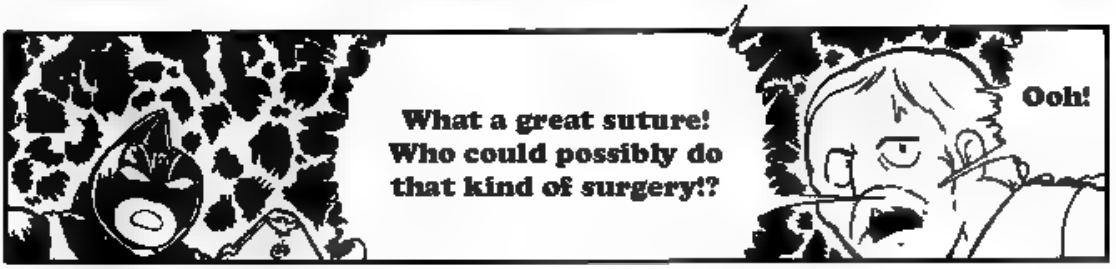


Right, when I was taken to the hospital, that's what all of the doctors said. That's when he appeared...



I thought you were still on life support due to your injuries from Ashuramaan's Improves Ashura Buster!

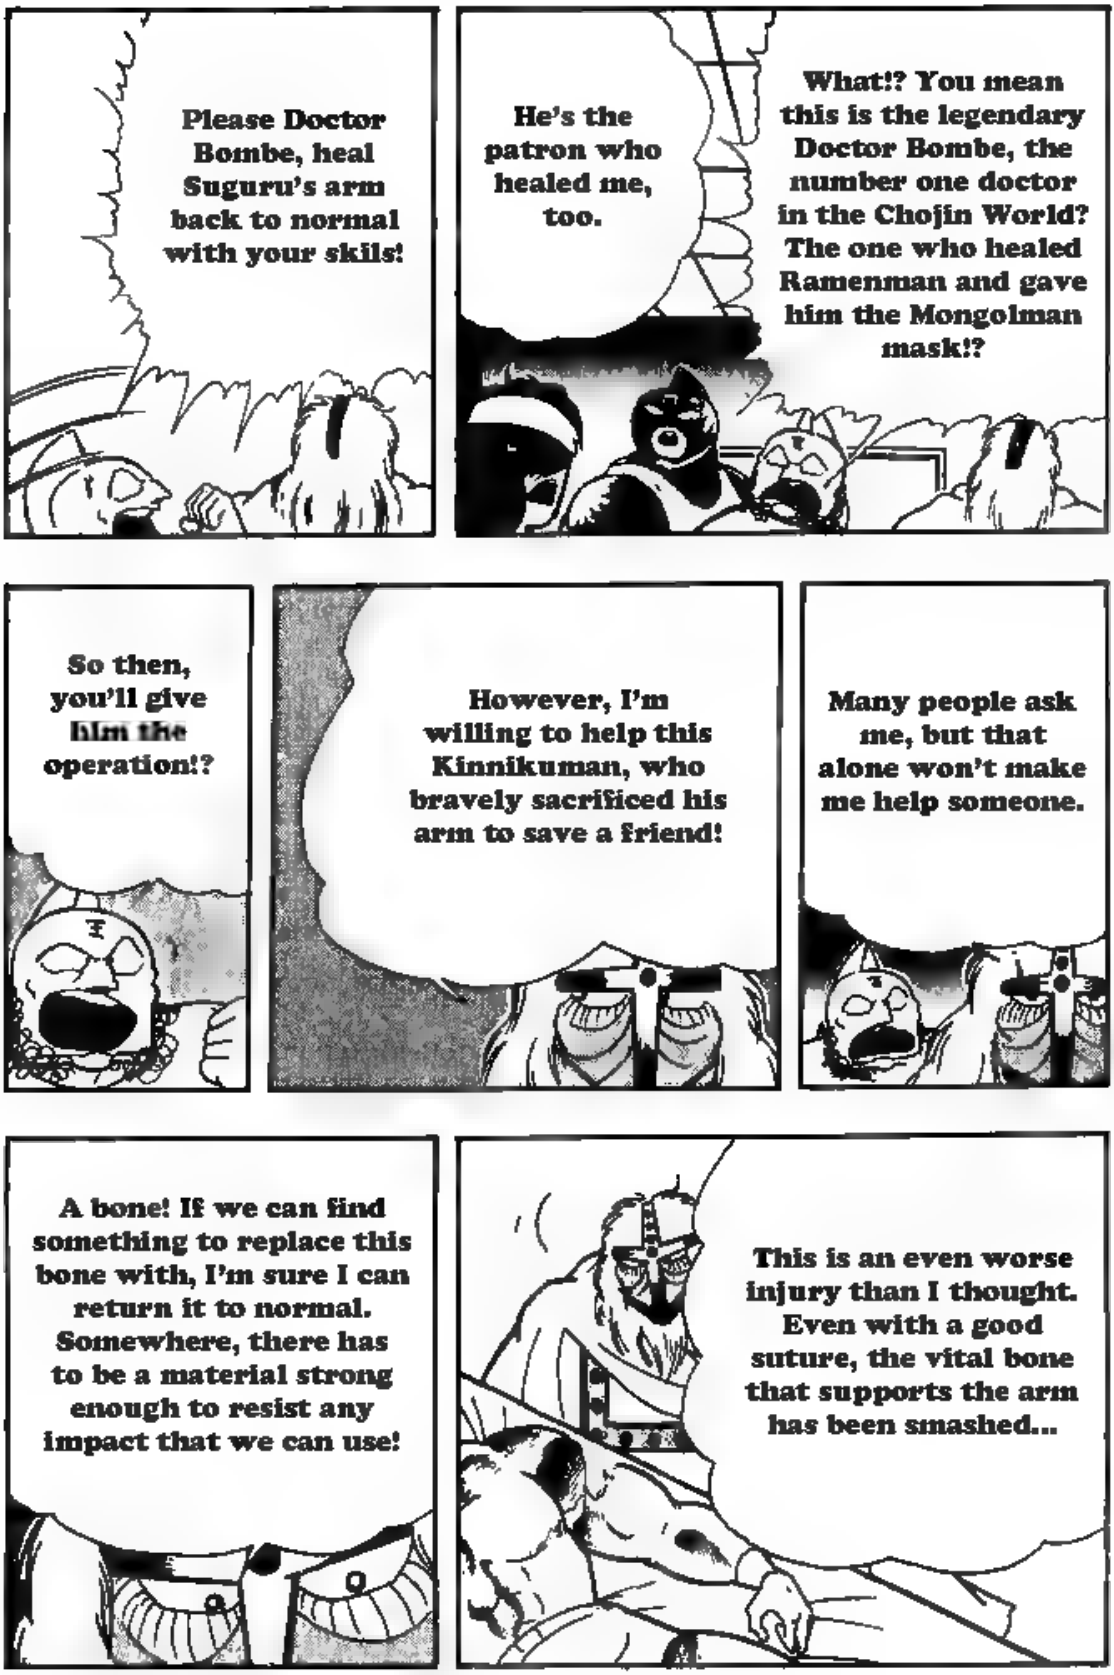
I've recovered a lot!



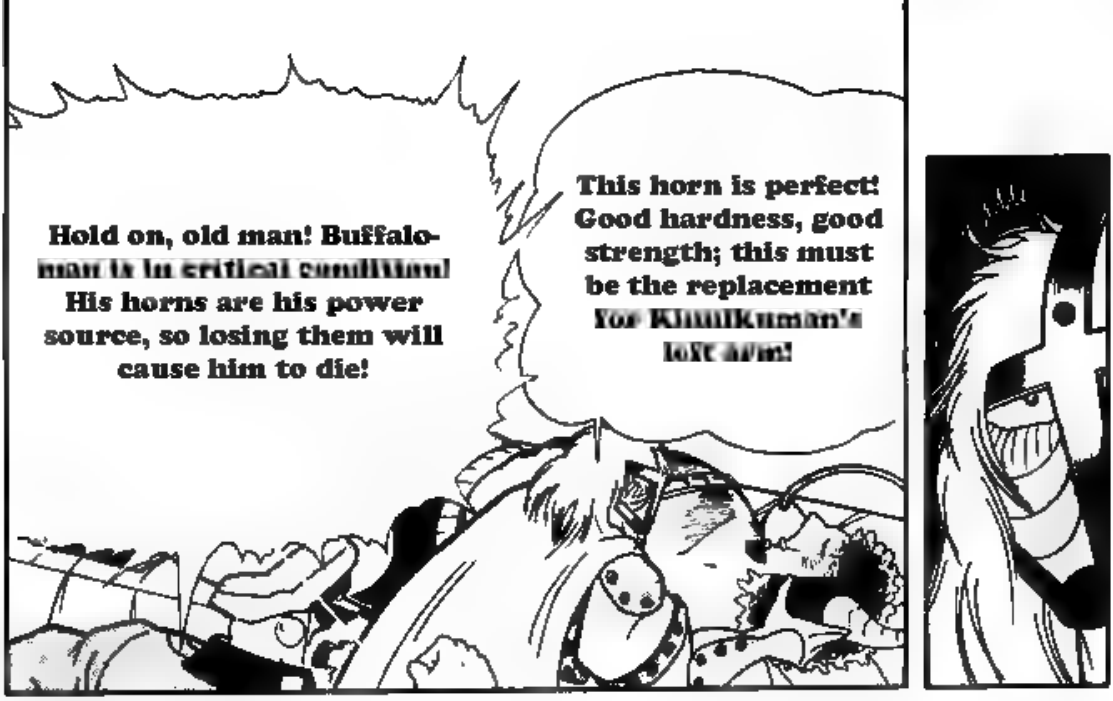
What a great suture! Who could possibly do that kind of surgery!?
Ooh!

Oh, here comes the doctor, now!
おおっ

Ramenman, this happened because you didn't listen to my warning...
Who does this guy think he is!?
This is Doctor Bombe!
What did Ramenman say!?
Auu...



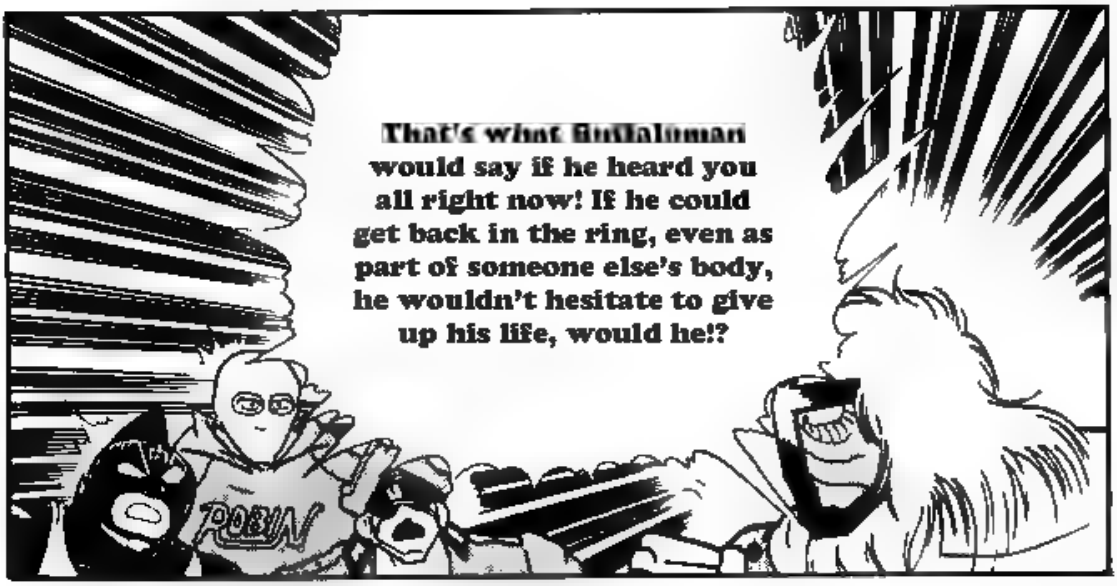
Please Doctor Bombe, heal Suguru's arm back to normal with your skils!
He's the patron who healed me, too.
What!? You mean this is the legendary Doctor Bombe, the number one doctor in the Chojin World? The one who healed Ramenman and gave him the Mongolman mask!?
So then, you'll give him the operation!?
However, I'm willing to help this Kinnikuman, who bravely sacrificed his arm to save a friend!
Many people ask me, but that alone won't make me help someone.
A bone! If we can find something to replace this bone with, I'm sure I can return it to normal. Somewhere, there has to be a material strong enough to resist any impact that we can use!
This is an even worse injury than I thought. Even with a good suture, the vital bone that supports the arm has been smashed...



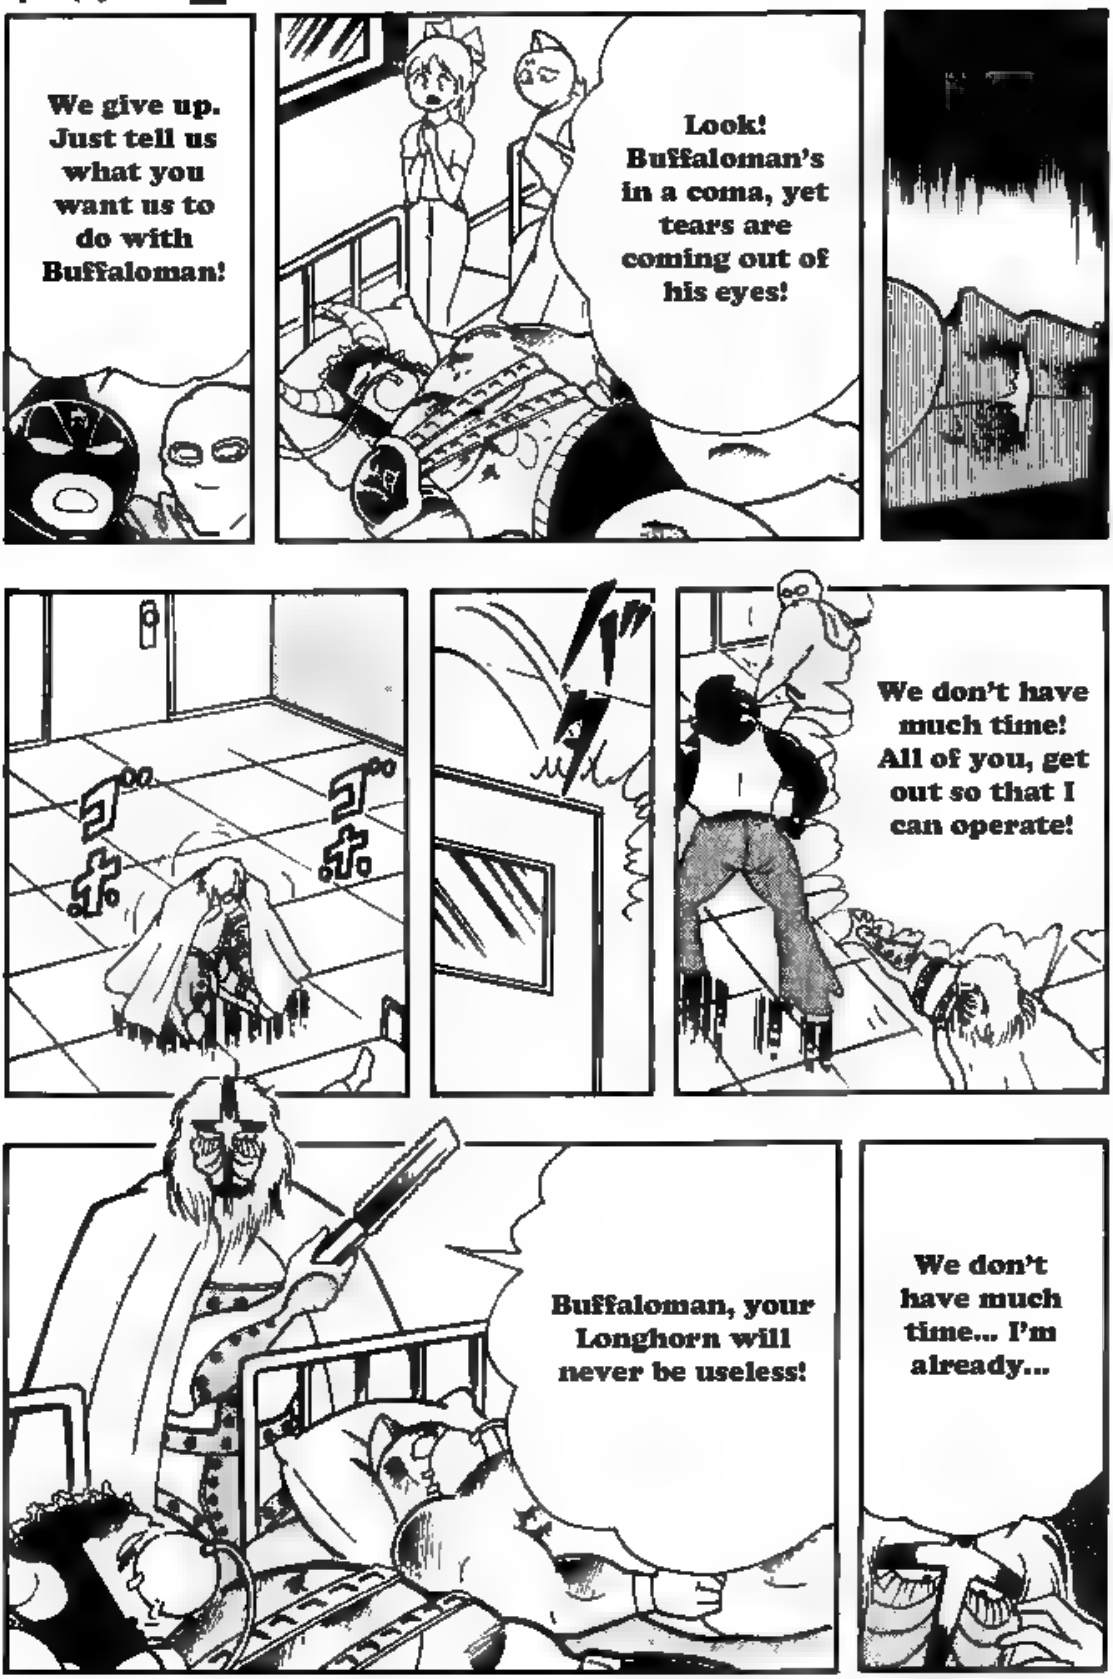
Hold on, old man! Buffalo-man is in critical condition! His horns are his power source, so losing them will cause him to die!
This horn is perfect! Good hardness, good strength; this must be the replacement for Kinnikuman's lost arm!

Do you all agree with him?

What did you say!?
Then this friendship is just pretend, afterall.



That's what Buffaloman would say if he heard you all right now! If he could get back in the ring, even as part of someone else's body, he wouldn't hesitate to give up his life, would he!?
POOH



We give up. Just tell us what you want us to do with Buffaloman!
Look! Buffaloman's in a coma, yet tears are coming out of his eyes!
We don't have much time! All of you, get out so that I can operate!
Buffaloman, your Longhorn will never be useless!
We don't have much time... I'm already...

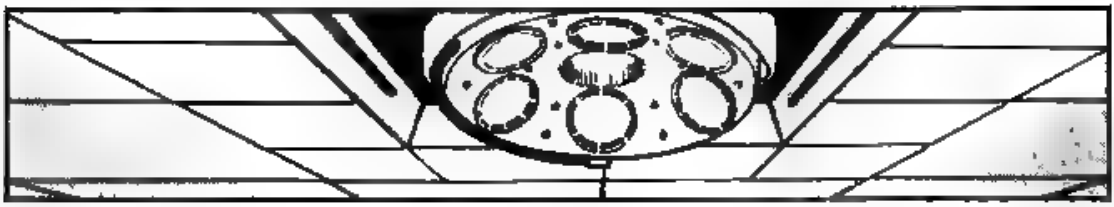
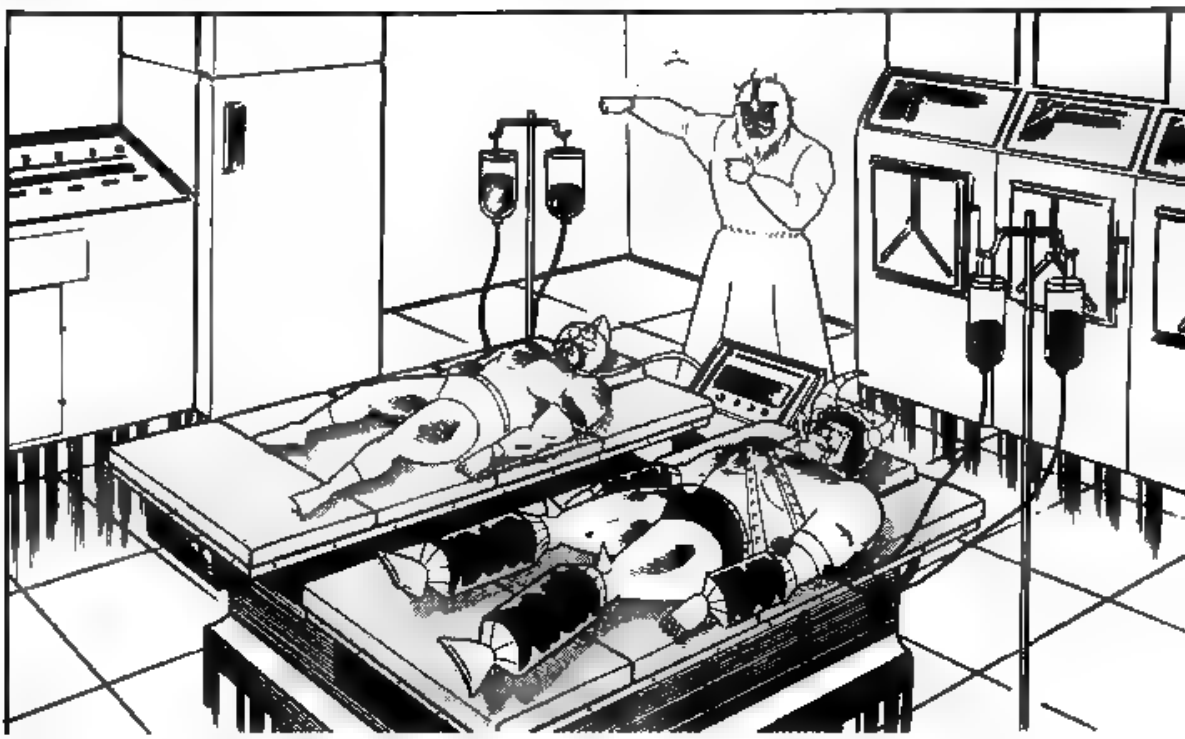
In Surgery





Doctor, Ramenman was returned to his room after his treatment.
Really? How is his coniditon?
Just as you predicted, his breathing and pulse have stabilized. It's thanks to you that he's getting better.
I can't take credit for it.
It was Kinnikuman's brave act that saved him.
Kinnikuman, I will fix your left arm, even if it costs me my life!

Hold on, Prince!
Ancestors, please watch Suguru!
It's starting!
Now I will perform the transplant of Buffaloman's Longhorn into Kinnikuman's left arm!

Are you alright, Doctor!?

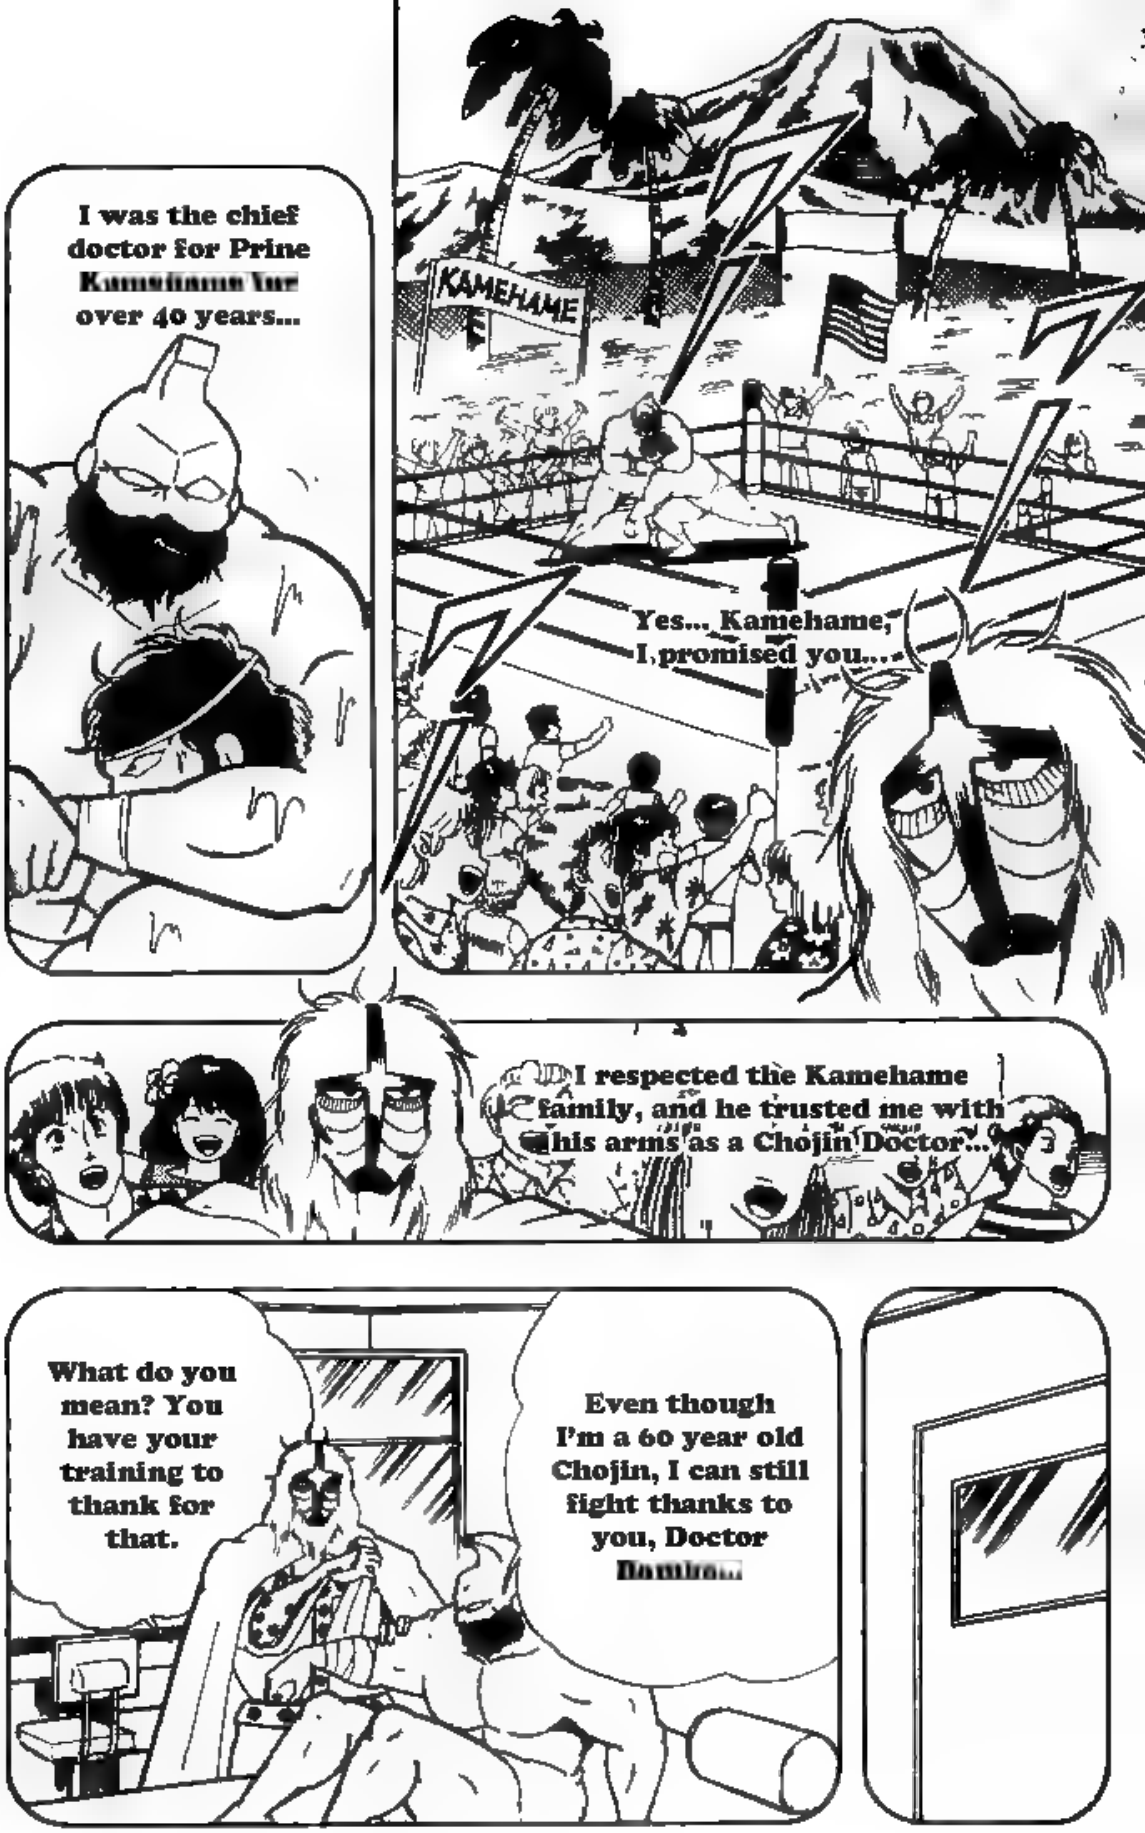
Heh... I have a malignant tumor in my stomach....
Ugh...
Is there something wrong with your health!?
Doing surgery with your body is impossible! You need to rest!
It's commonly known that doctors often ignore thier own health... These hands that have saved so many Chojin have also failed to save just as many Chojin...
Huh!?
Doctor!
No matter what, I must complete this surgery!
No, I need to do this at any cost. I need to repay the ghosts of all of the Justice Chojin I've killed in my life...
I have another important reason I have to do this. I have to keep a promise I made to someone...



I was the chief doctor for Prine Kamehame for over 40 years...
KAMEHAME
Yes... Kamehame, I promised you...
I respected the Kamehame family, and he trusted me with his arms as a Chojin Doctor...
What do you mean? You have your training to thank for that.
Even though I'm a 60 year old Chojin, I can still fight thanks to you, Doctor Banba...

After that, the two of us became too busy to meet again.
If you're young in body, you can fight even until you turn 100!
I was in China, busy with Ramenman's medical treatment.
Kamehame became the Hawaiian champion and lived a busy life...
Then one day, I was able to see him once again...

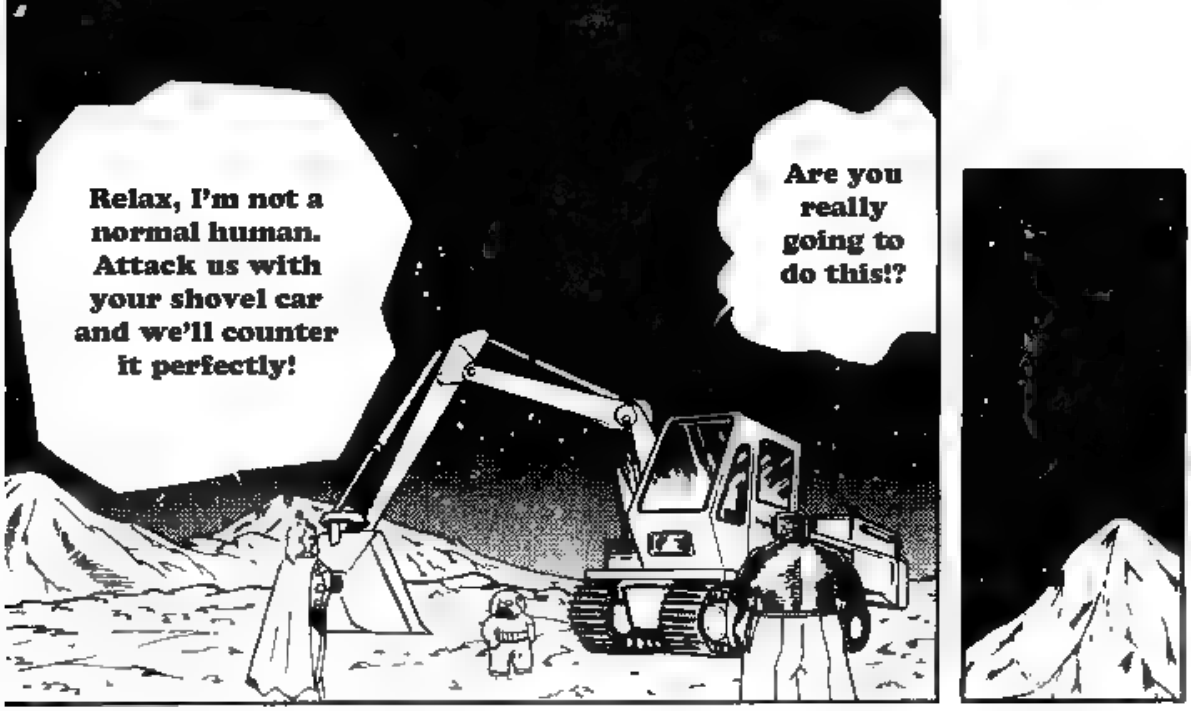
Doctor, although I was able to play chess with you today...
...this may be the last time.
.....!?
I must represent the Justice Chojin and enter the Chojin Tag Tournament!
...this is a champion-level Chojin tournament, so if my old body enters it, I may not be able to return home.
The important Friendship Power of the Justice Chojin has been stolen, so I need to enter that tournament to restore it...

.....
I made sure your body will last to fight until you're 100, so I know you'll come home safely!
Well then, go ahead!
If something does happen to me, please lend your skills as a doctor to the younger generation of Justice Chojin...
Alright!
That was the last time I saw him....
We'll continue our game when I get back from the tag tournament!

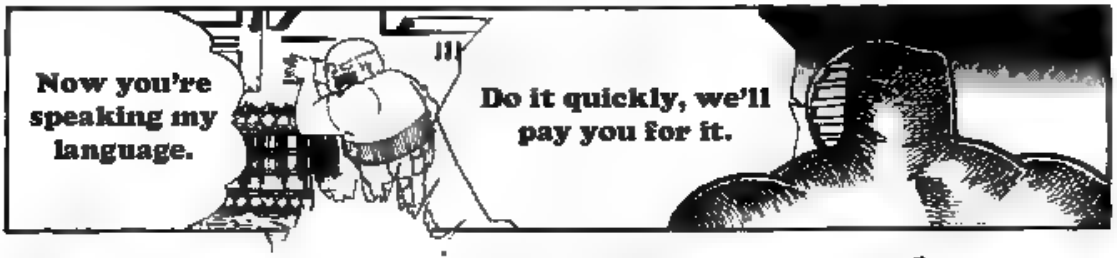
Kame-
hame!
GYAAA!
On night, a month after my final meeting with Kamehame, I had a dream that he was killed in the ring.
Kamehame, wherever in Japan you're resting, know that I will protect the light of the Justice Chojin!
Thus, I travelled to Japan to keep my promise to him.

Geronimo, make a fire, I'm going to begin amputating Buffaloman's Longhorn!
This really is a good horn...
Doctor Bombe's operations don't use anesthetic! The pain from the operation is what completes them!
It'll be over soon, Buffaloman...
Doctor, what about the anesthetic!?

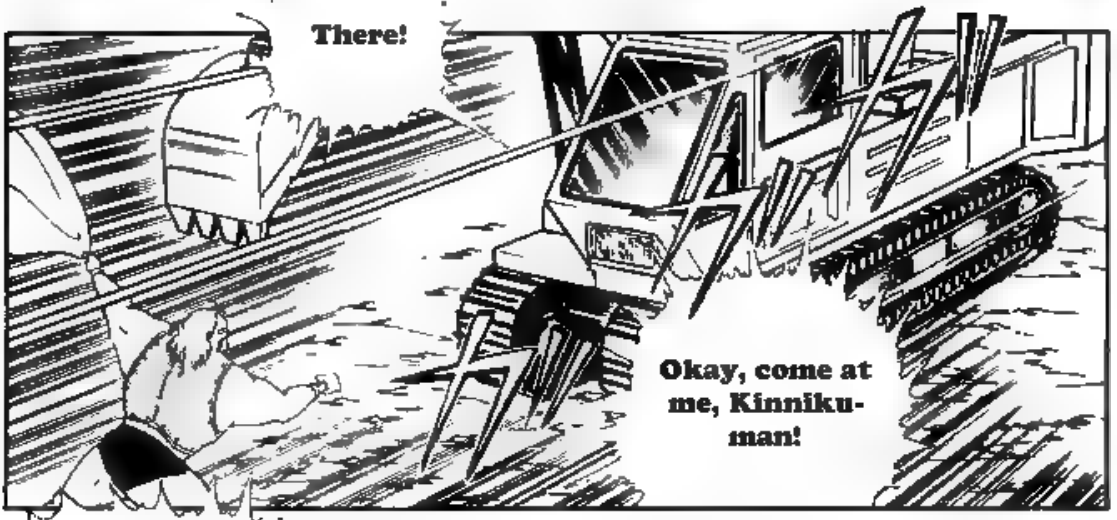
One more...
There!
You did it, Buffalo-man!
ボ"ト:
Alright, we'll cook the Long-horns with the fire you made!



Relax, I'm not a normal human. Attack us with your shovel car and we'll counter it perfectly!
Are you really going to do this!?

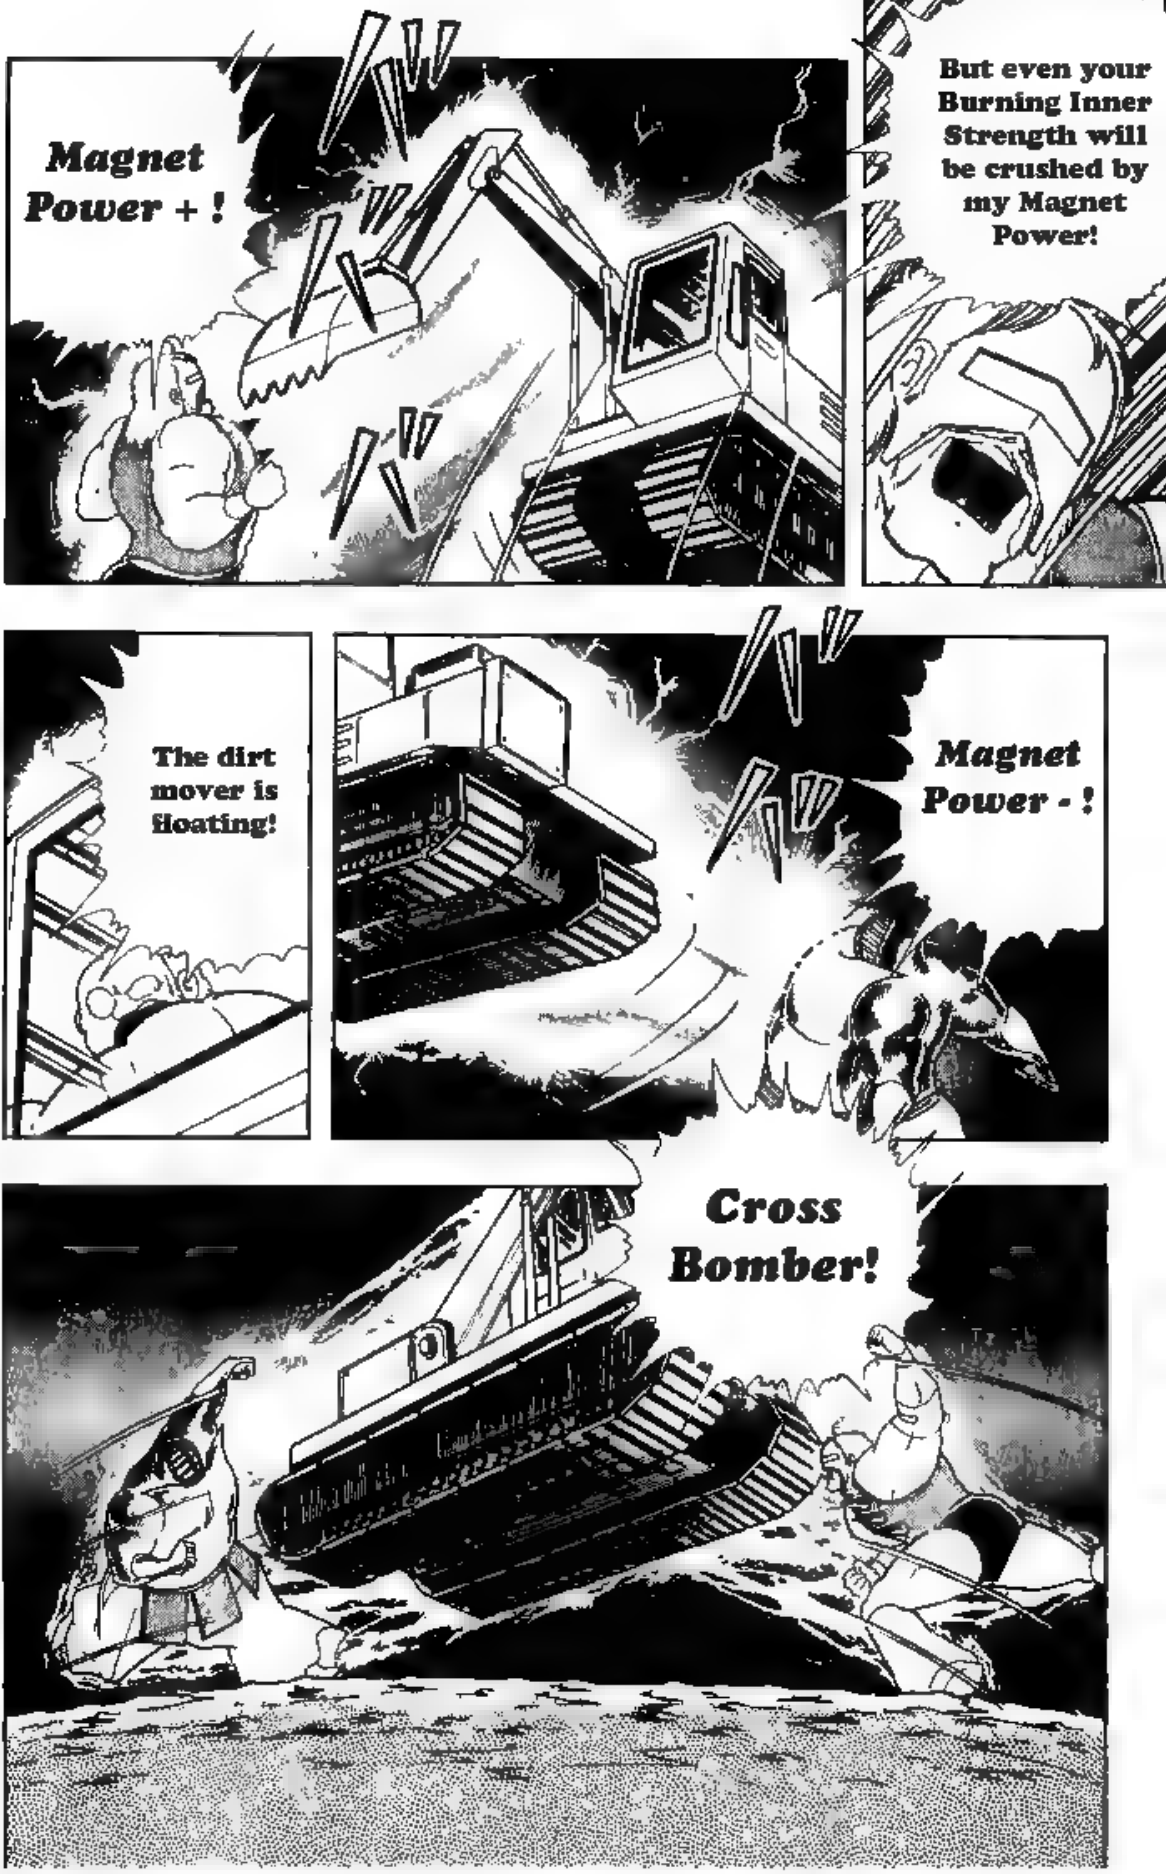


Now you're speaking my language.
Do it quickly, we'll pay you for it.



There!
Okay, come at me, Kinniku-man!

This rampaging steam shovel is your Burning Inner Strength!



Magnet Power + !
But even your Burning Inner Strength will be crushed by my Magnet Power!
The dirt mover is floating!

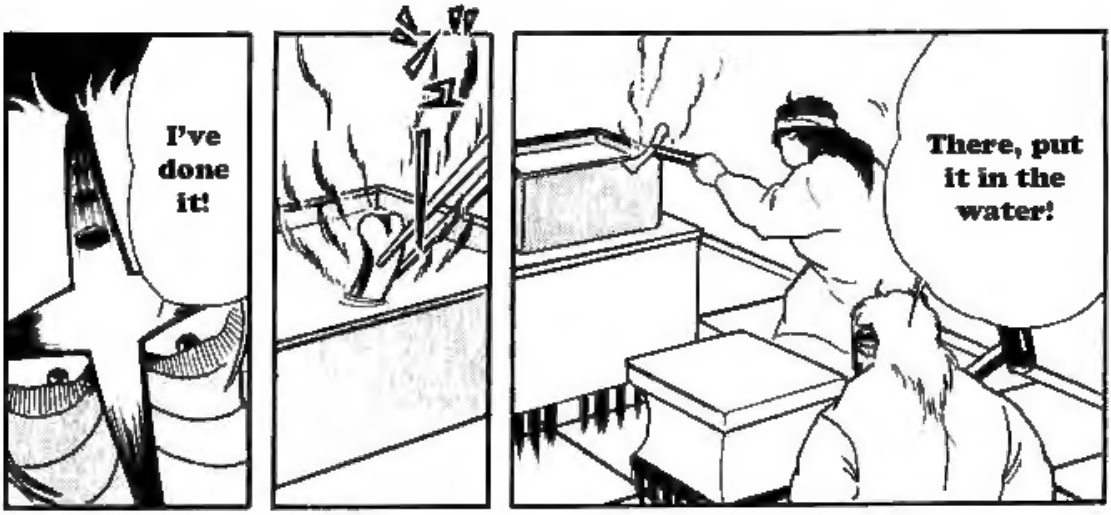
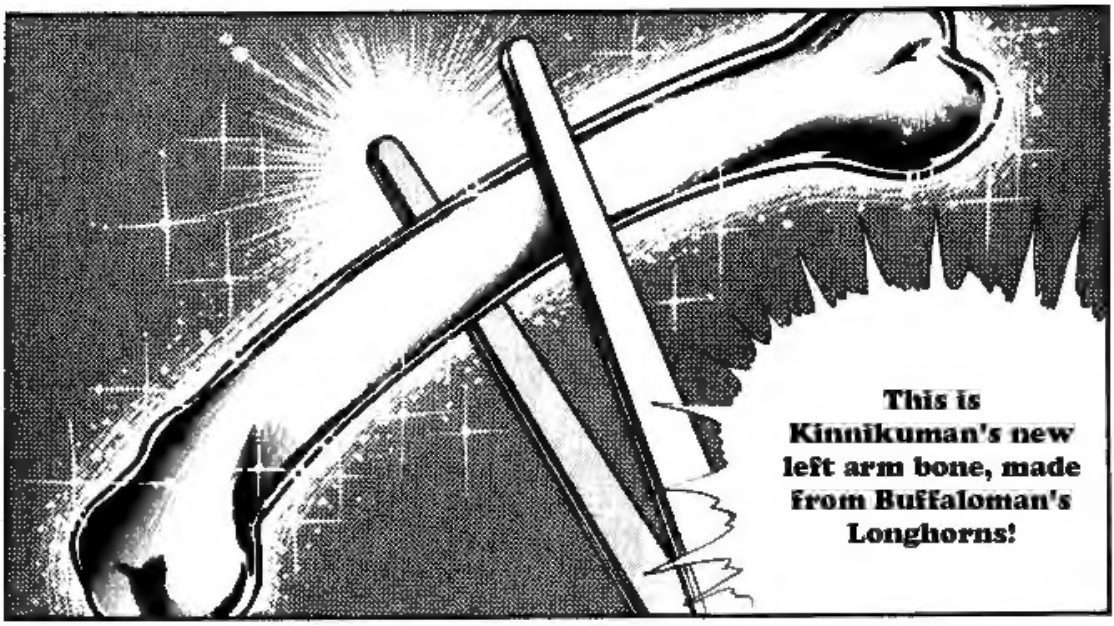
Cross Bomber!

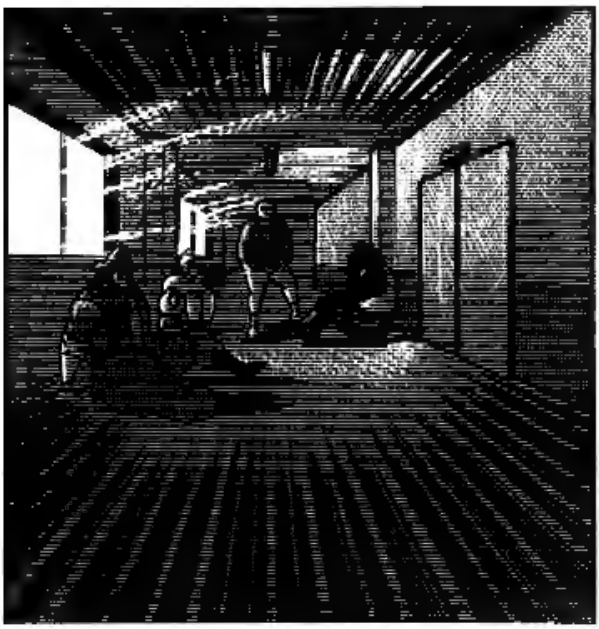
Kinnikuman, this is your destiny for tommorow!
Now we strike the red-hot Longhorn to shape it!

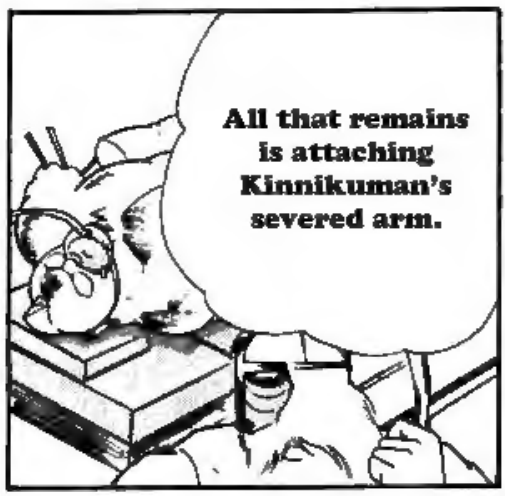


I've done it!
There, put it in the water!

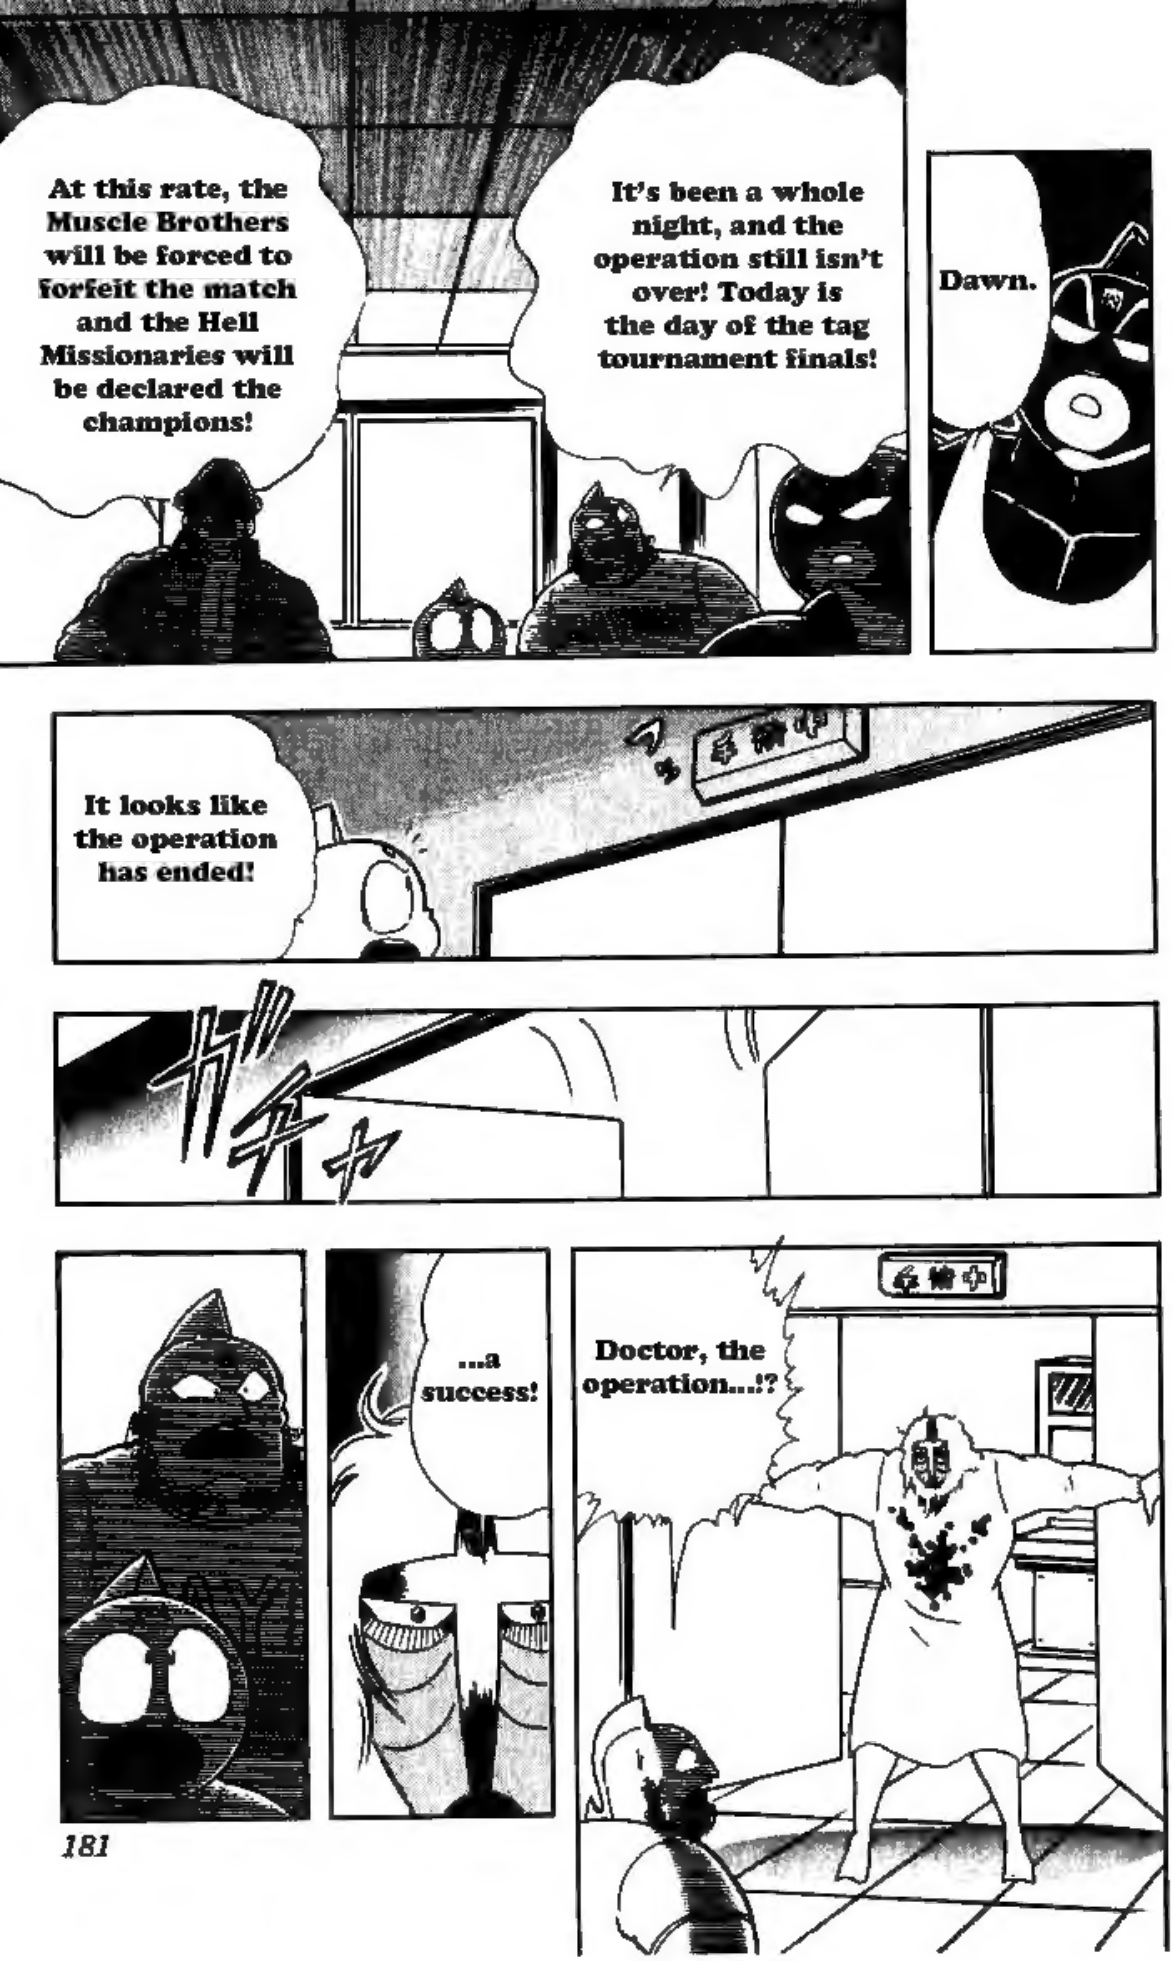


This is Kinnikuman's new left arm bone, made from Buffaloman's Longhorns!

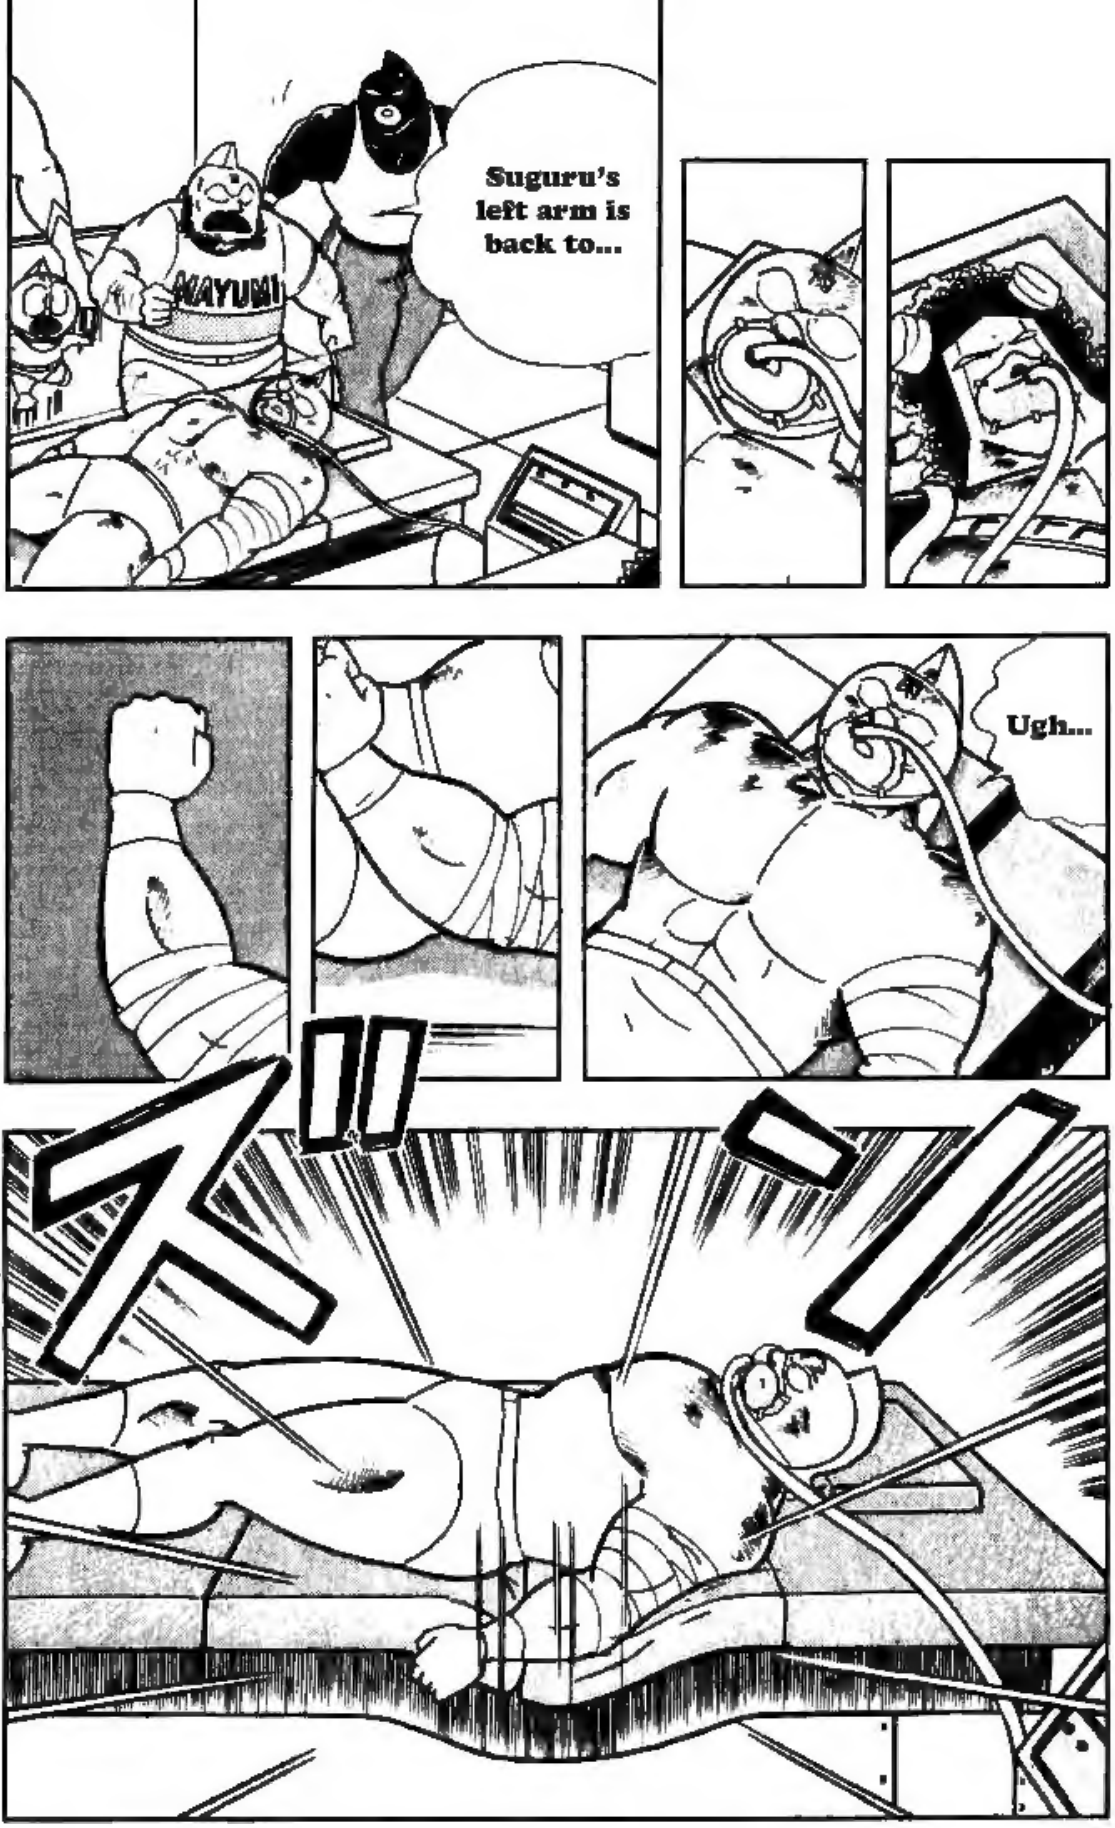




All that remains is attaching Kinnikuman's severed arm.



At this rate, the Muscle Brothers will be forced to forfeit the match and the Hell Missionaries will be declared the champions!
It's been a whole night, and the operation still isn't over! Today is the day of the tag tournament finals!
Dawn.
It looks like the operation has ended!
...a success!
Doctor, the operation...!?



Suguru's left arm is back to...

I've left the world a good operation, Kamehame...
Kinnikuman's left arm is healed! With Buffaloman's power, it's even stronger than ever before!
